AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC
To-morrow evening --- Christie MacDonald in "Sweethearts."

COLONIAL
Vaudeville and Pictures --- Every afternoon and evening.

MOVING PICTURES
Photoplay, 10 a. m. to 11 p. m. Regent, 12 noon to 11 p. m. Royal, 8 p. m. to 11 p. m. Victoria, 8 p. m. to 11 p. m. CHRISTIE MACDONALD IN "SWEETHEARTS"

Good music, pretty girls, graceful dancing, regular singing and dashes of comedy stuff to make you laugh is what you have a right to expect when you go to a musical show---and that's what you'll get when you see Christie MacDonald in "Sweethearts" at the Majestic to-morrow.

It is to be sure, there is Christie herself, with her charm and resilience and prettiness. Then there is Victor Hertz, whose music you just have to whistle when the curtain drops.

Songs such as "Sweethearts," "In the Country," "I Never Taught Me That," "Smiles," and "For Every Lover" are just a few of the delightful of the musical features. An especially strong chorus and good voices possessed by the principals makes these songs sink into you in the way you can't explain, but are happy ever all the same.

The dull part of the whole show is the really necessary wait between curtains.

As for the plot, it is only necessary to say that a princess is adopted by a laundress and that the scenes are laid in a beautiful film. Of course, it all ends well.---Advertisement.

MOVING PICTURES VIA SHADOWS
A new kind of moving pictures are being shown at the Regent Theater the first three days of this week. They reach the screen by means of shadows thrown from behind, and the pictures presented are interesting, indeed. One of the pictures shows the sinking of a battleship and the waving of the S. flag after the battle has been won. This never fails to bring big applause from the audience. This is only one of four good acts presented at the Colonial.

To-morrow there will be a new show at the Colonial. This will be headed by the Seven Bracks, one of the greatest acrobatic novelties in vaudeville. The Seven Bracks have played at the biggest houses on the Keith circuit.---Advertisement.

ANOTHER GREAT PARAMOUNT FILM THIS AFTERNOON AND EVENING AND TOMORROW AT THE REGENT

The Regent Theater will present this afternoon and evening and to-morrow one of the Paramount Film productions, as you well know, of the best film made in the world.

Bosworth will present Buckshot John, by Charles E. Van Loan. Bosworth is a highly dramatic actor with many unusual features and a reliable cast.

The plot is most original, centered as it is around two unique characters, desperado, who later is convicted, and a polished charlatan. There are a number of daring scenes on moving trains, fresh and wholesome love story, a love story, a theme which at once attracts and holds the audience, a sympathetic central character superbly played by Robert Brook, a strong supporting cast headed by Courtenay Foote, and photography so fine that it sets a new standard for Paramount production.---Advertisement.

VICTORIA THEATER

The picture shows at this modern theater, the very phases of this form of entertainment and every person's class of picture play is shown here this week. For to-day we present for the first time in any Harrisburg theater a great melodramatic three-part Lubin production entitled, "The Gray Horror." It is a melodrama of the most intense action, scenes that are thrilling with realistic fire that ends the lives of two villains and brings happiness to the worthy ones.

"The Sheriff's Story" and "The Biograph drama and a comedy drama, entitled "To Save Him For His Wife," round out an exceptionally pleasing program.---Advertisement.

PAXTANG PARK SHOW

Harry Beck's "Made in Harrisburg" Minstrels, will close their engagement at Paxtang Park this evening. The show has been one of the most successful amateur productions that have ever appeared at the park, in fact the show is on a par with the average traveling organization. For the last half of the week Manager Davis has booked a vaudeville show with the mysterious Brindamour as the headliner. Brindamour has appeared in Harrisburg several times and his act hardly requires description. It is enough to say that as a magician and handcraft expert he has no equal. Five other standard acts will make up the balance of the show.---Advertisement.

You Can't Hide Values Like These

Every man who steps out of this store in a new Kuppenheimer Suit unconsciously spreads the news of the style supremacy of this store.

Mind you, we don't mean that he hasn't much to say, for it is a fact that more than 85 per cent. of our new friends come to us on the recommendation of old ones, the big point is that Kuppenheimer Clothes at Doutrich bigger value prices positively cannot get out of the spot light of public approval.

We cannot expect to sell all the men's and young men's clothing which will be purchased in Harrisburg this Spring and Summer, nevertheless if all Harrisburg bought
