Spiritual Peace Concerned Him More Than War Victories; "The Blessed Forgiveness"

(By William T. Ellis)

In some matters we bow to our tyrannus modernity; but in all funda-mentals of life we know that there is no change. Essentials of life remain as they were milleniums ago. What was most important in the days of King David is still most imdays of King David is still most important to-day. Three thousand years have passed since King David sat on his throne of splendor, and in that day his supreme concern was his relation with Jehovah. Spiritual values were placed higher than all material interests. The profoundest utterances of David had to do with the state of the human soul. Spiritual peace concerned him more than military glory. ary glory.
"Ah, but that was long ago," says peace concerned him more than milltary glory.

"Ah, but that was long ago," says some up-to-date youngster. "These modern days are more practical." Not a bit of it, my boy. Look deeply enough into life and you will find the things which matter to-day are the same things which mattered in the days of Noah. Let me tell you two stories to illustrate my points.

The first was told me by a good friend with whom I lunched at the Union League Club in Fifth Avenue in New York. My friend had named a "big business" man, known as hard and cold and relentless in all his transactions, a veritable money-making machine. One day last February he was going along Fifth Avenue when he hailed my friend, saying, "Look here. You are the very man I want to see. I want to talk with somebody. I was over in Philadelphila the other day and I went to hear that man "Billy" Sunday. I thought I was past all emotionalism, but Sunday stirred depths in me that I didn't know existed. The spiritual emotions that I had experienced as a young man came flooding over me again. I confess to you that I wept as I listened to him." Can it be that this man of millions whose time was so precious, was spending daylight hours and sitting on a board bench listening to an untutored preacher talk about sin and forgiveness and the love of Christ? Ah, my friend, there are many men of might and money who would give their last doilar to know the secret of peace which the Gospel proclaims.

$25.00 Suits From Regular Stock Reduced to $18.75

HETHER you travel during your vacation or spend it in week-end trips to the country club your clothes must be up to the mark. Most well-dressed men know that $25.00 will buy them the best ready-for-service clothes produced in America.

Our stocks included a representative line of $25.00 suits, but the cool May left us with a larger number than usual in the cabinets so we have reduced them to $18.75. With vacation time just opening, and so many men needing good stylish Summer suits, these values stand out prominently in the medley of clothing "sales."

The Silent Harp

For a year King David's harp had been silent. It had lost its music of God's peace. Sin had broken its strings. The great minstrel was mute. True, he had triumphed in passion's plot of lust and murder. Uriah was dead and Bathsheba was was greater than words could express. He knew himself separated from God. Nothing went right with him. There was strife and unpleasantness in the palace. The misery of life, the suicides that seem so mysterious, can usually be explained by the one little word "sin."

Suddenly, as we studied last week, "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will counsel thee."

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off by increasing the exygencarrying power of the blood a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once, don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air, breathe deeply, and get from any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night. Weigh yourself every few days and key up the treatment until you are clutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and is designed to increase the exygen-carrying power of the blood.

Even a few days' treatment should show a noticeable reduction in weight. There is nothing better.—Advertisement.
