Wedding Here at Noon Written by Mrs. Labaree Real Tabernacle Romance

WORTH UP TO $1.50.

Many of the recent magazines have Miss Miriam C. Shimer, daughter of published articles, stories and verse published articles, stories and verse George S. Shimer of Milton, head of contributed by local writers, some of the Milton Manufacturing Company, whom are reaping quite a harvest through their pens. The July Pictorial Review has an attractive page entitled "Childhood's Golden Hour" with half a dozen of the clever child pictures of Maud T. Fangel and three little poems. The first poem by Mary Fleming Labaree daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Fleming, of South street, now, with her family at Tabriz, Persia, follows: Nicholson-Hemminger Evangelistic party, took place at noon to-day in the Pine Street Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Bernard J. Brinkem, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Milton, officiating.

The immediate families and a few personal friends were present. After the service a wedding breakfast was served at the Commonwealth. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Shimer and her cousin, Miss Florence Shimer. The Rev. Dr. Harry B. Stock of Carlisle was best man.

Paris, June 10.—A report issued by Admiral Thaon Di Revel, chief of the Italian naval staff, shows that Austrian wireless messages are intercepted regularly by the Italians, says a special dispatch from Rome. The Italians have been enabled to obtain this information which is of immense military value by the use of a new device invented by Guglielmo Marconi. The device is said to make it impossible for the Austrians to intercept Italian messages.

King Victor at Front; Visits Troops on Horse

By Associated Press
Rome, June 3, 7.40 P. M., via Paris, June 10, 6.05 A. M.—The presence of King Victor Emmanuel at the front is having a tremendous moral effect upon the Italian troops, according to reports reaching the capital from all sections of the long battle line. His majesty has visited every zone where fighting is taking place, which has meant the expenditure of a vast amount of energy on his part, as the line of advance of the Italian forces is exceedingly irregular and he frequently has climbed to fortresses situated upon lofty heights along the frontier. Much of his traveling has been done on horseback because the roads are lacking on a considerable part of the front. roads are lacking part of the front.

DE WET PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO CHARGE OF HIGH TREASON

By Associated Press

London, June 10, 9.12 A. M.—General Christian De Wet, one of the leaders of the South African rebellion against Great Britain, pleaded not guilty to a charge of high treason, but guilty to a charge of sedition, at the opening yesterday of his trial at Bloemfontein, says a dispatch to the Reuter Telegram Company. The indictment against him is a long one covering alleged rebellious acts and seditious utterances, Attorney General De Gager is prosecuting the case and three judges are sitting.

General De Wet was captured De-cember 1, 1914, on a farm at Water-burg, British Bechuanaland, whither he had been pursued by a motor car brigade.
