

ARREST OF HUERTA ON MEXICAN BORDER CRIMPS REVOLUTION

Former Dictator Held on Charges of "Violating American Neutrality"

HEARING SET FOR JULY 1 Inside Details of Latest Plot Begin Tricking Out Today

By Associated Press El Paso, Texas, June 28.—The arrest of Generals Victoriano Huerta and Pascual Orozco here last night on charges of violating the neutrality laws of the United States by attempting to set on foot an armed expedition...

It has forced the abandonment, temporarily at least, of government officials believe, of any movement to launch a new revolutionary movement in Mexico. Inside details of the plot to restore a Huerta regime in Mexico, nipped in the bud by the United States, began trickling out to-day through the net of official secrecy...

Other Mexicans, nearly a score of whom were in the plot that failed, and some Americans are under surveillance. Conferences were held to-day between District Attorney Warren and others to sift to the bottom the leaders of the new revolution...

Official information disclosed that weeks ago Huerta, in apparent solicitation at his country home on Long Island, offered his services to General Iturbide, one of the exile colonies in New York, and at the same time sent an emissary to Washington to ask if he would be persona grata to this government...

Immediately thereafter the official advice here says Huerta renewed his offer, with a modified proposal that Iturbide accept Huerta's aid without Huerta's leadership...

In view of this, the officials are puzzled to know what part Huerta was to take in Mexican affairs. Maintain Junta

It is known that for weeks a party of prominent Mexicans, Huertistas and Cletificos, have been maintaining an acute junta in El Paso, in constant communication with Huerta and other members of the exile colony in New York, and maintaining among themselves the form of a provisional government...

Huerta was released on $15,000 and Orozco was given his liberty under a bond of half that sum. It is understood that adherents of the former...

WILL MRS. THAW GO ON THE STAND AGAINST HUSBAND?

She Is Said to Be Near Nervous Breakdown From Fear of Husband's Release

FEARS HE WILL KILL HER

EVELYN NESBIT THAW

New York, June 28.—Subpenas were sent to-day by Mr. Cook to Chateaugay Lake, near Laone, N. Y., to be served upon Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw to testify in the case of Harry K. Thaw.

Conflicting reports as to whether Mrs. Thaw's willingness or unwillingness to testify were received, one of them stated that she would not under any circumstances be a witness.

Mr. Cook wants Mrs. Thaw to repeat to the jury the evidence she gave in the proceedings in White Plains in 1909 when she told of visiting Thaw at Matteawan and quoted him as saying: "When I get out of this place I suppose I shall have to kill you."

Upper Chateaugay Lake, N. Y., June 27.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, for whom State process servers have been searching vainly more than a fortnight, was found to-day at a camp in the heart of the North Woods. She is close to a nervous breakdown, brought on by overwork and the fear that Harry K. Thaw may be liberated as a result of the proceedings now being held in New York.
