

Friday is Harrisburg's Great Bargain Day when prices are lower than any other day. To-morrow is also the fourth day of our 44th Anniversary Sale

In accordance with Friday Bargain Day we have arranged a most unusual list of Anniversary Specials that will more than repay the few moments spent in taking note of them.
A Word About Limited Quantities

In not a few instances only a limited number or quantity of an article could be procured, but in that group, only those that in our opinion are sufficient for a half-day's buying are announced.

However, even this is difficult to judge at times, and you'll be on the safe side in attending during the early morning hours.

Why not morning and afternoon? Clocks are ringing at intervals of a few minutes all day long.
