SIMPLICITY MARKS WEDDING AT NOON

Miss Marian Clifford Angell Marries William S. Godfrey, of Philadelphia

One of the prettiest of June weddings, marked by extreme simplicity, was that of Miss Marian Clifford Angell, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Barham Angell, of Pine street, and William Simpson Godfrey, of Philadelphia, at high noon to-day.

The ceremony was performed in St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal Church, North Front street, by Bishop Darlington, assisted by the rector, the Rev. Rollin Alger Sawyer, in the presence of the relatives and a few personal friends of the young couple.

Masses of pink peonies decorated the altar and the choir stalls, against a background of laurel and ferns. Alfred C. Kuscha, the organist, played the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" as a processional; the "Meditation" from "Thaïs" during the ceremony and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional for the bridal party. Prior to the service there was an organ recital, the program including: "Marche Nuptiale," Ethelbert Nevin; "Santique d'Amour," Lemare; "Procession to Minister," ("Lohengrin"), Wagner; "Schon Rosmarin," Fritz Kreisler; "Bridal Song" (Wedding Symphony), Goldmark.

The attractive bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Dr. O. C. Bouchton, of Erie, wore a street dress of dark blue faille silk—a Lucille model—with white vest and pipings, a large blue traveling hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids. She was unattended. Lincoln Godfrey, Jr., of Philadelphia, was best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey left immediately for New York after the ceremony and will spend the honeymoon in the White Mountains. They will reside at Bryn Mawr for the summer, later making a residence in Philadelphia.

Among the out-of-town people here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Godfrey, Dr. and Mrs. William Pepper, Jr. and Mrs. Daniel Newhall, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brown and Ralph Townsend, all of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. James Blackwood Cameron, Cricket, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. Teeter, of Wilkes-Barre.

The bride has been one of the most popular members of the younger social set since her debut four years ago. She was educated at the Seller School of this city and Mrs. Hazen's finishing school at Pelham Manor, N. Y. Clever and witty, she inherited much of the mentality of her brilliant father, the Rev. Dr. Angell, who was rector of St. Stephen's Church for several years.

Mr. Godfrey, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Godfrey, of Philadelphia, is a Harvard alumnus and president of the Philadelphia Bourse. He is a member of the Radnor Hunt, Merion Cricket, Racquet, Philadelphia and Union League Clubs, of Philadelphia. His father is prominently identified with banking and business interests of the Quaker City, a director of the Pennsylvania Railroad and of a number of other well-known corporations.

Mrs. Charles C. Linton of South street and Mrs. Edward Finnegan of North Second street, have gone to Johnston to spend two weeks with Mrs. Linton's cousin, Mrs. John C. Fox.

Mrs. Benjamin E. Long and small son returned home to Landisville to-day after visiting Mrs. Mardie Nicholas of 19 Herr street.

Alfred Meising has returned from a visit to Columbia. John A. Herman spent the week-end in Carlisle. Miss Evelyn Koons, of Port Royal, was a recent visitor in this city.

RAPP-GETTER BRIDAL LARGE CHURCH EVENT

Wedding Trip to Southern Resorts Followed by Residence in This City

MISS MARIE GETTER

Miss Grace Marie Getter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Getter, 1921 Market street and Carl Porter Rapp, of this city, will be united in marriage this afternoon at 4.30 o'clock in St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church, Nineteenth and Market streets, by the rector, the Rev. James F. Bullitt. Field daisies and greenery decorate the church and the bride's home where a reception will follow the service.

Miss Esther Anderson will play the wedding music and the children's choir will sing "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," as a processional, and "To God the Father Throned" as a recessional. After the betrothal Mrs. Willis Geist Newbold, soprano, will sing "O, Perfect Love."

The bride has chosen a costume of white lace over pink crepe with touches of pink velvet. Her tulle veil will be crowned with tiny rosebuds and she will carry a shower of roses and lilies.

The maid of honor, Miss Eva Miller, of Philadelphia, will wear canary colored voile with leghorn hat and carry a sheaf of daisies. The bridesmaids, Miss Leah Williams of New York, and Miss Helen Claire Free, of this city, will wear frocks of pink Watteau voile with tulle veils and leghorn hats with trimmings of pink tulle and daisies. They will carry nosegays of daisies.

Philip B. Getter, the bride's brother, will be best man and Earl Wilkins, of Steelton, and George Bowman, of this city, the ushers.

Following a trip to Washington, Baltimore and nearby resorts Mr. and Mrs. Rapp will be "at home" to their friends after July 1 at 1555 Spencer street. The bride, who is a graduate of the Central High school, and a special student at Dickinson, has been organist of St. Andrew's for three years.

Mr. Rapp is a graduate of the Williamson Trades School and now connected with the Bell Telephone Company as engineer.

Raymond McCann, Race street, has returned to Lehigh University after having spent several days as the guest of his grandfather, Roundsman James McCann.

Mrs. James W. Barker and daughter, Miss Norma Barker, of Coveall, spent yesterday in the city. Miss M. Marguerite Smith of 316 Hummel street, has gone to Gettysburg to attend the commencement exercises of Gettysburg college.

Miss Ferol Stevens of 1736-Market street has gone to Pittsburgh to attend a convention of the Alpha Psi sorority of the Carnegie Technical Institute.

SHAUL-HOFFMAN BRIDAL IN THE AUGSBURG CHURCH

Another wedding of to-day, which brides consider "The best day of all," was that of Miss Celia May Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Hoffman, of 632 Dauphin street, and Arthur B. Shaul, formerly of New York.

The Rev. A. Maxwell Starnets, pastor of the Augsburg Lutheran Church, performed the ring ceremony at 11 o'clock, in the church, where decorations of mountain laurel and roses prevailed. Only a few intimate friends were in attendance. Edwin Waisse presided at the organ, playing the usual wedding marches.

The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue, with black and white hat and a corsage bouquet of midjet roses and lilies of the valley.

There were no attendants. A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's home, with appointments of pink. After July 1, Mr. and Mrs. Shaul will reside at 2017 Swatara street, following a trip to Atlantic City.

The bride, a graduate of the Central High School, has been a teacher at Rockville for a year or two. Mr. Shaul is in the employ of the Elliott-Fisher Company.

COL HENRY C. DEMMING WILL SPEAK TO GRADUATES

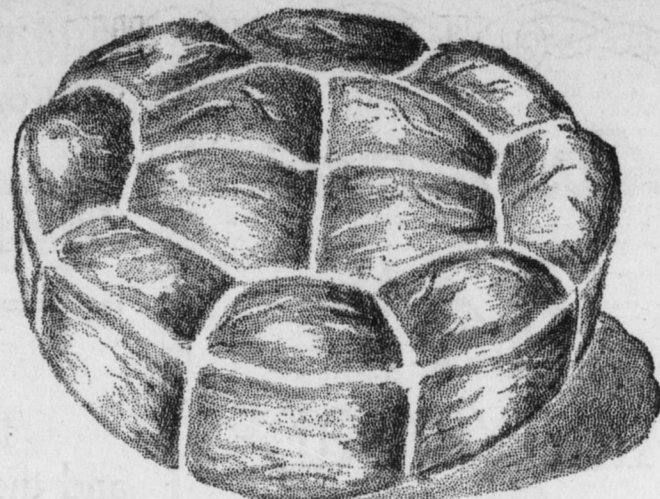

The address to the ninety-fourth graduating class of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy will be delivered to-morrow evening in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, by Col. Henry C. Demming, of this city.

Mrs. W. B. Goutner and Mrs. C. R. Herr of Lancaster are on a visit to Harrisburg and Mechanicsburg. Miss Marie Duncan of Enola was the guest of Enola friends yesterday and to-day.

STRAIN-HECKARD MARRIAGE

Mrs. Mary Emma Heckard and Thomas Baldy Strain were married at their new home, 1207 Mulberry street, 8.30 o'clock Monday evening June 7. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. H. Balsbaugh, pastor of the Sixth Street United Brethren Church.

INTERESTING EVENTS AT COLONIAL CLUB

Committee Chairmen Appointed and Golf Links in First Class Order

The regular monthly card night at the Colonial Country Club was observed last night, the attendance being one of the largest in the history of the club. At the conclusion of the card games refreshments were served. The following were awarded prizes: Dana F. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. R. Wilson Hoffman, Mrs. Harry M. Kirkpatrick, Richard M. Pennock and Mrs. Charles L. Schmidt.

The golf links are in first class condition. The addition of the lake has added to the beauty of the links and the pipe line from the lake to the greens to supply water for the greens is another big improvement. This water supply will insure the keeping throughout the hot summer months. An engine is now being installed to pump the water through the pipes. When all of the contemplated improvements have been made to the links they promise to be one of the finest in Central Pennsylvania.

The following committee chairmen have been appointed: Executive committee, Edward J. Stackpole; tennis committee, James O. Handshaw, Jr.; entertainment committee, John C. Orr; house committee, Charles W. Burnett; golf committee, Samuel B. Nissley; greens committee, Dr. E. L. Denniston; pool committee, Arbor C. Logan; ladies' auxiliary board, Mrs. John T. Bales; building and grounds, Samuel B. Rambo; athletic committee, Andrew S. Dillinger.

The membership has been fixed at 250 and at the present rate of growth free on request by the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The limit of membership is reached a waiting list will be established.

The new locker house is now nearing completion and with this new addition to the club more facilities will be afforded to the members.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Miller, of Waco, Texas, are the guests for a few days of the former's uncle, William B. Miller, 331 South Front street, en route to a few weeks' visit to Atlantic City.

RESISTANCE TO DISEASE

The power of your body to resist disease and to fight it after disease gets a foothold is one of the most precious possessions you have.

You weaken this power when you let your general health run down, your blood gets thin and your nerves unsteady.

You weaken it when you worry, when you overwork or are guilty of excesses of almost any kind, when you do not get sufficient sleep and when you are undernourished, either because you do not eat the right kind of food or because your digestion is out of order.

You preserve your power to resist disease when you keep good hours, eat proper food at regular intervals and are temperate in all things. You increase and strengthen it when you build up your blood and nerves by the timely use of a tonic like Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, free from alcohol, opiates and harmful drugs of any kind.

These tonic pills and careful attention to your diet will go far toward keeping you in health. Two booklets, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," contain just the information you need and will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., if you mention this paper. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.—Advertisement.

Rear Admiral Ross, U.S.N., Is Here With His Bride

An interesting wedding took place in Annapolis, Md., Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Mrs. Henrietta P. Bartlett, widow of Commander Charles W. Bartlett, U. S. N., and Rear Admiral Albert Ross, U. S. N., retired, were married in St. Anne's Protestant Episcopal Church, with the Rev. Dr. Joseph P. McComas officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by Miss Margaret K. Ross, granddaughter of the groom, was a ribbon bearer. The bride wore a gown of violet satin and a hat trimmed with mauve orchids and carried an ivory prayer book. Arthur M. Ross, son of the groom, was best man. The ushers were Professor Arthur N. Brown and Captain Harry S. Knapp, of the navy, and H. Oliver Thompson, of Baltimore. Following the ceremony a small reception was held at the residence of Professor and Mrs. Arthur N. Brown.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Ross, who will live at Clarion, Pa., his former home, are touring to the Berkshire Mountains in their new car, the bridegroom's gift, and are in the city for a day or two as guests of the admiral's sister, Mrs. John Patrick, 812 North Second street. Mrs. J. F. Ross, of Clarion, is also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, accompanying them home from the wedding.

Miss Hardenbergh Weds Wm. Dickerson, of Virginia

Harrisburgers are interested in the marriage of Miss C. Louise Hardenbergh, of Honesdale, Wayne county, and William Woodson Dickerson, of Lynchburg, Va., because the bride has spent much time in this city, during her father's term of office as State Senator and Auditor General.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Albert L. Whittaker in Grace Episcopal Church, Honesdale, Saturday at high noon. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, General Edmund B. Hardenbergh, wore embroidered chiffon over flesh colored satin with lace and rhinestone garnitures and touches of silver. She carried a formal bouquet of roses and valley lilies with silver butterflies glistening among the flowers. Her white hat was trimmed with white maine panicles and her jewels were a pendant of diamonds set in platinum from the bridegroom and a brooch of diamonds, her father's gift.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Fred B. Whitney, of Honesdale, and another attendant, Mrs. Charles H. Roberts, of Philadelphia, are well-known here. Mrs. Roberts was formerly Miss Elizabeth Campion, of the State Library. After a trip to Canada, Mr. Dickerson, who is a banker of Lynchburg, will reside with his bride at College park, a suburb of that city.
