

Corn-Mad? Use "GETS-IT," It's Sure

Makes Corn Vanish Like Magic. A hard corn of skin makes up every corn. When you put 2 drops of "GETS-IT" on it, it shrivels up and comes right off—and there's your corn—gone by thunder! Simple as taking off your hat! That's why the corn-millions have

Don't Waste Time "Hollering." "GETS-IT," World's Simplest Corn-Cure, Never Fails. gone wild over "GETS-IT"—nothing like it ever known. Some folks, to this day, putter around with bandages, sticky tape, thick plasters, corn "pulling" salves, gouge corns out with knives, snip them with scissors, make them bleed and then howl because they can't get rid of sore corns. Use "GETS-IT." There's nothing to do but apply 2 drops. The work is done, "GETS-IT" does the rest. No pain, no fussing, no changing shoes, no limping. It never fails. Try it to-night for any corn, callus, wart or bunion. Be sure that you get "GETS-IT" and nothing else. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

PLENTY OF FUN AND FROLIC FEATURE HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

Pretty Girls and Handsome Fellows Will Take Leading Parts in Senior Production of "The College Widow"

JOHN BOOKER

MABEL WRIGHT

Pretty girls, handsome fellows, lots of fun and frolic, are the features of "The College Widow," which will be given by the seniors of the Central High school, Friday evening in Chestnut Street Auditorium. John Booker, as Peter Witherspoon, president of Atwater College, and Miss Mabel Wright as Mrs. Primsey Dazell, a professional chaperon, are on a committee of two to oversee the personal welfare of all—but it's impossible, likewise very humorous. The seniors are having rehearsals daily. On the cast are a number of students who were in the oratorical contests at the high school. Miss Annabel Swartz is instructing the students for the play.

Thin People Can Increase Weight

Thin men and women who would like to increase their weight with 10 or 15 pounds of healthy "meat" there should try eating a little Sargol with their meals for a while and note results. Here is the good reason why: First weigh yourself and measure yourself. Then take Sargol—one tablet with every meal of the usual size. Weigh and measure again. It isn't a question of how you look or feel or what your friends say and think. The scales and the tape measure will tell their own story, and most any thin man or woman can easily add from five to eight pounds in the first fourteen days by following this simple direction. And best of all, the new flesh stays put. Sargol does not itself make fat, but mixing with your food, it turns the fats, sugars and starches of what you have eaten, into rich, ripe fat producing nourishment for the tissues and blood—prepares it in an easily assimilated form which the blood can readily accept. All this nourishment now passes from your body as waste. But Sargol stops the waste and deals it quickly and makes the fat producing contents of the very same meals that you are eating now develop pounds and pounds of healthy flesh between your skin and bones. Sargol is safe, pleasant, efficient and inexpensive. George A. Gougas and other leading druggists in Harrisburg and vicinity sell it in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back—Advertisement.

Local Men Graduated From Penna. College

Both Harrisburg and Steelton were represented in the 1915 graduating class of Gettysburg College, which held its commencement exercises yesterday afternoon. George N. Book is the Harrisburg man and Frank B. Wickersham, Jr. the Steelton man, who received their diplomas from the institution. Many Harrisburg and Steelton folks attended the exercises. The trustees officially decided to erect a new preparatory building at a cost of $50,000, $30,000 of which President Granville reported has already been subscribed. The question of changing the name from Pennsylvania to Gettysburg College was discussed, but it was decided to retain the present name, Pennsylvania College. Among the commencement speakers were Talcott Williams, dean of the journalism school of Columbia University, and President John Henry McCracken, of Lafayette. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon both speakers and the degree of doctor of literature was conferred upon John Reed Scott, the Gettysburg novelist, who wrote the "Colonel of the Red Hussars" and other popular fiction.

SOAP IS BAD FOR THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it. The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulsumed coconut oil; (which is pure and greaseless) it is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use. One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage. You can get mulsumed coconut oil (it must be mulsumed, plain coconut oil will not do) at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every one in the family for months.

Teaching Girls to Play a Regular Tennis Game

One should be able to handle a racket and a ball before going on a court to play a game of tennis; the shifting of weight, correct grip, correct position, correct form, all should come first and counting last. The first step is to give to each girl a racket and a ball, telling her to grasp the racket as she would a fryingpan. She then places the ball on the racket and tosses it into the air. Upon its return she knocks it into the air again. Keeping at this job until she can keep the ball in the air for at least twenty-five strokes. Given a space of the wall against which she can knock the ball, she is told to hit the ball much as before, tossing it against the wall and returning it to the house. Standing at a distance of about fifteen feet from the pupil the instructor tosses the ball (by racket, preferably) to the pupil so that in returning it she must use some effort to reach the racket. This gives her a clean swing for the racket. And, she will judge the ball better. Her only attempt should be to toss the ball lightly back to the instructor, who should catch it and then serve another racket. The pupil should learn at this time that handle and head of the racket should move at the same speed, and that the same face of the racket is used in all cases, causing the pupil to use what is known as the "American" grip. This is the only grip that is desirable and sensible for a woman. To keep the wrist back of the ball is certainly better mechanics than to have it in front.—Outing.

BRETHREN TO MEET AT HERSHEY IN 1918

[Continued from First Page.] and, when the number was 486 each time. The recommendation from the standing committee is that the annual gathering will come here again in 1918, and the prospects are that Hershey will be made the permanent meeting place every three years. Yesterday morning the occasion of re-baptism was taken up, and ably discussed for several hours. Several churches sent in petitions, asking for the privilege of receiving members into their churches without compelling them to submit to a re-baptism. A large number of the ministers spoke on the subject, after which the vote was finally taken, resulting as follows: In favor of re-baptism, 97;

been debated for a number of years and the progressive element in the denomination consider this action a great victory for the future success and enlargement of the church. Another important question for final settlement, coming as a petition from churches in Northwestern Kansas, was the decision on dress regarding wearing of fashionable neckties. This subject also created an animated discussion by a number of the delegates. It was finally decided that even though the church had not previously specified that article of dress, yet it was the sense of the conference that the wearing of a necktie is absolutely unnecessary and that it is only a garment of adornment. A number of other petitions were considered, but deferred for another year, while several were "respectfully returned." Last evening a brief song service was conducted by Miss Elizabeth Kline, of Elizabethtown. These ser-eral beautiful art exhibits are on display. Hershey's Chocolates a Favorite. Never before in the history of the town have visitors purchased as much chocolate as has been sold during the past week. It is estimated that several tons of the famous sweets have been purchased by the visitors. One man purchased ten dollars' worth of Hershey's products. Conference Personal. The Rev. J. P. Harris, of Saxton, Pa., has arrived for the closing days of the conference. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cassell, of Ashland, Ohio, are attending the sessions. Elder Harrison M. Schwalin, of Elkhart, Ind., arrived on Monday. He visited his aged mother and brother in Valley View, Schuylkill county. Among the other late arrivals are Elder J. A. Long, of York, Pa.; Elder J. C. Stoner, of Palestine, Ill.; Prof. J. A. Crowell, of Huntingdon; and Prof. J. A. Myers, of Huntingdon. NEW KAUFMAN UNDERSSELLING STORE
