

TODAY'S BEAUTY HELPS

COMPLEXION BEAUTIFIER—Nothing is more repulsive than to see a woman with her face all daubed with face powder in her desire to hide marks of age.

MAKES HAIR FLUFFY—By washing the hair with a teaspoonful of canthrox dissolved in a cup of hot water, afterward rinsing thoroughly with clear water, one finds that it dries quickly and evenly, is unstreaked, bright, soft and very fluffy, so fluffy, in fact, that it looks more abundant than it is and so soft that arranging it becomes a pleasure.

COMMENCEMENT ARGUS IS OUT

"It's a Bear!" Declare Enthusiastic Freshmen of Central High School

"The best ever—of course!"—The Seniors.

"Pretty well done!"—The Juniors.

"Not bad!"—The Sophs.

"It's a 'bear.'"—The Freshmen.

Really everything is in readiness for commencement of the class of 1915 Central high school, now; the commencement "Argus" is out.

A little larger, a great deal more typographically, and in point of binding and in the character of its make-up and contents, the last issue of the Central high school student publication to be issued under the proud eye of the class that will finally don cap and gown to-morrow afternoon—was placed on sale to-day.

Found in green and tied with blue and with a couple of pretty water color roses on the cover page, the commencement "Argus" is a splendid tribute to the efforts of the staff.

All in all, the commencement argus is all that the classes say of it and then some. And here's the staff that did it: Editor-in-chief, Karl E. Peters; sports, Edward B. Roth, William R. Bingham; exchanges, Ellwood L. Baker; social, Samuel S. Frolich; alumni, Raymond E. Meek; observations, George G. Fox; assistant, Paul R. Clouser; art, J. Herbert Sprinker; business manager, Leroy D. Spruick; circulation, E. Burkholder; assistant manager, Richard F. Hamer.

All Parochial Schools Represented at Exercises

Each grade of the parochial schools of the city was represented in a big chorus at the annual exercises held yesterday in the Cathedral Hall.

RUSSIANS RETREAT

Berlin, June 17, via London, 4 P. M.—The Russians have abandoned their positions to the north of Sienawa, on the San river in Galicia, and have retreated towards Larnok in Russian Poland, according to the official statement given out to-day by the German army headquarters staff.

Gray Haired People! Look at This Picture!

How Sulpho-Sage Compound Brings Back Color and Lustre of Your Hair

You can speedily and harmlessly convert that gray, faded hair to the dark, luxurious natural color of youth with the good old-fashioned Sage Tea and Sulphur preparation called Sulpho-Sage.

No matter whether your hair is entirely gray or just beginning to turn, you will be surprised how Sulpho-Sage will bring back the dark rich shade.

It removes dandruff, stops falling hair, and promotes a soft, glossy, luxuriant growth. George A. Grogas who sells and recommends Sulpho-Sage in Harrisburg, will return your money if you are not satisfied.—Advertisement

WILL ASK FOR BIDS TO BLAST CHANNELS

Planning Commission Approves Boat Passageways Through Maclay St. Riffles

TWO-FOOT DEPTHS MINIMUM

Routes Will Be at Least 60 Feet Wide; Information on Acquiring West Shore Land

Boat channels through the Maclay street riffles were not only heartily approved by the City Planning Commission at its closing session with Park Expert Warren H. Manning to-day but the commissioners decided to get estimates of the cost at the earliest opportunity and to have specifications prepared so that the bids for blasting and clearing the proposed passageways can be asked for.

The channels which follow the shore a short distance out from the wall, beginning at a point near Rely street, a short distance above this the channels will swing across the river to the mouth of the Conodogunit creek with a minimum of two feet depth has been decided upon.

Hotel Proprietor Dies From Heart Failure

Francis H. McCabe, aged 37, proprietor of the Merchants' Hotel, 125 Chestnut street for more than ten years, died of heart failure yesterday afternoon shortly before 5 o'clock at his home.

He was born April 7, 1878, at 207 Chestnut street, receiving an education in the city schools and later became a plumber. Later he became a bar clerk, working for about two years at the Merchants' Hotel, and becoming proprietor in 1908.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Jane McCabe, widow of the late Frank McCabe, who was formerly proprietor of the hotel at North and Cowden streets, and also one brother, James, employed at the Casino bowling parlors. The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's Cathedral on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. M. M. Hassett and the Rev. T. B. Johnson, will have charge of the requiem high mass. Burial will be made in the Mt. Calvary cemetery. Mr. McCabe was a member of the St. Patrick's church, the Hassett club, B. P. O. Elks and the Friendship Fire company.

Odd Fellows to Hold Memorial Sunday Night

Memorial services for the twenty-two members of the eleven lodges in the Harrisburg and Southern district of Dauphin county, Indiana, of the Order of Odd Fellows, who died during the last year, will be held in Messiah Lutheran church Sunday evening. The Rev. Dr. H. W. A. Hanson will preach the memorial sermon.

There are more than 1,400 members in the eleven lodges. They will meet in the hall of Dauphin lodge, 221 Market street at 8:45 o'clock and march to the church. Members of the Rebekah lodges, the auxiliary organization will accompany them.

A special musical program has been arranged and the list of dead will be read during the services. Those who died during the year were: Cleon Cicuelas, George V. Carl, Charles E. Skinner, John W. Shultz, William Bickley, Samuel B. Young, E. A. Shutt, William M. James, L. P. Bender, M. L. Halsteine, Peter Grass, Edwin Bowers, George J. Buser, John H. Ludwick, James H. Johnson, William H. Wharton, Charles Palmer, John R. Kinsey, H. S. Barnhart, D. C. Strickland, Daniel Baker and Theodore F. Halthaus.

No Lifebelts Available on Lusitania Decks?

London, June 17, 12.56 P. M.—The investigation into the sinking of the Cunard Line steamer Lusitania on May 7 by a German submarine off the coast of Ireland with a loss of over 1,100 lives was resumed in London to-day under the direction of Baron Mercsey.

Sir Edward Carson, the attorney general, expressed his conviction that a second submarine was lying in wait on the port side of the Lusitania. The evidence showed that Captain Anderson countermanded the orders Captain Turner had given previously to get the women and children into the boats. A number of witnesses testified that they got into the boats and had to leave them later on orders from Captain Anderson, who was heard shouting "The ship is safe."

WHAT WILL CARRANZA DO?

Washington, June 17.—Considerable speculation was being indulged in here to-day as to whether General Carranza would continue his course and fight on, or modify his attitude in view of overtures for peace in Mexico by General Villa. Some definite word from the Constitutional chief as to whether he will accept Villa's proposals was awaited with much interest, as upon his answer probably hinges the next move in the situation. General Carranza has thus far allowed three proposals for peace parleys by Villa to go unheeded.

MISSING BOY FOUND

Columbia, Pa., June 17.—Emory Ferguson, the 17-year-old boy whose disappearance in a canoe here last Saturday excited considerable alarm when it was supposed that he had been drowned, was found on an island in the Susquehanna river near McCall's Ferry. Orrie Detwiler, of Columbia, who operates a shad battery below McCall's found the boy and the canoe and brought the news to his mother. The youth was much surprised to learn that his disappearance had created a sensation. Relatives went to the island and brought him home.
