STOCKS IN EARLY MARKETS

All Classes Showed Gains During Morning Hours; U. S. Steel Rises

New York, May 21. - A steady tone prevailed here in the stock market, all classes showing gains. These extended to a full point in the case of U. S. Steel, war specialties, United States Steel, Coppers and Mexican Petroleum. The rise in the case of U. S. Steel was particularly substantial after temporary hesitation. Chesapeake and Ohio, Erie, Pacific and other fractions to a point. Dealings were of moderate volume, indications pointing to a dull day.
