and have never failed to acknowledge that, whatever women might do else-where. Pennsylvania suffragists had used only dignified methods. "We shall continue, the propaganda work in our customary way, not by appealing to the President at all, for he has nothing to do with suffrage in Pennsylvania, but by stating to the men of our State the reasons why we women desire and are entitled to the ballot. We shall present the merits of the question to the voters, always with respect to their rights and privileges as citizens, even as we request respect for ours."

Mrs. Roessing wrote to the Presi-dent recently in behalf of the State suffragists, assuring him of their ap-preciation of the burden he is carrying at this time, and received a letter of thanks for their expression of con-fidence.

Preparing Meals Without

Fire

The Ideal Fireless Cook stove is being demonstrated this week by Mrs. Ward, an experienced cook who came here direct from the factory. This fireless cooker gives results a cook would not dream of trying to accomplish otherwise.

Food may be boiled, baked, steamed, stewed, fried and roasted and much better, easier and more economically than by the ordinary method.

Come and hear Mrs. Ward's lectures and see her demonstrate the Ideal fireless cook stove.
