Story Telling Program Pleases Large Audience

The Story Telling Club held its last meeting of the season last evening at the hall of the Public Library, pleasing a large audience by a delightful program. Mrs. Edna Groff Deihl in her original tale, "Birds of the Air," showed the boys and girls the necessity of an unprejudiced attitude toward the South; Kipling's delectable humor was cleverly voiced by Miss Mary Snyder as she quietly revealed the smooth cunning of the animals of the East. Mrs. Harry G. Keffer gave a strong, sympathetic impersonation of Iron, perfected through wrath and suffering in the most formidable factor of war. The narration of the immortal love and faith of Artaban, the Median, was told by Miss Florence Carroll in a memorable way. The exquisite poem of "The Fern Fairies" given by Miss Lois K. Booker, who wrote it, received much applause and the educational feature of the program, a Victrola story by Miss Faulkner, was thoroughly enjoyed. The Dutch folk dance in costume by Miss Delbo and Miss Kimmel, assisted by Thornton Byers, violinist, was bewitching.

The club has closed a successful season, giving not only highly cultural programs, but bringing to the city in lectures, Professor J. G. Carter, Froop, lecturer for the New York Board of Education, and Miss Adelaide Ilman, of Germantown, a famous story teller.

Every day, in thousands and thousands of homes, there'll be happy smiles over the

New Post Toasties

They're different from the ordinary corn flakes, both in flavour and form. Post Toasties don't mush down in cream as ordinary flakes do—they have a body and form that keeps them crisp and firm.

And the flavour! The hearts of selected white corn are skillfully cooked, daintily seasoned, rolled and toasted by a new process that brings out all the delightful zest of the true corn flavour in
