SEMI-MONTHLY PAY ACT REPEATED

Last Pay Under Old System Will Go to People on the Hill During This Week

This is the last week for payment of salaries on Capitol Hill under the old monthly system and pay rolls are now being made up for the distribution of checks on the 25th. At the same time it is expected that employees of the various departments desiring to remain under the monthly system will indicate.

The plan is to have a pay distribution for June this week and to have the next pay day on July 15 and the next on August 1. It is believed that a number will prefer to remain under the monthly system.

400 Arrests Likely.—Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust who has been active in getting after violators of the laws governing summer foods and drinks this month, will probably make a record for prosecutions this month. It looks as though the record for the month would be 400 arrests.

Governor to Speak.—Governor Brumbaugh, who is expected to return to the city on June 29 or 30, will probably have several meetings here on July 1 and will take a trip to Blair county on July 2. He plans to attend the Brumbaugh reunion at Roaring Springs.

Dr. Lichteitler Honored.—The Rev. Dr. M. D. Lichteitler, chief clerk of the State Department of Agriculture has been re-elected national chaplain of the National Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., for the fourteenth successive time. He attended the convention at Cedar Point, Ohio.

Smith Makes Statement.—Banking Commissioner William H. Smith today denied any disagreement with the national comptroller of the currency regarding a call for statements. Mr. Smith made this statement: "In relation to the newspaper article headed 'Pennsylvania Requires Bank Statements,' published this morning, I am not aware of any clash either personally or officially. The contents of the article appear to be news from Washington by way of Harrisburg. It concerns the issuance of a call the date of which is to be fixed by the comptroller. It seems to me, therefore, that the comptroller himself is the party who should be asked to confirm or deny the statement. Furthermore, everyone is aware there is a stringent law in Pennsylvania concerning this department which requires every bank under penalty of a heavy fine."

Army Board to Meet.—The State Army Board will meet here on June 29 to discuss plans for construction of armories under the federal appropriation allowed. The board will pass on the arrangements for asking bids for the Philadelphia cavalry armory at that time after Bank Street may be let this summer.

Eighteen Arrests.—Eighteen arrests have been ordered in Philadelphia for violation of the State law prohibiting the sale of adulterated foodstuffs, the largest number to be ordered at one time in months.

Senator Here.—Senator James Endley, of Somerset, was at the Capitol today looking after department matters.

Board to Meet.—The Board of Public Grounds and Buildings may meet next week to discuss the State Village and the United Commission's contract tangle.

Mr. McDevitt Visits.—Harry S. McDevitt, statistician of the State Board of Public Charities, was at the Capitol today.

Many Congratulations.—Governor Brumbaugh has received over 400 letters and telegrams congratulating him upon his action on the full crew law. The letters are from people all over the State.

usually high records in scholastic work, according to the report issued this morning. The students standing at the top of the list have set new records with percentages several points higher than those of previous years. Russel Lowry leads the Junior class with a percentage of 94.37. Lester Zimmerman rates his average at 86.66, taking Sophomore honors while Chas. Keller tops the Freshmen list with 94.11.

Fourteen students of the three classes stand above ninety per cent. and seventy-nine between 80 and 90. The high marks of the students together with the athletic records of the school is a strong plea for athletics. The first and second honors of the three classes follow. The names have been arranged in alphabetical order regardless of averages.

WOMEN TAKING ACTIVE PART IN RELIEF WORK

Without Their Aid Not Much Progress Toward Helping Non-combatants Would Be Made

Without the aid of the woman's organizations in the United States, the work of aiding the non-combatants of Belgium would show a vast decrease. From various parts of the country reports have come to Mrs. Lindon V. Bates, chairman of the Woman's Section of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, 71 Broadway, showing that the women of the country have been and are increasing in their activities. In California, Missouri, Oklahoma, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Ohio, Pennsylvania, in New England and the southern and western states, contributions secured by the funds of women's clubs and societies have been most generous.

In New York State in particular, the activities have been notable. A Utica branch of the commission was recently formed, and the following officers have been elected: Bishop Olmsted, chairman; Charles J. Lamb, of the Utica Trust and Deposit Company, treasurer; Mia Elsie Hoffroan, secretary. The meeting at which the organization was perfected was held at the residence of Bishop Olmsted. A letter from Miss E. J. Farnsworth, State chairman, of the Woman's Section of the Commission, was received, and in it she expressed her great gratification at the progress the work was making in the city of Utica. Miss Josephine Roche, of Denver, Colorado, who is now working in behalf of the organization for the commission for Relief in Belgium, will address a mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the local committee on May 11. Other prominent speakers will also be heard.

In Goshen, N. Y., a similar committee was recently organized, and several hundred dollars were raised through a popular contribution, the proceeds of which were expended in food, which was shipped to the commission's docks at the Bush Terminal in Brooklyn.

One of the novel features adopted by the women to raise funds is announced at St. Paul, Minnesota, where at about the middle of this month, a benefit entertainment will be given at a local theater under the auspices of the local committee. It will be called "A Century of Fashions," and fashions from the period of 1800 until the present time will be shown in pantomime.

Church Council "Let Down" For the Summer

After a short discussion last evening the members of the Harrisburg Civic Council of Churches in this city at a meeting in the Zion Lutheran Church decided to postpone meetings until Fall. The executive committee was appointed to prepare plans during the summer for work to be done by the organization this winter.

The election of officers was also postponed until the next meeting, which will probably be held in September. The work of the last year was also discussed, together with several minor business items.

STATE'S SUMMER SCHOOLS PLANNED

Will Commence Operations on July 19 Under the Arrangement of State Board Chiefs

Pennsylvania's six special summer schools for the training of teachers to take up work in continuation and vocational schools will open on July 19. The original intention was to open the schools on July 6, but this has been given up. The schools will close the middle of August.

The school authorities in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Scranton, Erie, Altoona and Reading, where the schools will be located, have been invited to help and some have already granted use of buildings. The courses will be open to qualified teachers of a year or more successful teaching in this State, men and women being eligible. Applicants should be either normal school graduates, technical school graduates or special school or grade teachers.

The primary purpose of the summer schools, which are being established by the State Board of Education, is to get the teachers who will be needed under the new child labor law, as it has been found in preparing for the continuation schools that very few properly trained teachers for this special form of work were available, considering the demands which it is expected will be made.

Providing for the teachers is the first step being taken to supply the type of schools contemplated under the Cox act of 1915. No tuition will be charged and the State will pay all expenses. There will be courses in four academic subjects, bearing on trade names, industrial geography, hygiene, relations of employer and employee, government, study of raw materials, manufacture and the like, and vocational subjects like arithmetic adapted to industries and industrial bookkeeping and shop sketching and drawing.

Sewing Circle With Much Whispering

Before the stork arrives there is much to talk about. The comfort of the expectant mother is the chief topic. And there is sure to be someone who has used or knows of that splendid external help, "Mother's Friend."

It is applied to the abdominal muscles, gently rubbed in and has a most pronounced effect as a lubricant. It soothes the network of nerves, enables the muscles to expand naturally, relieves strain on the ligaments and thus sets at ease any undue strain on the organs involved. And it does this with perfect safety. Expectant mothers thus go through the ordeal with comparative ease and comfort. Knowing mothers who have used "Mother's Friend" speak in glowing terms of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and a freedom from many other distresses.

You can get "Mother's Friend" at any drug store or they will gladly get it for you. Write today to Bradford Regulator Co., 401 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a highly instructive book of great value to all expectant mothers. It contains a valuable expectancy chart, rules on diet and is brimful of suggestions that all women will appreciate.

UNIFORM LAWS TO BE RECOMMENDED

State Commissioners Will Take Up a Variet yof Subjects With Governor Brumbaugh

The committee on uniform State laws, consisting of Walter George Smith and Judge William H. Staake, of Philadelphia, and William M. Hargest, Deputy Attorney General of this city, appointed by Governor Brumbaugh, has organized with Judge Staake as chairman and Mr. Hargest as secretary. At the present time every State, Territory, district and possession of the United States has commission-ers in the conference on uniform State laws. This year the annual conference meets at Salt Lake City, August 10-16.

ship law. The sales act, one of the uniform American commercial laws, was also enacted by the recent Legislature, as well as the workmen's compensation act. The uniform partnership act, the uniform workmen's compensation act, the uniform law relating to the cold storage of certain articles of food and an act to make uniform the law of acknowledgments to deeds and other instruments taken outside of the United States are also recommended. In matters relating to criminal law the conference of commissioners co-operates through special committees with the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology. There is also a special committee to act with the American Judicature Society. The conference approved a uniform divorce law for the United States as recommended by the Divorce Congress and this law was advised by the respective State commissioners to be placed upon the statute books of all the States. As yet Pennsylvania has not made the proposed uniform divorce law a part of its law. Judge Staake and his fellow-commissioners report to Governor Brumbaugh that there are certain non-commercial acts which should be taken up by the Legislature and passed as soon as possible, namely, the uniform marriage and divorce act, the marriage evasion act, the probate of foreign wills act and the uniform acknowledgments act.

To the Wise Men

Men of keen judgment—men who know values—are choosing the Case Cars. They are buying the Case 30 because they have bought other Case Cars, and just as their fathers and grandfathers chose Case products. So envy no man—own one yourself.

We urge your attention to the fact that only a few Model R's remain allotted to this territory. Some may be demanded by other territories. We cannot get more this season because of the limited output of this Company whose products are known and wanted because of their 72-year standard of excellence.

CASE 30 MODEL R

With the Case you have a car that combines low purchase cost with low operating cost. One that requires few repairs—one that is an unrivaled saver—not a spender. And why? Because we do put into our cars materials and workmanship found in no other car costing the same as a Case 30. We firmly believe that no car can compare with it from a purchase standpoint—for, in addition to its inbuilt superiority, what car includes all the necessary equipment you must buy later—such as extra tire and tube on rim with tire cover, Weed non-skid tire chains and 8-day clock? All these are included in the regular equipment of the Case. As for month to month expense—let us show you our record book entitled, "From Those Who Know What You Want to Know"—which is convincing proof of the thriftiness of the Case.

Talk it over with your family today and arrange to take them on a demonstration trip. Telephone or come in today, won't you? We also want to give you definite proof of the worthiness of the Case Cars.

"Now is the time."
