Entries Close; Pick Tech as Win ner; Local Athletes Clean Up Saturday at Penn-State

Prawings for the annual state fign school meet on Municipal Field, Island Park, Saturday, will be made to-night. The Harrisburg Track Athletic Committee will hold a special meeting to consider entries and complete the program. Entries closed this morning. At least fifteen high schools will complete this year.

At least ifteen high schools will compete this year.

Tech's big victory at Penn State Saturday is taken as an indication that the local athletes are likely to be a winner of the state meet again this year. Tech scored 117 points on Saturday at State College. The nearest competitor was Bellefonte Academy, with 25 points. Central had 6 points. Houtz won second in the low hurdles and Diffenbach took third in the hammer throw.

Tech not only had a clean-up in this meet, but hung up new records. Sutch won the 12-points would be seconds. Beck won the 12-pound shot put, throwing it 45.2 feet, breaking the old scholastic record here of 41.4 feet. The results follow:

BASEBALL PEAVE FAR OFF

Ban Johnson Hands Out His Weekly Boost Bulletin
Chicago, Ill., May 17.—There is no immediate prospect for peace between organized baseball and the Federal League, according to B. B. Johnson, president of the American League, who is home from a trip to the eastern cities of his circuit.

"Peace hasn't even been considered, despite all stories and reports to the contrary." President Johnson said yesterday.

"Everthing looks bright for the American League in the East," he added. "In New York the situation is exceptionally favorable. If the Yankees can keep up near the top all season it will mean a great deal for every club in the league. At any rate, I look for a spirited race in our organization, this season."
