6,000 at Tressler's Orphan Home on Visitors' Day

The greatest individual phase of the Christian church is that, without distinction in position, class, race or denomination; she invites all the world to share in one day of worship of the Father of all men.

This greatest of all of the world's institutions is gradually leading men to the place where they realize that life for selfish motives is life lost,—that life lived for the advancement of their age and for the permanent advancement of the world; is life gained. In this spirit all of the churches of Harrisburg send out their weekly invitation to be in attendance at of at least one service of some church to-morrow.

Blain, Pa., June 19.—It is estimated that between six and seven thousand were in attendance at Tressler's Orphan Home, Loysville, on the occasion of its annual Visitors' Day on Thursday. The weather was all that could be asked and people turned out from all parts of Central Pennsylvania. More than 600 automobiles made the trip, and the trains hauled hundreds of passengers.

A feature of the day's entertainment was the program of songs, class drills and recitations rendered by the school. The Home band furnished the music and the boys' military drill was given under the direction of Capt. Halin. Five graduates received diplomas, as follows: Rowland LeRoy Fowler, Isaac Milton Craig, Benjamin Filmore Jumper, Merritt Dewey Detweiler and Lorene Eleanor Kennedy.

Charles H. Shanck, Gettysburg, Pa., made the address and the president of the Board of Trustees, presented the diplomas.

YORK.—Harry Landes, son of a hotel proprietor, and William K. Stahl, a printer, charged with manslaughter for running down and killing fifteen-year-old Bruce Arnsburger with an automobile, were held for court after a hearing before Alderman M. W. Elssesser.

Pottsville.—White preparing the second shot following another at the Oakhill Colliery, near Minersville, there came a fall of coal and slate, covering Michael Minkel, of Selzer City, and inflicting injuries from which he died. He was aged 35.

Pottsville.—By a will less than five lines in length, one of the smallest on record in this city, the late Arthur J. Pilgrim, a lawyer, bequeathed an estate valued at $50,000 to his wife, Sarah E. Pilgrim.

BROKEN MOTORCYCLE FOUND Special to The Telegraph Hagerstown, Md., June 19.—A new motorcycle, belonging to B. E. Brosius, Barnesville, Md., was found broken along the bank of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal at Weverton, this county, but no trace of the rider could be discovered. Detectives are trying to locate Mr. Brosius.

TO PREACH ON "LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT." A new series of sermons on two historic love makers of Biblical times will be started in Stevens Memorial Methodist church by the Rev. C. J. Pilgrim, a lawyer, beginning with "Rachel in Love at First Sight." Next Sunday he will preach on "Ruth's Love in the Barley Field."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE First Church of Christ, Scientist—Board of Trade Hall, Sunday, 11 and 7:30. Testimonial meetings, Wednesday, 8. Free reading rooms, Kunkel Building, 12:30 to 4:30 daily, also Monday and Saturday evenings.

CATHOLIC CALENDAR Sunday—St. Silverius. Monday—St. Aloysius Gonz. Tuesday—St. Paulus. Wednesday—St. Audrey. Thursday—St. John Baptist. Friday—St. William, Abb. Saturday—St. John and Paul.

CIVIC COUNCIL TO MEET. The Civic Council of Churches of Harrisburg will meet Tuesday evening, June 22, at 8 o'clock in Zion Lutheran church. A new president will be elected and other business discussed.

TO ADDRESS FORESTERS The Rev. S. B. Bidlack, pastor of the Marysville and West Fairview Methodist Churches, will deliver a special sermon at the former church to-morrow morning at 10:30 o'clock to the Foresters' lodge. In the evening he will speak at West Fairview.

Prof. Bowman Resigns as Principal of Lemoyne School

Lemoyne, Pa., June 19.—The resignation of Professor William C. Bowman as principal of the Lemoyne high school, has been accepted by the board of directors. Bowman, who has been principal of the school since its organization in 1907, was influential in its work and has seen six classes graduate. He was a teacher in the public schools of Cumberland county for nearly twenty-five years and was a graduate of the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, Shippensburg in 1884. He resigned to accept the position of game protector of Cumberland and Adams counties. Mr. Bowman was unanimously elected principal of the school for next year, not knowing about the position which he now holds. His resignation and the loss of Miss Edith Mumm, of Mechanicville, assistant principal for several years, will be felt by the local schools. Several capable successors are in view by the local board.
