U. M. W. OF A. RESENT NEARING DISMISSAL

Williamstown Local Passes Resolution Condemning Action of U. of P. Trustees

Special to The Telegraph. Williamstown, Pa., June 29.—At a regular meeting of Local Union No. 1560, United Mine Workers of America, of Williamstown, Pa., the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Having heard with surprised indignation of the autocratic and an un-American action of the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, who, ignoring the recommendations of the faculty, summarily dismissed Prof. Scott Nearing from the position he so ably filled, evidently because he dared exercise the right of free speech, was unalterably opposed to child labor and manfully assisted the toilers against the real breeders of anarchy, who deserve severe condemnation for their subservience to corporate powers, and prove their absolute unfitness for the honorable position they disgraced; therefore, be it

Glad to Recommend Fruitola and Traxo

Mrs. Norforth Says She Suffered with Gall-stones for Several Years Without Relief

MRS. ROSA NORFORTH

In a letter to the Pinus laboratories, Mrs. Rosa Norforth, Monticello, Ill., says: "I cannot praise Fruitola and Traxo too highly as I consider it saved my life. I suffered with gall-stones for several years and could not get any relief until your preparation was recommended to me. It has been six months since I took the last bottle and I feel that I am entirely well. Have anyone doubting the merit of your preparation write me as I will be only too glad to recommend Fruitola and Traxo to anyone suffering from gall-stones."

The system that has become run down and weakened through the suffering incident to the derangement of the digestive organs. In the files of the Pinus laboratories at Monticello, Ill., are many letters gratefully acknowledging the satisfactory results following the use of Fruitola and Traxo. Arrangements have been made for the distribution of these excellent remedies by leading drug stores everywhere. In Harrisburg, Fruitola and Traxo can be obtained from Gorgas, the druggist, 16 North Third street and P. R. R. Station.

WITMER FAMILY REUNION AT COLUMBIA

Columbia, Pa., June 29.—A delightful family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Witmer, at which all their children assembled for the first time in a number of years. Added interest was given the event by reason of the fact that it was Mr. Witmer's fiftieth birthday, and as a token of their regard the children presented their father with a fine gold ring, set with a ruby. From left to right, the children are: Chester Witmer, Mrs. Charles Kraft and Irvin Witmer.

mission of Prof. Scott Nearing, and if the trustees cannot give a good reason for their unprecedented presumption, we believe he, the Honorable Governor is justified, and hereby ask him to use his influence in preventing said Institute from receiving any future State aid whatsoever, believing that institutions receiving State appropriation should, under no circumstances, be permitted to throttle free speech, the mightiest weapon of a free people.

Hailstorm Strikes Only Small Area in York County

Dillsburg, Pa., June 29.—A very destructive hail storm passed over a small section of Washington township on Saturday night. The hail of which many were as large as shellbarks fell on an area of about half mile wide and about a mile long, between Bermudian and Red Run church, sufficient to cover the ground more than an inch so that they could be shoveled on piles. The corn and other vegetation was badly damaged, especially the corn was cut to the ground. The most damage was done on the farm of John Harbold, where his entire growing corn crop was destroyed. The hail was preceded by severe thunder and heavy downpour of rain. Outside of the above mentioned area no rain or hail fell.
