

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"- said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Banker:

"The daily care of other people's money takes heavy toll from a man's nerves and brain. The banker who can find a tobacco that will lend keenness and calmness to his brain without exacting compound interest from his nerves, has found something to be thankful for."

PICNIC TWIST is just that sort of tobacco full of mildness and natural sweetness that you can't / find in heavy tobacco and without a heavy tobacco's 'come back' on the nerves.

Only the mild mellow part of the leaf goes into the soft, convenient PICNIC TWISTS. Isn't that the sort of a chew you want?

Lewisburg, Pa., June 1.—Three Civil War veterans were injured yesterday when the automobile in which they were riding to a cemetery to conduct memorial services, collided with another car. The machine turned turtle, throwing the veterans in the road. The injured men are: Philip sec George Angstadt, shoulder broken; William Mertz, slightly bruised. They are members of Tucker Post, of Lewisburg.

Morning sessions of school only are now in order and from now on until the schools close for the summer vacation, the fortunate knickerbockered or pig-tailed youngster who hasn't reached the high schools yet, need not bother about lessons except in the mornings. To-day the one session rule goes into effect.

FIND NEW BUGS

Some "new bugs" new at least to V. A. E. Daecke, entomologist of the State Bureau of Economic Zoology, were discovered yesterday by the Natural History Society which spent Memorial day on a motor trip to the old Union Iron Works near Lebanon. There were some thirty in the party. Drif George R. Potts, president of the society, piloted the crowd.
