Notable Summer of Conferences and Conventions For Churches

More Than a Score of Important General Gatherings Scheduled For Coming Weeks; Mixing Athletics and Bible Study

By The Religious Rambler

LIKE a rushing river, the democracy cuts new channels for itself, in religion as in politics and social life. This summer witnesses the fullest development yet seen of a new form of church workers. Literally scores of these meetings, some of them attended by thousands of delegates from a wide area, are scheduled for June, July and August.

While these summer conferences are children and heirs of the old-fashioned American camp meetings, the family likeness is scarcely traceable. "Primitive" is the one word that describes the camp meetings, whereas the most luxurious of hotels and other comforts may be found at many, or most, of the larger conferences. In a sense they have become fashionable resorts, for many of the leading families of the country, socially, are to be found at these rallying points of the various denominational and interdenominational bodies. Some notable assemblies:

- A partial list of the more important of this season's conventions is given by "The Missionary Review of the World," as follows: June 15 to 20—China Inland Mission Jubilee Conference, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont.
- June 16 to 22—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Meriam Park, St. Paul.
- June 23 to 27—International Missionary Union, Clifton Springs, N. Y.
- June 24 to July 1—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Winona Lake, Ind.
- June 25 to July 4—Missionary Education Movement Conference, Blue Ridge, N. C.
- July 2 to 12—Missionary Education Movement Conference, Asilomar, California.
- July 6 to 13—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Boulder, Col.
- July 7 to 12—Fifth World Christian Endeavor Convention, Chicago, Ill.
- July 8 to 15—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Northfield, Mass.
- July 9 to 18—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Silver Bay, N. Y.
- July 9 to 18—Missionary Education Movement Conference, Silver Bay, N. Y.
- July 9 to 26—Southern Methodist Missionary Conference, Junaluska, N. C.
- July 12 to 17—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Mt. Hermon, Cal.
- July 14 to 18—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Montezuma, Tenn.
- July 16 to 23—Woman's Summer School of Home Missions, Northfield, Mass.
- July 16 to 25—Missionary Education Movement of Conference, Estes Park, Colorado.
- July 18 to 26—Missionary Convention of Disciples of Christ, Los Angeles, California.
- July 22 to 30—Missionary Education Movement Conference, Ocean Park, Maine.
- July 23 to August 2—Laymen's Missionary Movement Conference, Lake Geneva, Wisconsin.
- July 30 to August 9—Christian and Missionary Alliance Convention, Old Orchard Beach, Me.
- July 31 to August 7—Reformed Church in United States Missionary Conference, Mt. Gretna, Pa.
- August 1 to 8—World's Bible Congress, San Francisco, Cal.
- August 4 to 8—Presbyterian Home Missions Conference, Montreat, N. C.
- August 6 to 15—Missionary Education Movement Conference, Lake Geneva, Wis.
- August 10 to 15—International Convention of Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical Association, Lomira, Wis.
- August 25 to 29—Woman's Summer School of Missions, Chautauqua, N. Y.

The "Get-together" fashion All of the meetings cited, it will be seen, are of wide national units. They are of general interest. No mention is made of hundreds of State and local conferences, with which the country is dotted. The number of these is steadily multiplying, so that for many religious leaders, called upon to make addresses, summer has come to be the busiest season of the year.

These conferences are important in the country's religious life. They furnish points of contact for Christians from various parts of the country and from different denominations, and opportunity for national leaders to make their impression felt upon the whole country. This "get-together" fashion, which is growing in vogue yearly, marks the fluid state of religious work in America. By such meetings as these the church activities of the nation are influenced to take on a common form.

Practically these assemblies, where in church members of all denominations come to know one another, are a greater bond of unity than the formal resolutions of church councils. They are an evidence and in part, a cause of the fact that American Christians have learned to work together. The great body of church membership practically moves and thinks as one.

College Students and Religion

Certainly it is a sign of the time that the largest and most representative intercollegiate function in our day are not academic, nor yet athletic, but religious. The notable instance of this, of course, is the Student Volunteer Conventions. It is true also of the Summer Student Conferences at Northfield, Mass.; Silver Bay, N. Y.; Estes Park, Col.; Lake Geneva, Wis.; Eaglesmere, Pa.; Montezuma, Tenn.; Mt. Hermon, Cal., etc.

Regularly elected delegates from the Christian associations of practically all higher institutions of learning are sent to these summer conferences, and their influence upon the college life of the nation is profound. In addition to platform addresses there are organized classes for the training of leaders in Bible study, missions and other forms of Christian service.

Designed particularly for military purposes in the field, a combination wireless-telephone and telegraph equipment has been developed which is carried in a side-car compartment of a motorcycle. The apparatus is compact, portable, and is claimed to have a telegraphic transmitting radius of approximately 100 miles, and a telephonic range of about half that distance.

WHAT TO DO FOR ITCHING SKINS

Eczema, ringworm and other itching, burning skin eruptions are so easily made worse by improper treatment that one has to be very careful. There is one method, however, that you need not hesitate to use, even on a baby's tender skin—that is, the Resinol treatment. Resinol is the prescription of a Baltimore doctor, put up in the form of Resinol ointment and Resinol soap. This proved so remarkably successful that thousands of other physicians have been prescribing it constantly for 20 years.

Resinol stops itching instantly, and almost always heals the eruption quickly and at little cost. Resinol ointment and Resinol soap can be bought at any druggist's and are not at all expensive.—Advertisement.

Proper Thing Now Is to Peel off Soiled Skin

Those who abhor sticky, greasy, shiny, streaked complexions should religiously avoid creams, powders and rouges during the heated days. There's no need for them, anyway, since the virtues of mercuric iodine have become known. No amount of perspiration will produce any evidence that you've been using the wax. As it is applied at bedtime and washed off in the morning, the complexion never looks like a mask. Mercuric iodine gradually takes off a bad complexion, instead of adding anything to make it worse. It has none of the disadvantages of cosmetics and accomplishes much more in keeping the complexion beautifully white, sunny and youthful. Just get an ounce of it at your druggist's and see what a few days' treatment will do. Use like cold cream.

Another effective summer treatment

Heat tending to cause wrinkles and flabbiness—is a skin-tightener made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in ½ pt. witch hazel. Its use (as a face bath) leaves no trace.—Advertisement.
