EMBROIDERY GUILD'S FLORAL FESTIVAL

Loveliest of June Fetes to Be Held Tomorrow Afternoon and Evening

One of the prettiest of June fetes will be held to-morrow afternoon and evening by the Embroidery Guild of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church in the parish house at Nineteenth and Market streets, opening at 3 o'clock. Beautiful decorations, suggestive of the month of flowers, will transform the hall and there will be a posy bed for the children, who will find little gifts at the roots of the blossoms they pick.

An old-fashioned well with wild roses, ferns and buttercups growing among the stones will give forth fruit punch and there will also be on sale strawberries in a variety of ways, ice cream and delicious homemade cakes. Candies will be sold by "candy kids" in white costumes, caps and aprons. Fancy articles of every description, cushions and porch furnishings will be found at the needlework booth.

An informal program of music, singing and dances will delight the children from 4 to 4:30 o'clock and the evening program of vocal and instrumental music and readings will be given up to 8:30. The officers of the guild are: President, Mrs. Gilbert Watson; vice-president, Miss Margaret Hicks; secretary, Miss Valentine; and treasurer, Mrs. Edward S. Doehne.

A MOTHER'S NERVES

When your children "get on your nerves" the trouble is with your nerves, not with the children.

You find yourself scolding them when you should be reasoning with them and if you are wise you will realize that your nervous system needs attention.

You observe, doubtless, that you wake up in the morning unrefreshed by your night's sleep, that you often feel better at night than you do in the morning. You realize that you are getting irritable things worry you that didn't formerly and you have headaches more frequently than you used to.

Let this condition go on uncorrected and you invite a nervous breakdown. The proper treatment is to take more rest, stop worrying and build up your blood and nerves with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You will soon find that you sleep better and are more refreshed by it, that your appetite and digestion improve, headaches are less frequent and that little things do not annoy you as they did. You can begin the treatment today for your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., will send free on request two helpful books, "Nervous Disorders, A Method of Home Treatment," and "What to Eat and How to Eat."—Advertisement.
