Coroner Eckinger is making an investigation. He will hold an inquest at the hospital to-morrow night to determine whether Milleisen's death was the result of negligence.

On June 7 John McCoy, of Harrisburg, was killed by William Marshall, also of this city, during a fight. McCoy's skull was fractured when he was knocked down by Marshall.

McCoy's skull was fractured when he was knocked down by Marshall.

Milleisen, who was sent to the State hospital three months ago for treatment was placed in a room with Emmick. The latter had been an inmate for nearly a year and had frequently violent spells, according to attendants. As is the custom with this class of patients, mits were placed on Emmick's hands and they were fastened to his waist to prevent him from doing any harm. It is said Milleisen also wore mits.

"I Just Killed a Man"

About 9.30 o'clock yesterday morning Enmick walked to Harry Thompson, an attendant, and told him: "I just killed a man in my room." The attendant did not believe Emmick at first, but when the middle of the standard first at the had killed in the standard first standard first but when the standard first standard fir

He found Milleisen in a pool of blood with the back of his head crushed in. Asked how he did it, Emmick remarked:

"It was kill him or he kill me. They have been trying to kill me for some time and I had to kill someone. I butted him up against the wall and his head hit the hinges on the window. When he fell down I tramped on his neck with my foot. I took my foot off and he moved. I thought he was not dead and tramped on his neck again. The I came and told you."

Coroner Eckinger was notified and went to the State hospital at once. The body of Milleisen had not been moved. Emmick was in another room and was brought to the coroner. Asked what he had done, Emmick told his story over again to the coroner. When asked why he did it and how he did it, Emmick showed the coroner how he had butted Milleisen against the wall and tramped on him after the latter fell to the floor. He added: "I had to and tramped on him after the latter fell to the floor. He added: "I had to kill someone. It was in me and had to come out."

The Germans and Austrians are pressing the Russians hard in their retreat through Northeastern Galicia and Southern Russian Poland toward the river Bug.

All the official reports indicate this, the Russians themselves speaking of "desperate German attacks" on rear guard positions, which are declared to have been repulsed.

The energy of the pursuit of the retreating Russian armies is costing the Teutonic forces dear, according to Petrograd statements, which mention "cnormous losses" inflicted in the endea or of the Austro-Germans to throw disorder into the Russian ranks during the withdrawal from the Dneister region north of Halicz.

New Fork, June 30,-Up until a late hour this afternoon no decision had sailed from Portland, Ore., February 9 been reached in the matter of transferring the Newark Club of the International League to Harrisburg.

The meeting adjourned at 2:30 p. m. for luncheon, apparently without having reached a decision. The meeting is to be resumed after luncheon, and indications were that a decision would not be reached before night.

New York, June 30.—Members of the International League are holding a meeting here to-day to act upon the request of the Newark, N. J., baseball club that it be temporarily transferred to Harrisburg, Pa. The invasion of Newark by the Federal League and the consequent slump in gate receipts at the International club's park are said to be the leading reasons for consideration of the proposed transfer.

No baseball league in the country is furnishing any closer or more exciting race than the Internationals. The Newark team is now in fourth place. In yesterday's game Newark defeated Richmond in a twelve-inning contest, score 6 to 4. Seven of the teams are closely bunched. One or more victories means a daily change in the standing. Montreal is ahead of Newark, with a few points to the good. Local boosters are taking care of the entries for the big parade should the opening game be played Friday. Meetings will be held by many amateur teams to-night. Arrangements will be made to have uniformed teams admitted at a reduced price.

Bids for the scorecard and refreshment privileges can be mailed to P. O. Box 308 and in case of the transfer of the club they will be opened and the award made to-morrow at noon. No baseball league in the country is
