Bulgarian Minister Speaks at Bucknell University Commencement Exercises

Special to The Telegraph

Lewisburg, Pa., June 15.—Lewisburg is now overrun with the commencement visitors, large numbers arriving to-day. An excellent sermon was delivered Sunday morning to the graduating class by President John H. Harris, and the address will be delivered to the class to-morrow morning by Stefan Pararetoff, Minister to the United States from Bulgaria.

The commencement opened last Thursday evening with an eloquent oration by John H. Harris, followed Friday evening by the annual exhibition of the School of Music, Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock the organ recital was given in the Baptist Church, and in the evening occurred the annual commencement exercises of the fourth form of the Bucknell Academy. John Catherman, of Snyderport; Clyde Witherington, of Hartsville; Newton Newman, of Lewisburg; George M. Kunkle, of Lewisburg; Stouart H. McLaughlin, of Altoona, and Veris Blaine Hall, of Montgomery, were the academy graduates. Sunday afternoon Menziesohn's "St. Paul" oratorio was given in the Baptist Church. Those who aided the School of Music in the presentation of the oratorio were Mrs. Helen Evans of Scranton, soprano; Miss Alice Rowe, of Plymouth, contralto; Alfred Van Osten and Robert Lloyd, bass, the latter two named before students of the university, and the oratorio was delivered by the Rev. George Adams, of Philadelphia, in the Baptist Church.

Monday morning the art exhibit night opens in the studio in the Woman's College and will continue through the week. The exhibit is a most notable one this year. This evening at 7:30 o'clock the annual senior class play will be given in Commencement Hall, the subject being "Christopher Junior."

Public Commencement will be one of the biggest days of the week. The trustees of the college will meet at 8 o'clock that morning. At 10 a. m. will be the commencement of the School of Music, conferring of diplomas, Institute, School of Music and Art, in Commencement Hall. The alumnae reunion and luncheon will be held at 12 o'clock and at 2 o'clock the second annual parade will form. The Repas Band, the commencement band, and the Citizens' Band, of Lewisburg, will furnish the music for the parade. A baseball game between the alumni and the university team will follow the parade.

PAROLED PRISONERS CAUGHT

Two Men Arrested For Horse Stealing Wanted by Authorities

Waynesboro, Pa., June 15.—When Dudley Miller and J. J. Pittinger were arrested near Waynesboro, north of Waynesboro, on Saturday Morning it was the belief that two men guilty of the robbery of the Reading and Potomac Railroad at Leesport, Pa., had been arrested. Information reached Chief Staley yesterday that the men are out of prison on parole. Warden McKenty of the Eastern Penitentiary, Philadelphia, communicated with Sheriff Walker at Chambersburg, and told him that Miller was out of the penitentiary on parole and that he wanted him. Miller himself says he has six or ten years more to serve.

Pittinger, it is said by the Maryland authorities, was out of the Maryland Penitentiary on parole. The were arrested here for the stealing of Mrs. Abbie Kooz, of Frederick, Md.

When You Wash Your Hair Don't Use Soap

Most soaps and prepared champoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just common sulfated coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, lustrous, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt, and dandruff.

You can get sulfated coconut oil (it must be sulfated, plain coconut oil will not do) at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every one in the family for months. —Advertisement.

Nervous Children

From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus' dance usually develops and nervous children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease. Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome, cannot be amused and does not sleep well. The jerky movements and weakness characteristic of the disease come a little later. The patient becomes pale, languid, has little appetite and is usually constipated. Such a child should not be allowed to study, but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. If unusual symptoms develop, or if the nervousness continues to the point of hysteria, a physician should be called. In most cases the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is sufficient. Without treatment, St. Vitus' dance may become chronic.

Parents of nervous children should write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the free booklet, "Nervous Disorders, A Method of Home Treatment," and a diet book called "What to Eat and How to Eat." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with directions for use.—Advertisement.
