at Comstock Funeral

Funeral services for George Stedman Comstock, a member of the State Industrial Board and a widely-known resident of Cumberland county, who died at his home Mechanicsburg, Saturday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Bishop Darlington, Archdean Leroy F. Baker, of Selinsgrove, and the Rev. O. Bridgeman officiated. Burial was made in Chestnut Hill cemetery, Mechanicsburg.

Scores of Harrisburgers, including many State employes attended the services. In memory of Mr. Comstock, the State Department of Labor and Industry was closed at noon.

The pallbearers were J. V. W. Reynders, Steelton, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Steel Company; John Price Jackson, Commissioner of Labor; H. B. McCormick, Dr. H. L. Gold Medals Awarded at San Francisco "Expo"

Frank A. Smith, president of the Harrisburg Brokerage Company, has received the following telegram from the Minute Taploca Company, of Orange, Mass, the products of which his firm handles in this territory:

"We are happy to advise that Minute Taploca and Minute Gelatine received the highest awards gold medals at the San Francisco Exposition. This was against the world and means you are selling the world's best taploca and gelatine."

OBJECTED TO TREE TRIMMING

Cutting Away of Branches Under Forester's Direction Causes
Annoyance
Inquiry of City Forester Mueller
to-day developed the fact that the trimming of a few of the poplar trees
in North Third street above Maclay street to allow the carrying through the tree tops of an extension of the street to allow the carrying through the tree tops of an extension of the Harrisburg Light and Power company's line, was done under the direction of the cit yforester.

The electric company in order to to-operate with the city forestry department and observe the city regulations relative to tree trimming had asked the city official to supervise the trimming. The trimmer took out some dead branches, Mr. Mueller said, which could have been left in perhaps, and so preserve the contour of the tree, but which from a practical point of view should have been taken out.

rorty members of the Reystone Morocycle Club spent Sunday at Relly Glenn, near Palmyra. Soon after starting from the clubhouse A. W. Noff-singer, 1262 Juniper street, was struck by an auto belonging to George W. Dunkle, 1949 Derry street. Noffsinger was cut and bruised.
