NEW PACKAGE LAW PROVING POPULAR

County Inspector of Weights Boyer Reports to Commissioners on Result of May Tests

In his Mas

In his May monthly report to the county commissioners to-day of the inspection of the inspector of the inspection of the inspector of the past month, and the provisions of the new "package" law.

"To show the popularity and fairness of the package' law during the past month, says Mr. Boyer, "I had occasion to test twenty packages of a very popular and much used cereal. While very close to the tolerance allowed, the goods passed inspection. This is taken as an indication that the manufacturer and the dealer are just as anxious for the protection as the consumer."

Inspector Boyer during the month tested a total of 588 scales, liquid, dry as anxious for the protection as the consumer."

Inspector Boyer during the month tested a total of 588 scales, liquid, dry and miscellaneous measures and weights, sealed 556, adjusted 61 and condemned 32.

Highspire Files School Bond Issue Notice.—Highspire borough late yesterday filed with Prothonotary H. F. Holler its report of the proposed increase in bonded indebtedness for the purpose of extending the high school, providing equipment and purchasing more ground. The issue is for $15,000 and will bear 4½ per cent, interest. The first bonds are dated June 1, 1915, and the series will mature in 1935. The refunding of the present debt of $2,800 is also provided for.

At the Registor's Office.—The will of Anna B. Johnston, Steelton, was probated to-day by Isabelle B. Johnston.

Collected $7,000 in Personal School

Collected $7,000 in Personal School

Collected $7.000 in Personal School fax.—About $7.000 has already been paid in to the city treasurer in personal school taxes for 1914. By the end of the week the remainder of the delinquent list will be turned over to an alderman.

County Commissioner Hoffman at Funeral.—Because he had to attend the funeral services of a niece in Willamstown President Isaac S. Hoffman of the board of county commissioners did not attend to-day's session of the board.

board.

Realty Transactions.—Realty transactions yesterday included: John F. Dapp to Central Trust Company, Fritz Island, $1: D. C. Rhoads to Rosa E. Wagner, Halston, $200; L. W. Walzer to B. C. Murray, Johnstown road, $1: H. A. Sherk to John N. Heck, 922, North Sixteenth street, $100.

IN BALL GOWN, MOUNTS CAYUSE Washington Woman Proves to Her Guests She Can Ride

Guests She Can Ride
Special to The Telegraph
Seattle, Wash., June 2.—Two cowboys in picturesque chaps and sumbreros of the range and riding gayly caparisoned cayuses galloping through the lobby and diningroom of the Hotel Savoy, swinging their lariats and whobping in true Indian fashion, caused a sensation among the guests. The astonishment was not lessened when a pretty woman in the silk gown of the ballroom rode one of the spirited animals up and down the tiled floor.
The entry of the cowboys came as a complete supprise to friends who had gathered for a dinner and dance in gathered for a dinner and dance in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manley honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manley of the Hditarod, who are leaving for a season in the north. Mrs. Manley is a true northerner.

To prove that she is an outdoor woman and has not forgotten to ride in spite of her winter season on the "ourside" Mrs. Manley leaped on the cayuse and rode him into the lobby while the guests yelled and clapped their approval.

DELEGATES GO TO PITTSBURGH

By Associated Press
Philadelphia, June 2.—The delegates to the recent Pan-American Financial Conference in Washington, now touring a part of the United States, to-day ended their visit to this city by inspecting a number of large industrial plants. Later the Latin-Americans left for Pittsburgh, where they are due before midnight to-night.

"DEATH BY SUFFOCATION"

By Associated Press
London, June 2, 12,25 P. M.—A coroner's jury, sitting to-day in the case of two victims of the Zeppelin raid on London the night before last, rendered a verdict that they had met their death by suffocation and burns, "the same having been ordered by some agents of hostile forces." The persons in question were Henry Good and his wife.

HEARING CLOSES TO-DAY

By Associated Press

Boston, Mass., June 2.—The Federal Trade Commission planned to close to-day its hearing, begun yesterday, held to obtain the views of representatives of the business community on the possibilities of the development of export trade, particularly with South America. Several bankers and businessmen were to be heard.

Deaths and Funerals

INFANT DIES

Charles, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fields, of 1847 North Seventh street, died yesterday morning, aged seventeen months. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Burlal in East Harrisburg Cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Steinmetz will have charge of the services.

SERVICES FOR R. S. KILLINGER

Funeral services for Robert S. Killinger, aged 40, will be held from his late home, 40 South Court street, to morrow atternoon, at 2 o'clock, the Rev. Ellis N. Kremer officiating. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery. He is survived by his wife and one brother, George.

MRS. SARAH STROUP DIES

Mrs. Sarah Jane Stroup, aged 68, wife of Simon Stroup, died this morning at her home, 1422 Williams street. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Bertha Straw, Mrs. Charles Kepner. Millersburg; Mrs. Olive Gardner; three sons, Harry and Charles, this city, and W. L. Stroup, of Panama. Funeral services will be held at the home Friday afternoon, at 1:30 o'clock, the Rev. S. Edwin Rupp officiating. The work will then be taken to Milersburg. MRS. SARAH STROUP DIES

Mrs. Sarah Jane Stroup, aged 68, wife of Simon Stroup, died this morning at her home, 1422 Williams street. She is survived by her husband, three daughter of the street of the survived for the survived f

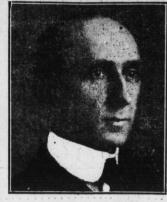

SERVICES FOR MRS. KNOLL
Funeral services for Mrs. Rebecca Knoll, aged 75, who died at her home, 1242 Derry street, last evening, will be held from the home to-morroy morning, at 10:30 o'clock, the Rev. Thomas Reisch officiating. Burial will be made in Middletown. She is survived by the following: One son, Charles R., and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Mason, of Richmond, and Mrs. Carrie Faulcomer, of Atlanta. Mrs. Knoll was a resident o' this city for more than twenty

ROTARY CLUB IS IN VAN OF ALL MOVEMENTS FOR A GREATER HARRISBURG, REPORT SHOWS

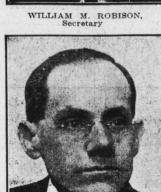

WEDNESDAY EVENING,

ARTHUR D. BACON, President

GEORGE W. MUMMA, Vice-president

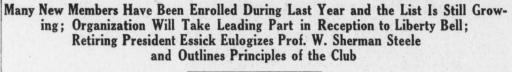

DANIEL D. HAMMELBAUGE,

W. GRANT RAUCH, Treasurer

JAMES P. McCULLOUGH, Director

HENRY L. GRIFFIN,

JOSEPH H. WALLAZZ

of "A city the size of Harrisburg and men became accusatory of each other Members of the Rotary Club of Harrisburg, last night elected Arthur D. Bacon, president for the ensuing year. The annual meeting was held in the Cumberland Valley Telephone Company building, 227 Wainut street. The retiring president, William S. Essick, in his annual report to told of increased membership and many successful meetings.

Two resolutions were passed unanimously. Mrs. Anna H. Wood was highly commended for an interesting and timely article in the June Rotarian, the official magazine or "It is Not Me and My, But U sand Our." In another resolution the proposed plan to do honor to the Liberty Bell on July 5, was endorsed. The members of the Rotary Club promised hearty co-operation in any plans for a proper reception and observance.

In his nanual report, William S. Essick, president, said "the present membership is 117; new members added the proposed of the Belgian week at the Orpheum theater, $25; outside meetings attendance has been to said the present membership of the Belgian week at the Orpheum theater, $25; outside meetings attendance has been to be said, in part:

Asks For More Members

"A city the size of Harrisburg and professions should furnish a rocation between men of opposite views and violent of speech. A sharp alter-cation because and violent of speech. A sharp alter-cation because on the prosposed was quelled by some one saying—"Men stop, what would he think of you, if he were here.' And should we so far forget ourselves as to fall into speech unbecoming Rotarians, then may come to us the memoers of the concluded for an interesting with the work of the resolution the proposed plan to do honor to the Liberty Bell on July 5, was endorsed. The members of the Rotary Club promised hearty co-operation in any plans for a proper reception and observance.

In his annual report, William S. Essick, president, said "the present membership of the service, provided the present membership of the present membership of the present members and those visit of the present members and the proposed to the pre

WILLIAM S. ESSICK, Ex-president

CLAIM AMERICANS

COUNTIES TO PAY FOR PRIMARIES

Bill Approved Today Would Save Father Penn About $400,000 Every Twelvemonth

The Sproul Senate bill providing that counties shall pay the cost of primaries, which it is estimated will save the State about $400,000 a year, was announced to-day as approved Governor Brumbaugh. The bill is one of a series designed to save expense fo rthe State and repeals the portion of the primary act relative to payments by the Commonwealth. The following Senate bills were also

The following Senate bills were also announced as approved:

Prohibiting employment of persons suffering from contagious or infectious disease in hotels, restaurants, dining cars or public eating places: requiring thorough cleansing of all utensils, for individual towers and drinking vessels. The penalty for violation, is from $5 to $100 fine, or Imprisonment of not over 30 days.

counties to acquire bridges.

Permitting married women who have been separated from husbands for a year or more to engage in business on their own responsibility.

Amending marriage license law so that an officer of the orphans' court may appoint a guardian to consent to issue of a license for a minor in absence of a judge of orphans' court.

Regulating sale, mortgaging, leasing or conveyance on ground rent of real estate through which runs a county line.

Amending school code by providing for classification where proceedings are taken.

DELEGATE TO CONFERENCE STRICKEN WITH PNEUMONIA

By Associated Press
Philadelphia, June 2.—Don Alfonso
Quinones, former president of Salvador and now vice-president of the republic, was stricken with pneumonia to-day while visiting here with the delegates to the recent Pan-American Conference in Washington. Dr. Quinones is the head of the Salvador delegation which attended the conference.

ACADEMY COMMENCEMENT TO BE HELD AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

BRITISH AIRMEN CAPTURED

NOT SATISFIED WITH CABINET

utensils, for individue derinking vessels. The penalty for drinking vessels. The penalty for derinking vessels. The penalty for days. Providing that Bird Day shall be observed in Pennsylvania on the same days as Arbor Days and that teachers make efforts on that day to further instruct pupils in the value of birds. At least two hours must be devoted to such instruction on the required days. William A. Smiley will deliver the salutatory oration, speaking on "The Pioneer of the Susquehanna." Russell A. Hoke will give the valedictory oration. His subject is "Metal for Plowshares." Howard R. Omwake will make the announcements and presentations, following which Vance C. Permitting married women who have been separated from husbands have been separate

RUSS TAKE GERMAN GENERAL

By Associated Press By Associated Press
Petrograd, June 2, via London, 2:38
p. m.—Newspaper published in the Baltic provinces are authority for the statement that a Russian patrol has captured General Von Pritits, commandant of the German forces at Libau, tobether with several other German officers. The patrol had an encounter with the General's escort.

Say They Prefer $1.50 "Clean Collar" Job to a Dirty One With Twice the Money

About 50,000 o fithe 180,000 mine workers in the anthracite coal region of Pennsylvania are classed as "Americans," but this figure includes every employe born in this country though many of their parents are foreign and do not speak a word of English. Nine sueprintendents in the region state that Americans would rather earn $1.50 a day at some "clean collar" accupation than twice as much in the mines. They attribute this to the false pride of the Americans we have come to look down on manual labor.

"It takes more than one generation to make a miner," said an old Weish foreman the other day, "and yet the second generation born in America invariably leaves the mines. The miners in this region are probably the cleanest laboring men in the world. They take a thorough servine who have come to look down on manual labor.

"It takes more than one generation to make a miner," said an old Weish foreman the other day, "and yet the second generation born in America invariably leaves the mines or in a store, But the American would correct the world. They take a thorough scrub every day, and when you see them downtown in the afternoon in their out. He would the cleanest laboring men in the world. They take a thorough scrub every day, and when you see them downtown in the afternoon in their out. Servine seed and all and simplers in this region are probably the cleanest laboring men in the world. They take a thorough scrub every day, and when you see them downtown in the afternoon in their out. Servine seed and all at the allow of the cleanest laboring men in the world. They take a thorough scrub every day, and when you see them downtown in the afternoon in their out. Servine seed the commissary department of the payment of the oration. His subject is "Metal for Plowshares." Howard R. Omwake will make the announcements and presentations, following which Vance C. McCormick will award the diplomas.

The address to the class will be made by Edwin E. Sparks, president of Pennsylvania State College. The benediction will be given by the Rev. Dr. Ellis N. Kremer. An invitation has been extended by Headmaster Brown, of the Academy, to the public to attend the exercises.

Academy Play Will Be

Given in Tech Auditorium

Owing to the rain, the open air play, "As you Like It," which was to have been given by the Devereux Company this evening on the campus of the Harrisburg Academy will be presented in the auditorium of the Technical High school at 8 o'clock.

Holders of reserved seats can have the exchanged this evening at Tech, where they will be given advantageous positions. The rain to-day also made if in necessay to postpone the baseball game between the sixth form boys and the Academy faculty.

RUSS TAKE GERMAN GENERAL

Weight and Drowake will Meavand R. Omwake will Italian Laborers Predominate

Hallan Laborers Predominate

Italian Laborers Predominate

Italian Laborers Predominate

Who are the men who dig your excavations and subways in the big cities? Italians, mostly. The Irish used to be willing to do it, but they no longer are. In the mines at is the Slavs who are doing the bulk of the work. Roughly speaking, we have, be-side the 50,000 'Americans,' about 76,000 Slavs, 12,000 Italians, 11,500 Irish, 10,000 Austro-Hungarians, 6,500 Welsh, 6,000 Germans, 6,000 Brighs and 2,000 men of various other nationalities.

"Warfare is manual labor which requires great physical endurance. Have you read of the great drives of the Slavs with the bayonet? Look out for the Italians. The Irish are admired in May, and that shortly after the exchanged this evening at Tech, where they will be given advantageous positions. The rain to-day also made it necessay to postpone the baseball igame between the sixth form boys and then refusing to manual labor is a f

POINT ON POLITENESS

POINT ON POLITENESS
"Politeness is to do and say
The kindest thing in the kindest way."
We do not know who wrote it, but that is the basis of all etiquette and courtesy and gives you something to go by when in doubt as to the proper thing to do.
When you receive an invitation to any social affair, no matter how informal, always acknowledge it, telling your hostess whether or not you will be able to come, and if not, why.
If you find that you will have to be late, phone or let her know in some way if possible, then when you arrive, apologize for your tardiness.
When you leave express your enjoyment of the party and then at an early date return the compliment, either-by making a party call or by asking her to be your guest for any entertainment that you see fit.—Farm Life. Berlin, June 2, via London, 3:26 p. m.—The war office gave out the following statement to-day: "We shot down a British flying machine at Bixschoote. The occupants, one Belgian and one British officer, were taken prisoner."

RAISE OLD GLORY AT BIG STEEL PLANT

Philadelphia Division Officials Working With Appropriation Guests of Lukens Company; Luncheon on Lawn

given to the iron company at that time.

The formal presentation came yesterday and was made by former deputy attorney general Jesse E. B. Cunningham. Responses were made by President A. F. Huston and the Rev. Mr. Dwyer, of Coatesville. The flag raising followed. Old Glory was hoisted to the top of a sixty-foot steel pole, while the Lukens Iron and Steel Company Band played appropriate music.

Go in Special Trains

Superintendent William B. McCaleb of the Philadelphia division, president of the Philadelphia division, president of the Philadelphia division, president of the Veteran Association, accompanied by his official staff, and General Superintendent George W. Creighton of Altoona, left on a special train for Coatesville yesterday afternoon at 12.10. The Harrisburg party was met by the Lukens company band and iron company officials, and taken to the home of President A. F. Huston in automobiles. They returned to tharrisburg at 5.35 last evening. Those from Harrisburg were:

Superintendent William B. McCaleb, John T. Balsley, G. H. Brown, C. N. Watt, H. J. Babb, C. H. Andrus, Joseph Brown, Nelson Hoffman, M. B. Mishey, J. E. Rothe, A. E. Buchanan, Luman Strickler and Jesse E. B. Cunningham.

William Householder, in Jail at Philadelphia, Confesses to Robberies

Philadelphia, June 2.— A letter found on William Householder from his mother, Mrs. May Householder, of Harrisburg, on his arrest for larceny in this city, connects the young man with a robbery at 632 Broad street, Harrisburg.

Householder, with Victor Neff and Nicholas Yaeger, confessed that the robbery of a set of tools in which they were detected, at the Hebrew Orphans' Home, was planned to gain assets for a "company." The chief activity of this concern was to be breaking into houses in this city with the stolen tools.

ger of the commissary department of the Panama railroad was to-day sentenced by the federal court to 13 months imprisonment in Atlanta and to pay a fine of $1,000. Pending an appeal Salas was given his liberty under $10,000 bail.

MISS McADOO QUITS NURSING

Secretary's Daughter to Leave France in Few Days
Special to The Telegraph
Paris, June 2.—Miss Nona McAdoo and Miss Katherine Britton, who came to France in February to act as nurses in a private hospital, are booked to sail for New York on the Rochambeau next Saturday. next Saturday.

BURGLARS ENTER HOUSE TWICE WITHIN A MONTH

The home of F. F. Brucker, Twenty-The home of F. F. Brucker, Twenty-sixth and Greenwood streets, was entered last night and $1.62 in cash taken from a sideboard. This was the second time in a month this home was robbed. C. H. Mort pleaded guilty in court yesterday to stealing two watches and $85 in cash from the Brucker home on May 8. Entrance was gained last night by cutting a window glass.

SEND TROOPS BY RAIL

By Associated Press

London, June 2.—Later dispatches from Athens say that a British submarine sank near Constantinople the Mahussein steamer No. 62, carrying Turkish troops to the Dardanelles. It is stated that because of activities of a British submarine Turkish troops now are being dispatched by rail to the Gallipoli peninsula.

BONE LODGES IN THROAT while eating breakfast at his he this morning John Haifried. 1 South Tenth street, swallowed a bone, which ledged in his throat, was removed at the hospital.

GOVERNOR HUNTS FOR STATE'S MONEY

Chairmen to Find Out What Can Be Appropriated

A large United States flag, gift of the members of the Philadelphia Division Veteran Association to the Lukens Iron and Steel Company, Coates ed yesterday afternoon.

The presentation followed a luncheon given on the lawn at the residence of A. F. Huston, president of the Lukens company. Covers were placed for fifty guests. Secretary H. J. Babb, of the Veteran Association, in a brief address, referred to the delightful reception and entertainment furnished by the Lukens company Philadelphia division last September. The flag was given to the iron company at that time.

The formul presentation came vession very serior of the Governor plans to consider the at the Executive Mansion in an effort

The Governor plans to consider the general appropriation and educational bills without delay and to take up the charities later.

It is expected that the new State agricultural commission will be announced before the end of the week.

Capitol Visitors. — Among the visitors to the Hill to-day were T. L. Eyre, former superintendent of public grounds and buildings, and William Worth, Coatesville steel manufacturer: ex-Mayor McCaskey, Lancaster; ex-Senator Fred A. Godcharles, Milton; ex-Judge M. L. Shay, Pottsville; Senator H. A. Tompkins, Ebensburg; C. L. S. Tingley, Philadelphia street railway man; F. W. Culbertson, Lewistown.

britson, Lewistowns, — The Public Service Busy, — The Public Service Commissioners had their first experience with contract proceedings to-day, Numerous hearings were held. The Clark's Ferry bridge charter came

Going to Coast. — Dr. B. F. Royer, chief medical inspector, will leave next week for the Panama Pacific exposition.

Scottdale People Here. — Highway Commissioner Cunningham to-day received a delegation of Scottdale people who came to look after road matters in their section.

Home From Peekskill. — Dr. J. W. Kellogs, chief chemist of the department of agriculture, has returned from Peekskill, N. Y., where he has been conducting an investigation for the State on grains and their products.

Account of Fighting Found in Dead Man's Book

Householder, with Victor Neff and Nicholas Yaeger, confessed that the robbery of a set of tools in which they were detected, at the Hebrew Orphans' Home, was planned to gain assets for a "company." The chief activity of this concern was to be breaking into houses in this city with the stolen tools.

In Householder's suitcase, full of the stolen tools, was found a letter from his mother, warning him that the Harrisburg police were looking for him for the Broad street robbery. She also demanded that he return her suitcase. Householder has spent twenty-two months in the Hunting don Reformatory. He was held under $600 bail for a further hearing next Wednesday.

[Neither the police department or local aldermen know of any warrants out for Householder. There is no record of any robbery at 632 Broad street. Inquiries at the house brought the information that Householder lived there himself, and no one knew of any robbery.]

GEN. HUBBARD LEFT $4,000,000

Estimated Value of Estate of Head of International Corporation
New York, June 2.—The will of Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, who died on May 19 at 16 West Fifty-eighth street, was filed in the Surrogate's seven come to a nend.

Here the tragic notes of Captain Sievert come to an end. 275,000 DEFEND STRAITS

By Associated Press By Associated Press
London. June 2.—The Times' Athens correspondent in a detailed computation of the strength of the Turkish forces defending the Dardanelles and Constantinople arrives at a total of 275,000, which, he says, is a formidable force, especially as the positions some of its groups hold are of great natural strength.

Fifth Street Homes

English and Colonial Architecture; magnificently finished in hardwood and inlaid doors; vapor heat; wolld porcelain bath rooms with built-in tub with concealed fixtures, recognized as the most expensive and sanitary installation known.

North Fifth Street

is considered by reliable authorities to be one of the most desirable streets in the new section up-town. These houses can only be appre-clated by personal inspection. Price and terms upon application.

MacWilliams Construction Co. Office 2150 N. Fifth Street

NO NEED TO BE DISCOURAGED

if your efforts are not appreciated and there is no chance vancement. There are always good positions open in Harrisburg for competent men-positions where good conscientious effort will be rewarded by constant advancement. Just use a Telegraph WANT AD and reach the firm that is looking for just such a man as vou.

REPEATED TODAY BY POPULAR DEMAND AT THE REGENT THE CHRISTIAN