PERSONAL SOCIAL

MISS FOUNTAIN WEDS LOYD L. SHETTEL

Young West End Couple Will Spend Their Honeymoon at Seashore Resorts

One of the prettiest of June weddings took place at high noon to-day in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, North Second street, when Miss Mary Elizabeth Fountain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fountain, was united in marriage with Lloyd Landis Shettel, of Peffer street.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a large number of friends of the young couple by the Rev. Dr. Floyd Appleton, rector of the church. Masses of white peonies and field daisies decorated the chancel and the altar. Newell Albright played the wedding marches and softly during the service the "Meditation" from "Thais."

The attractive bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dainty toilette of white crepe de chine with lace overdress, a white picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The groom wore a white tuxedo with a pink bow tie, a white pocket square and a white boutonniere. The wedding gifts were viewed and the bridal couple showered with congratulations and good wishes.

The wedding journey to Philadelphia, Wilmington, Atlantic City and other summer resorts will be followed by a residence at 615 Curtin street, where Mr. and Mrs. Shettel will be "at home" to their friends after July 1.

The bride is a talented musician of the city and a member of St. Paul's choir. Mr. Shettel, son of George Shettel, of the West End, is connected with the S. S. Pomeroy grocery stores of Market Square.

Mrs. Laura Wolfinger Shannon, of Altoona, a former Harrisburger, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. T. M. Wall, of Derry street.

FIFTY-TWO ROSES FOR MISS JOHNSON

Willard School Pupils Honor Principal Retiring After Long Service

A farewell entertainment was given in the Willard school building, State street, this morning in honor of the retiring principal, Miss Fanny L. Johnson, who holds the unique record in Harrisburg of having taught fifty-two years in the public schools of this city.

All the pupils in the building were assembled in the principal's room at 11 o'clock, where a musical program was given at the close of which a bouquet of fifty-two American beauty roses was presented to Miss Johnson in an appropriate speech by John Koch, a pupil of Miss Johnson's room.

Addresses of appreciation of Miss Johnson's services both to the schools and to the good citizenship of the city were made by the teachers and Professor Thomas.

Miss Johnson in a few closing remarks thanked the pupils and teachers for their co-operation in her work here and spoke feelingly of the severing of the pleasant ties which have bound her to the educational work of her native city for so many years.
