MOMEN AND INTERESTS

Work---the Noble Thing

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

Do you exist to take pleasure out of life or to bring action to it? Do you rise unwillingly in the morning, or do you fing off the covers with a joyful anxiety to be up and doing your part in the march of events?

Everything in the world, from plants and flowers to birds and bees on up the scale of humanity, has work to do to put its particular section of the universe in order. Are you willing to do your share?

The work of a human being may be the simple task of digging a ditch or the lofty and elaborate calculation that leads to the discovery of a new star. Whatever your work is, rest assured, it has its part in the scheme of things. Perhaps all your life long you will dig your ditch splendidly and well, and yet rise to no bigger thing.

Even if a material reward does not come to you, is there not a growing satisfaction in throwing off your covers and rising with warm enthusiasm to your, "ditch digging?" The actual consciousness that you have a part in the work of the world and that you are doing well is a reward beyond any crown of laurel. No externals can ever matter as much as the internal joy of being at peace with your own soul and knowing that you are doing your actual best.

In any machine the most trifling belt or powerful dynamo. In the march of humanity to some goal like march of humanity to some goal like march of humanity to some goal like march of human it he growth of life "the least of these" fills as important a place as the montant a place as the montant a place as the montant in the march of earth.

The work of a human being is cording to whether it is done well or ill. The task does not matter; how you do the task matter very intensely.

The folk who find work that is in accordance with their own nature to such their own nature and the scale of the server of the fill of ill. FOR REAL COMFORT

Pretty and Becoming Rompers that are Simple and Easy to Make.

By MAY MANTON

8603 Child's Rompers, 2 to 6 years.

Here are rompers, attractive in style, pretty and becoming, yet perfectly simple. They are buttoned right down the front, consequently are easy for the children to adjust, and the bloomers can be finished with hems and elastic or left free. At the back, the bloomer portions are buttoned into place and the belt is extended to be closed at the front. All the simple washable materials are of course the correct ones for such garments—galatea, gingham, chambray and the like are the favorites. In the picture, white galatea is combined with rose-colored, but if something a little daintier is wanted, that effect could be accomplished by scalloping the edges and when the rompers are made of white and finished in this way, they are very dainty and attractive, but for real hard usage and for the play that requires no restrictions, blue chambray or checked gingham or galatea in some serviceable color is to be commended. The little patch pocket means real convenience and the sleeves can be made either short or long.

For the 4 year size will be required 3½ vds. of material 27 in, wide, 2½ vds. 36.

SIX PEACHES AT THE COLONIAL

There is no denying the fact that whoever named this week's headline act at the Colonial Theater had good cause for calling the damsels therein the Six Peaches. The sextet of young women in this musical comedy number represent about the choicest variety to be found in the order of reminism. They have a jolly act, with numerous changes of costume, and there is nothing lacking in the quality of the gowns they wear, either. There is also "a pair in the act, two young men who are better comedians than one often finds in an act of this type. The entire bill at the Colonial for the first three days of the week is good. Joinson and Bucking week is good, Joinson and Sucking the collid and Carp do a musial skill, McCollid and Carp do a musial skill, McCollid and Carp do a musial sucking which week act.—Advertisement.

PAXTANG PARK VAUDEVILLE

Paxtang Park had one of the largest becoration Day crowds in the history of the park. An ideal day brought the people out early. Every available pichic table was in use long before noon, and many late arrivals were obliged to pread their lunches on the grass. The raudeville show at the Park Theater blayed to three capacity houses, two matinees being necessary to accommodate the afternoon crowds. As for the show, the De Pace Opera Company fills to position of the headliner, and when to come for real classy singing acts, this is one of the best that has ever played the town. Any music lover who enjoys the real thing in Italian opera cannot afford to miss hearin— the De Pace Company. THE NEW ORGAN HAD THE APPROVAL VESTERDAY OF 4,000 PERSONS AT THE REGENT

The organ was played by a capable artist, J. Granville. This new organ is a credit to the city of Harrisburg. This new organ was promised. last November. This organ was made by M. P. Moller, Hagerstown, and he is noted for his excellency as an organ builder. It has the praise of some of the prominent musicians of the nice arrangement. It is installed in four parts of the theater and can be heard just as well in one part as in another. Mr. Magaro announces that the same policy will go on as shown by high-class moving production, including the organ. This evening is the last of The Christian, by Hall Caine. It has the approval of Harrisburg of the capacity and turning away crowds.—Advertisement.

Girl and Two Boys Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hess.

Sunbury, Pa., June 1.—Triplets, two boys and a girl, were born to Mrs. Clarence Hess, 28 years old, wife of a railroader, at a private sanatorium here last night. The boy lived but an hour, but the girls are healthy. They are being kept in an incubator and carefully watched over by Dr. S. B. Guise, who had charge of the storks work. Mrs. Hess has one other child, a girl, 2 years old. It is the first time in the history of this really historic borough that triplets were born and the announcement has been the talk of the town ever since. Mr. and Mrs.

Hess formerly lived in Harrisburg.
