To Have Pretty Hair

Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.
An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from H. C. Kennedy, or any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fuffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

she was a child again, and all the wordliness forgotten, according to the lawyer.

Mr. McIntyre visited Eugenia, who is 18, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ralph Thomas, 375 Park avenue.

Reaches Finer Sympathies
At first the girl was not inclined to listen to any arguments in behalf of her mother's appeal that she return home and give up her Broadway friends. Gradually, however, Mr. Mo-Intyre's appeal touched the finer sympathies of the girl and she listened.

The lawyer, who was told by Eugenia to mind his own business when he addressed her in court on Saturday, confided to reporters that the girl admitted she had been wayward and foolish and had gone with undesirable companions.
