Clouds Every Day in Alps

Special to The Telegraph
Geneva, June 22.—Newspapers of the Canton of Grisons, Eastern Switzerland, give details obtained from Swiss soldiers and guides respecting the fighting at Stelvio Pass and the neighboring heights overlooking the Vallentine Valley. This region is known as the rear door to Italy, through which it would be possible to threaten Milan.

The Austrians have fortified Stelvio, land during a thunder storm near Mercersburg, was killed by lightning and Highland, was rendered unconscious.

EXTENSION SCHOOL PROSPECTS BRIGHT

More Than 150 Applications Already Received; to Name Honor Men Soon

Professor Wendell P. Raine, instructor in the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, this morning anmourced that he has already received more than a hundred and forty applications for information from prospective students in the Harrisburg Extension Branch of the Wharton School.

From present indications the class entering the Extension School next Fall will be far larger than that of last year when a hundred and fifty were enrolled. Of this class at least a hundred are expected to continue with the work next Fall.

Professor Raine, who has headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce offices in the Kunkel Building, Third and Market streets, sald this morning that any young man or woman of the city or neighboring towns who wishes to get information concerning the will be made public early next week. Work of the University Extension can do so by calling on or writing to him scholarship of the local school has at the Chamber of Commerce offices. The names of the honor men in the
