

GARLAND GAS RANGES SOLD AT A REDUCED PRICE

A complete line of Gas Ranges, including three-burner cookers, four-burner ranges and cabinet ranges, all reduced in price which will mean a saving to any one in need of a gas stove. The Gas Range business has not been up to the usual standard and consequently we have a larger stock than we expected to have when midsummer stock taking time comes. They will be sold at a sacrifice and you should not miss this opportunity.

Garland Ranges known all over the world as a high grade line are constructed on scientific principles so as to give longer service and at the same time save considerable on your gas bill. Yes—this price includes the connecting. Just order the stove and it will be delivered, set up and connected ready to use. The payments will be made to suit your convenience.

PEARCE IMPROVED HEAT DISTRIBUTORS

You save gas by using one of these distributors. Made of cast iron with patent heat carrier on under side which holds and distributes the heat. They are sanitary because they present a closed top (like a coal range) which can be kept polished and is dirt and grease proof. The Distributor rests on top of range, replacing the grating. They are made to fit all ranges.

OLD PAXTON CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

The Rutherford-Holmes Bridal Will Take Place There This Evening

One of the prettiest of June weddings will take place this evening at 7 o'clock in the historic old Paxton Church, Paxtang, when Miss Elizabeth Lewis Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leonard Holmes, and Arthur Parke Rutherford, son of John Quincy Adams Rutherford, of Rutherford, are united in marriage. The pastor, the Rev. Harry B. King, will officiate, using the ring service, and Mrs. Ralph Irving Deihl will play the wedding music. Mrs. Deihl will give a half hour's recital preceding the service and use the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin as a professional for the bride party. She will play "O Promise Me," during the ceremony and the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as a recessional. Pink summer flowers will predominate in the church decorations, roses, snapdragon and Canterbury bells relieving the heavier green of laurel and ferns. The reception will be held at the bride's home, with appointments of pink for the wedding supper. A stringed orchestra will play and the beautiful gifts presented to the young couple will be viewed after congratulations and good wishes are extended them. The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has chosen a toilette of Nile green satin, with garniture of filmy lace and orange blossoms. Her tulle veil in cap effect will be crowned with orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet will consist of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Mary S. Holmes will be maid of honor for her sister, wearing a blue and white. The bridesmaids will wear lace overdress and carry a sheaf of pink roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth Carnahan Paxon and Miss Elizabeth Holt, both of Paxtang, Pa., will wear frocks of pink crepe meter and carry straw hat baskets of pink rambler roses with bow and streamers of pink ribbon. The best man will be James Arthur Rose of Lehigh, and the ushers are Matthew R. Rutherford and Raymond M. Holmes. Following an extended wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford will spend the summer at Paxtang. The bride, a graduate of the Central High and West Chester Normal schools, has been teaching for a year at the Melrose school. Mr. Rutherford, a Lehigh alumnus and Phi Delta Theta fraternity man, is connected with the plant department of the Bell Telephone Company. Among the out-of-town guests who will attend the festivities are Mrs. S. B. Holmes and Mrs. Charles B. Collier, of Lansdowne; Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Squires, of Cleveland, Ohio; James A. Rose, of Lehigh, and Harry Leonard Holmes, Jr., of Canton, Ohio. Mrs. Sarah Williams and Mrs. Tillie Shriner, Sunbury, were guests of honor at a lawn party given by Mr. and Mrs. Potteiger of 1740 North Sixth street. Japanese lanterns, gay festoons and rambler roses for the decorations; there was music by Miss Kathryn Spangler and Mrs. George Williams preceding refreshments. In attendance were the Misses Carrie E. Pyne, Anna Carter, Mabel Potteiger, Burnice Mills, Edna Mills, Bessie McDonald, Rosella Bell, Grace Lehmer, Gertrude Bell, Florence Ziegler, Kathryn Spangler, Myrtle Beck and Norine Lawrence, Maurice Vance, Harry Lowe, Harry McDonald, Frank Potteiger, Howard Potteiger, Merle Pierce, Leroy Potteiger, Harry Kirk, Gilbert Bair, Clarence Sanders, Mrs. Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Potteiger, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. Schriener. Grace Elbert, of Middletown who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Wellington G. Jones, has returned home. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allen are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William McCahan, South Main street, Chambersburg. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stahl, Mrs. M. B. Dummire, of Lewisburg, and Dr. I. T. Andrews and Miss Jessie Andrews of Middletown, motored to Harrisburg yesterday. Fort Washington Park To-night Old and New Dances.

Dernberg is Satisfied With His Work in U. S.

New York, June 24.—An interview with Dr. Bernhard Dernberg, the former German colonial secretary, published by the Tribune to-day, was obtained here, that paper says, on June 21 under the stipulation that it should not be printed until Dr. Dernberg's arrival in Berlin. The Tribune quotes Dr. Dernberg as saying that his mission in the United States, though curtailed, was successful. "The great American public has been given a clearer and better understanding of the German cause and the German aims of this war," he added. "I have succeeded in presenting to the great intelligent body of Americans the basic facts of this war as Germany sees them and upon which her gigantic struggle is based; the main object of my mission will have been accomplished."

Submarine Attacks Warship

Berlin, June 24 (by wireless to Sayville).—Official announcement was made here to-day that a German submarine had attacked on Sunday, June 20, a British armored cruiser, apparently of the Minotaur class, at a point about 100 miles from the Firth of Forth, Scotland. The cruiser was hit by a torpedo, but the effect of the attack could not be ascertained by the crew of the submarine.

Final Fight

London, June 24.—The Times militant correspondents discuss the ammunition question from the point of view that neither Great Britain nor Russia has been able to put its full strength into the field and for identical reasons and says that, owing to this cause, it may be necessary to postpone until next Spring the final fight with the Teutonic powers.

Russians Put Up Strong Fight

Berlin, June 24.—Details of the taking of Lemberg, while meager, show that the Russian troops put up a strong resistance to the very last and this in spite of the fact that their situation was hopeless.

Indoor Life Makes Fat

People who are confined within doors and who are deprived of fresh, invigorating air and exercise must take precaution to guard against overweight, as fat acquired by indoor life is unhealthy and a danger to the vital organs of the body. Lack of exercise in the fresh air weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, so that it is unable to produce strong muscles and vitality and the formation of unsightly and unhealthy fat is the result.
