Wagner has never gone through a single season in the big league without at least one home run, although last year he had a narrow escape of missing the honor, getting only one—that off Matthewson.

His best year was 1898, when he made 11, and his next best was ten years later, with 10. Up to yesterday Wagner had played in 2,486 chain-joinship games, and besides his 100 home runs he has made 2,220 singles, 575 doubles and 236 triples, or 3,131 hos for a grand total of 4,478 bases. Archer is now batting .260 and Wingo .220.

Lawn, Pa., June 23.—R. Coleman Gingrich and Irwin G. Lehman, members of the H. & S. Shearing Club of Lawn, and champion shearers of Lebanon County, made a record which touches the world's record within 20 seconds. These champions who sheared hundreds of sheep in numerous counties of the State, spent Thursday at Hershey Park, where they sheared a large flock of forty-five sheep owned by M. S. Hershey, averaging the entire flock in a period of six minutes per sheep. M. S. Hershey and his staff, with scores of others picnicking at Hershey Park, congrat liated these experts for their good work. They sheared a number of sheep in the flock in a period of four minutes. This record ranks second in the world's championship and was only excelled by Charles A. Pickett of St. Louis, who carries a three minute record.
