3rd Annual Cooking School of the Harrisburg Telegraph

ECONOMICS SCHOOL WAS BIG SUCCESS

who watch her and learn from her. The lecture on "School Lunches" was a very helpful one and Harrisburg mothers expressed themselves as extremely grateful to Mrs. Vaughn for the valuable assistance she has given them in providing a wholesome diet for growing children.

The preparation of salmon croquettes, an interesting frying demonstration, was an item of to-day's menu. She has given considerable attention to the subject of frying while she has been in Harrisburg and has convinced many of the ladies who have attended her school that her frying methods and the frying fat that she uses are the very best.

May Return Next Year

Much regret is felt over the fact that to-day's session closed the Telegraph Home Economics School, but everybody connected in any manner with the enterprise is jubilant over the success which has attended it. The school has been the talk of the town. Mrs. Vaughn's decorated cakes, which she has lavishly given away to the ladies who attended the school as well as to some of the men who have helped in making it a success, have created quite a sensation. The merchants of Harrisburg are pleased with the effort and believe that they will reap part of the benefit.

Many requests have come in to Mrs. Vaughn to return to Harrisburg next season, and if this is at all possible it will be arranged.

In her work here Mrs. Vaughn used the Ideal Fireless Cooker, which Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, the local agents, are demonstrating.

The Victoria used during the musicale which preceded each lecture demonstration was loaned by C. M. Sigler. Rother's loaned the big kitchen cabinet and Miller and Kades the refrigerator. All the milk was supplied by the Pennsylvania Milk Products Company. Hofer Hercules brand of flour and Royal Baking Powder was used. Kitchen utensils used were wear-ever aluminum, some of which has been featured this week by Bowman & Co., while for others the local agency is held by Robert J. Wolf.

A few of Mrs. Vaughn's receipts follow:

Oatmeal Cookies

One and one-fourth cupful sugar, 1 cupful crisco, 3 cupfuls rolled oats, 2 eggs, 1/2 cupful sweet milk, 1 teaspoonful powdered cinnamon, 1 teaspoonful powdered ginger, 3 teaspoonful baking powder, 2 cupfuls flour, 1 teaspoonful salt.

Cream crisco and sugar thoroughly together, add eggs well beaten, rolled oats, salt, spices, baking powder, flour and milk. Mix and drop from spoon on criscoed baking tins. Bake in moderate oven from 10 to 12 minutes. Sufficient for 45 cookies.

For one service spread 4 fresh-toasted, triangular pieces of bread with mayonnaise dressing. Cover 2 of these with lettuce hearts; on the lettuce lay thin slices of cold, cooked chicken breast, above the chicken slices of crisp, hot broiled breakfast bacon, then cover with the other triangles of toast, spread with mayonnaise. Put these on a plate; beside them place 2 heart-leaves of lettuce, each containing a scant teaspoonful of mayonnaise dressing.

Rice Mold With Fruit Compote

One cupful rice, 3/4 cupful milk, 1 egg, 2 tablespoonfuls sugar, lemon or vanilla flavoring, fruit, stewed.

Wash the rice clean and boil in sufficient water until done. Drain the water off well. Add, while hot, a custard made of egg, milk and sugar. Flavor with lemon or vanilla. Cook until set. Form into molds and serve with stewed prunes, peaches or any other kind of fruit.

TWO HEROES OF THE LUSITANIA

KATHLEEN KAYE
Kathleen Kaye, a sixteen-year-old girl, was one of the heroines of the Lusitania. She got into a lifeboat with a large number of women and children. When one of the crew, overcome in the excitement, collapsed, she took an oar and rowed for hours until the boatload was picked up.

M'cORMACK
WIRELESS OPERATOR
M'cormack, one of the wireless operators, calmly took photographs as the ship was sinking. He went down with the ship, but was picked up. His films were destroyed by the water. The photographs show them shortly after their arrival at Queenstown.

A. G. VANDERBILT'S WILL IS PROBATED

queathed to him by his father, Cornelius Vanderbilt, is transferred to the deceased's eldest son, William H.

Vanderbilt, who also receives the use of Oakland farm, at Portsmouth, R. I., which the executors are forbid to dispose of until he reaches his majority, when it will be transferred to him.

Sums For Other Relatives

Mr. Vanderbilt's brother, Reginald C. Vanderbilt, receives $500,000; his uncle, Frederick W. Vanderbilt, $200,000; Frederick M. Davis, $500,000; Henry B. Anderson, $200,000; Frederick L. Merriam, $250,000; Charles E. Crocker, $10,000, and Howard Lockwood, $1,000. Employees of Oakland farm, Sagamore Lodge, Camp Kilcare and Gloucester House in London, who have been in service for five years, get a full year's wages.

The rest of the estate is bequeathed to the executors to divide among the sons of Margaret Emerson Vanderbilt, his second wife, who are Alfred G. Jr., and George.

The will is dated December 16, 1913, and was signed in New York City. The executors are Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Henry B. Anderson, Frederick M. Davis and Frederick L. Merriam.

The trust fund bequeathed to his eldest son, William H., amounts to $5,000,000. This fund was one over which he had power of appointment under the will of Cornelius Vanderbilt. It was explained by attorneys for the executors that this sum was in addition to a liberal settlement made for the son of the decedent during the father's life time.

ATTORNEY WANTS TO REMODEL 125-YEAR-OLD HOUSE OF BUCHER

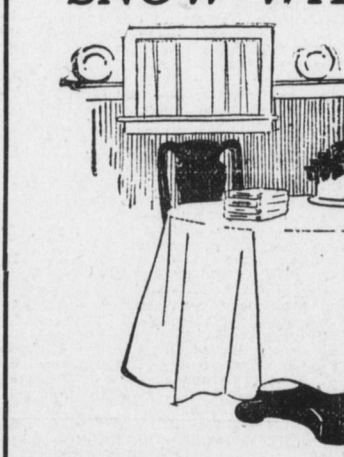

If the Dauphin county court approves the sale of the old Bucher property at 1 South Front street, June 22, the house which has been in the Bucher family for nearly 125 years will pass into the hands of E. M. Hershey, an attorney.

Mr. Hershey will remodel the building for an apartment house. The court was asked a week ago to permit the sale of the house by advertisement. It is owned by the heirs of Eliza Bucher Hummel.

ZEPPELIN DROPS IN SEA

Geneva, Switzerland, May 29, via Paris, 2:10 P. M.—A dispatch received here this morning from Friedrichshafen, on Lake Constance, sets forth that one of the Zeppelin airships which three days ago raided the town of South End, at the mouth of the Thames, forty miles east of London, was struck by one of the British shells fired at it. It fell into the sea off Helgoland.

SNOW-WHITE LINEN

The serving of properly prepared foods amid pleasing surroundings requires immaculate linen upon which the tempting dishes may be appetizingly arranged. The linens you send us are returned to you white as the driven snow, carefully folded—a joy to any woman who is proud of her table.

BUSINESS WORLD IS AGAINST SALOON

diana, will be the principal speaker tonight.

"The business world is awakening to the fact that a harmful, injurious thing cannot be a public benefit," said Mr. Stewart, "though it may seem to benefit a few and the saloon will die if for no other reason, because the business world is being thus aroused."

"I do not claim that this is the highest plane of argument. I think it is not. The moral side of this case is as much above the business side as the soul is above the body, but the liquor traffic has endeavored to justify itself by the so-called industrial argument and has failed. Every position it has taken has been captured."

Saloons Control Votes

The second point emphasized by Mr. Stewart had to do with good government. He called attention to the fact that by its very nature, the liquor traffic cannot form affiliations with the righteous forces of the community of State. He said, "Its coalition must be with the underworld, with the forces of graft, greed and corruption. It has been so ever and ever must be. The average saloon through appetite and habit easily can control twenty-five votes. These will be clustered about the ordinary saloon that many poor old drunkards whose addled brains are in no condition to do any clear thinking for themselves. It is that force which the saloon contributes to the army of evil and with that army it must stand or fall. This government is to be restored to the people to whom it belongs, to be administered for the benefit of all. That means death of the liquor traffic."

Irving College Now Has Plenty of Good Songs

Irving College now has plenty of songs of its own.

Announcement was made yesterday that Irving songs written by some students and three of the well-known graduates of that Mechanicsburg institution have been published. A typical American girls' college song has been contributed by Mrs. Lenora Embick Flowers while Mrs. Estelle Thomas Steel and Miss Ida G. Kaat, have respectively contributed a French quartet and a German song. Miss Kaat, who is a member of the Cumberland county leadership in the suffragist movement.

The new songs, by the way, will be sung at commencement next week. Other elaborate preparations for a big time are under way.

Ida Riehl Released Under $5,000 Security

Philadelphia, May 29.—Ida Riehl, 17 years old, who shot and killed Edmund Carl Hauptfuehrer, 20, because he refused to marry her and give his name to her unborn child, was released to-day in $5,000 bail by Judge McMichael in quarter sessions court.

Bail was entered for the girl by a security company. The name of the person guaranteeing the money was not made public, but it is said it was put up by a New York woman.

Steamer Lines Between Two Americas Planned

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Plans for steamship lines between the United States and South America—the one element which all delegates to the Pan-American Financial Conference agree is essential to closer relations between the Americas—were presented to-day by the transportation committee. A permanent committee of representatives of the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Uruguay, Ecuador and Peru to work for the development of the plans was recommended.

"WAS LOST BALL REALLY?"

The most exciting ball game that ever took place in the Dauphin county jail yard and abruptly yesterday afternoon when enthusiasm was at its very height, "lost ball" was responsible, "it is said. But that isn't really why the whoops of approbation suddenly died in some lusty throats.

President Kunkel whose chambers in the courthouse overlooks the jail yard was busily at work on an opinion and the sound of the game among prisoners came very faintly to his ears. Finally someone knocked a "home" over the jail wall the sphere sailed across Strawberry alley and through a nearby window.

"Game's off. Cheese it, fellows," whispered the pitcher hoarsely. "Dat's de window in Judge Kunkel's room!"

"Lost ball" was responsible, "it is said, for the abrupt ending of the most exciting game that ever took place in the Dauphin county jail yard, but—

DECREASE IN ACCIDENTS

Washington, May 29.—A decrease in railroad accidents is shown by a report for the final quarter of 1914 made public to-day by the Inter-state Commerce Commission. It shows 2,162 killed and 41,046 injured. Of the killed, however, only 78 met death in train accidents.

TURK TROOPS NUMBER 80,000

London, May 29, 12:02 p. m.—The Turkish troops defending the Gallipoli peninsula against the landing forces of the Allies number 80,000 men, according to the correspondent at Athens of the Reuter Telegram Company.

Germans to Proclaim Independence of Brazil

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, May 29.—The Gazeta Da Noticias in its issue of today denounces what it describes as "German maneuvers" in Southern Brazil, where the Germans have established an important colony.

This paper declares that the German colonists assembled a depot of munitions of war and that it was their intention to proclaim the independence of the State of Sainte Catharine. The outbreak of the war in Europe caused them to postpone carrying this project into effect. It seems that the Brazilian Government communicated this information to the German minister, who promised to make an investigation.
