We recommend ALPHA rather than ordinary cement because it can be depended upon every time. ALPHA leads in strength. It is made of the highest quality material, mixed and burned just right, and tested hourly in the factory. Every ounce is pure, live, and active— warranted to more than meet the U. S. Government standard for strength and binding-power.

Those who use ALPHA always get good results. Many in this community will have no other brand.

No More Hearings.—The Public Service Commission to-day announced that it had refused the application for another hearing in the Philadelphia suburban passenger commutation rate cases as asked by Edwin M. Abbott, attorney for commuters and business men's associations, and had referred him to the law governing appeals. This ends, as far as the commission is concerned, proceedings that have been under way for eight months or more, the present commission accepting what was done by the former commission. The proceedings were marked by some lurid interviews at Philadelphia and many attacks upon the commission takes the position that what Abbott asks is a rehearing, notwithstanding his contention here on May 28 that it was a new hearing he asks. It is stated that the commission can reopen the case on cause shown, but that the logical step is now an appeal to the courts.

The manner in which the State Board of Education is aiding school districts to obtain good results in construction of schoolhouses is well illustrated by the summary of the report for 1914, just issued in printed form by the board. This shows that new schools were built in all but ten of the counties of the State, not including the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. These included 177 large buildings and all of these plans and in addition notes that fifty-three of the smaller type of buildings were constructed from plans furnished by the board. The board was asked for 235 plans for standard school buildings, several of them of large size.

The report summarizes what has been done in the way of acquiring normal schools and the steady growth of the school fund.

The Governor also vetoed the House bill to prevent municipalities from opening streets through lands of any educational institution conducted by the Commonwealth. He says the title is defective and in any event no municipality can take state land. He holds that the bill is superfluous as far as certain facts apply and that "to legislate for a situation that is anomalous is not wise."

Other vetoes announced are:
House bill amending act of 1895 relative to rebuilding of county bridges destroyed by fire or flood, on which the Governor says: "Its language is not clear. It may involve the State in rebuilding all county bridges" and "would relieve counties of expenses they should bear and put an undue burden on the commonwealth."

Senate bill amending methods of obtaining charters for second class corporations, on which the Governor says: "This bill would allow a corporation to begin business with $600 in its treasury. It does away with publication of notice of intention to apply for charters. The people ought to know what they legally license.

* * The present law has not kept industries from our state and is sufficiently lucid and effective to answer all practical purposes. Moreover, it is now well known and generally approved."

Senate bill amending foreign corporation act to permit laundry companies chartered in other states to hold real estate in Pennsylvania. The Governor says: "Unfortunately, the acts to be repealed are not correctly cited and the bill is defective."

Do You Know Why Cow's Milk Will Not Do For Your Baby?

Many mothers who cannot nurse their babies think that cow's milk is a safe substitute. But it is not. You can't depend on getting cow's milk fresh and pure. Nearly all milk is 30 hours old when you get it. You can't be sure that the dairy is clean or the cow free from consumption.

Even were you sure, still the milk would not do for your baby. Cow's milk is intended for strong calves. Your baby's tender little stomach cannot digest the heavy curds in cow's milk. It struggles under such an unfair load and finally becomes weak and ill. Give your baby the food nearest to mother's milk-know what it is?

It's caffeine-a poisonous and powerful nerve irritant - about 21/2 grains to the cup of coffee.

Listen to what physicians say:

"Coffee and tea are poisonous drugs. The caffeine they contain is of the same nature as of headache, nervousness, various disorders of the nerves."

"A large percentage of cases uric acid. They impair digestion and produce sleeplessness and indigestion can be traced directly to coffee.'

If you haven't suspected coffee as the cause of headaches, biliousness, heart-flutter or sleeplessness, suppose you test the matter by a change to the pure food-drink, INSTANT POSTUM.

There's no caffeine nor any harmful substance in this delicious beverage-just the nourishing elements of wheat, roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses-with a snappy flavour similar to that of mild, high-grade Java.
