

NEW SADDLE RECORD ON BELMONT TRACK

Horses in Sweepstakes Also Brought Changes in World's Figures

Special to The Telegraph
Philadelphia, June 11. — Records were broken in the Horse Dealers Sweepstakes at Belmont track yesterday afternoon. Roy Miller, the winner, trotted the fastest three heats in the history of the event, and the first heat, won by Lord Brook in 2.11½, was the fastest ever trotted over Belmont track in an open race. The average of the four heats, 2.42¾, is the best ever made in a trotting race in this section of the country—and this, too between 2.30 class horses.

The average time for the five heats in the Keystone stakes for 2.17 pacers was 2.12¼, making a grand average for the nine heats in the two stake races of 2.12½, which all horsemen will admit is pretty good for two slow classes in the month of June.

The novelty race of the day, trotting under saddle, brought out seven starters and the performances of the lot would have made such old-time riders of trotters as Budd Doble blush with shame, not for himself but for the present day saddlers.

The winner, James Dunlap's Bow Devil, was well ridden by Hugh Carlin, who, by winning the fourth heat in 2.30¼, which was the fastest in the race, had the honor of establishing a world's record, since so far as is known by the present generation of horsemen, there never before was a fourth heat trotted in a race to saddle. Most of the horses refused to trot all of the time, but Bow Devil, was one of the best mannered of the lot.

VETERAN GOLF CHAMPION PLAYS WONDERFUL GAME AT LONG ISLAND

WALTER J. TRAVIS

Walter J. Travis, aged 53, showed do at his age when he won the met renown in the game.

Travis right now weighs nearly 140 pounds and is about 5 feet 8 inches in height. He wears glasses because the strain of watching golf balls during many years has slightly impaired his sight. His costume on the linksmorfolk jacket and knickerbockers—is the traditional uniform. It is very popular with many of the older golfers. A big black cigar completes the figure of Travis that is so familiar in all the tournaments.

A peep into the Travis golf bag gives a good insight into the man's deep study of his favorite sport. His clubs are the weirdest collection you ever saw, drivers with big knots on them, mashies shaped like fish hooks and putters exceptional for their bulk. But they all serve their purpose. For his weight and age Travis drives a remarkably long ball off the tee, the reward of perfect swinging and correct timing. Like Harry Vardon, the celebrated English champion. Travis will always sacrifice distance for direction, not only because it is the proper thing to do, but advancing years have taken some power from his arms and shoulders. bounds and is about 5 feet 8 inches in

PREPARATIONS ON FOR BASS SEASON

Opening; New Fish Code in Effect Later

The bass season will open next Tues This date is official, according to a statement from N. R. Buller, State Commissioner of Fisheries. The new fish code adopted by the recent Legis-

Commissioner of Fisheries. The new of she code adopted by the recent Legislature is not yet in effect. If it was, the date for the opening would be one day later. Commissioner Buller says: At the present writing the act of May 1, 1909, is in force. House bill 928, called the new fish code, is now in the hands of the Governor for his action, but at this writing the department is unable to say what disposition will be made of it. As the bass season will one effective until certified copies to come effective until certified copies to come effective until certified copies to come before the 15th of June. Section 3 of the act provides that it shall be unlawful to fish for or have in possession, the same being killed, any game fish from the thirty-first day of December to the fifteenth day of June, both dates inclusive, except charr or brook trout, or any species of trout, and it would seem that the open season would be from the sixteenth day of June to the thirtieth day of December, both dates inclusive, should the law become effective."

Local dealers anticipate a big season. Sales of tackle and fishing outfits to date have been large. Bass are said to be plentiful. Balt fish may be scarce on account of the present condition of the river. Stone rollers will again be popular, as this kind of bait is more plentiful. Shiners are scarce in this vicinity.

MOTIVE POWER TEAM NEWARK'S COMING LOSES FIRST BATTLE

Easy Time With Leaders in Railroad League

Harrisburg Independents had an easy job with the Pennsylvania Rall-road Motive Power team yesterday, winning by a score of 15 to 1. The game was expected to be close. John Breckenridge, who is captain of the rallroad team, started right, but when Garverich was hit for three bingles in one inning, he put the youngster in the field and went on the mound himself.

one inning, he put the field and went on the mound himself.

This change was Breckenridge's undoing. He was bumped all over the lot. When Harrisburg started the fireworks, the whole team back of the former Tri-State star went soaring. Errors of omission and commission were numerous. Harrisburg simply walked away with the game. It was the first defeat for the Motive Power team, leaders in the Railroad league. The score follows:
