

Women AND THEIR INTERESTS

Petty Jealousy One of Worst Common Faults

By ELLA WHEELER WILCOX
(Copyright, 1915, Star Company.)
Whatever your profession or occupation, cultivate a spirit large enough to make room for others in your same line of endeavor. Nothing is so befitting to the human mind as petty jealousy. You will resent the inference, of course, that you can be guilty of petty jealousy. You will think your tendency of criticism of others is merely the power to "discriminate," and that the ridicule you heap upon your compatriots and competitors arises from a "keen sense of humor."

But when your competitors turn these same weapons upon you the situation seems altered. You call it jealousy and petty carping criticism. If you are a poet, an author, an artist or a musician or an actor, look for things to praise in those who are striving for the same goals which you are seeking.

So surely as you cultivate this quality of seeking for the good and the admirable in others, so surely will the good and the admirable develop in your own nature. Your work will improve, your capabilities increase. Generosity in thought brings nobility in judgment from the world at large.

Mean, paltry, petty thoughts and impulses create a corresponding condition in one's work. So, even from a selfish standpoint, it pays to be big and broad and generous minded. It does not matter if those whose work you appreciate and praise repay you with criticism and ridicule. Others will repay you in your own pure gold coin as you pass along.

Nothing matters in this life so much as the weeding out of everything mean and the developing of everything noble and great. So surely as you reach this consciousness and proceed along this mental course you will be assisted by the Invisible Helpers and given new power to achieve.

It is not expected that you should find everything in the work of your rivals admirable and worthy of encomiums. In all human endeavor we find good, better and best; poor, bad and worst work. But you can pass lightly over the latter trio, pausing only to encourage the toilers to better endeavor or to turn their attention to other employment, wherein there is greater hope of their succeeding; and you can give the force of your thought to the good, better and best.

If in your secret soul you know that they are better than your own efforts, you will lose nothing by your open confession of the fact, and by that confession you will mount a stairway which leads you to a large outlook where greater forces will come to your assistance and help you to higher attainments.

If you are a mother, teach your children to look for some good thing in everyone they meet, and for some happy event in every day, and to speak of these things before they sleep.

There is no greater kindness you can show your offspring than to train them in this mental habit.

Begin when they are first able to talk, and keep at the effort until they are firmly established in the happy method of finding life a picture book with a bright spot on every page.

Even your grown-up children may be directed in this manner. Instead of complaining about your life, or your inability to do what you wish for them, begin to talk of your blessings and of their blessings.

When they are inclined to find fault with destiny, try to divert their minds with some amusing incident until you see the worst possible surroundings and that it is a great blessing to be able to laugh.

It is a wonderful thought, this mighty influence of a mother. The persistent belief of a mother in the ability of her child to accomplish great things has helped many a poor man and woman to overcome the worst possible surroundings and to rise above seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

God, the Great Designer, leaves His mighty influence of a mother. The persistent belief of a mother in the ability of her child to accomplish great things has helped many a poor man and woman to overcome the worst possible surroundings and to rise above seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

Men Fight On Their Stomachs.

Napoleon so said. A man with a weak stomach is pretty sure to be a poor fighter. It is difficult—almost impossible—for anyone, man or woman, if digestion is poor, to succeed in business or socially—or to enjoy life.

Milvale, Pa.—"Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a familiar name to me. I had stomach trouble and was run-down—had both liver and stomach trouble. Nothing helped me until I used 'Golden Medical Discovery.' It came as a great blessing because I had been given up by the doctors. This remedy put me on my feet and kept me that way to enjoy life."

"I have done my work from the time I used 'Golden Medical Discovery.'"—Mrs. ELLIS SHIRMAN, 200 Sample St.

HERE IS ANOTHER FROM

Milvale, Pa.—"One spring I suffered with stomach trouble and my family physician could not help me. I saw Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery at the drug store and I secured and used one bottle. I found it relieved my trouble so that I needed no other treatment."—Mrs. J. W. BRITSON.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery helps weak stomachs to strong, healthy action—helps them to digest the food that makes the good, rich, red blood which nourishes the entire body.

This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—cleans the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigor and health. In tablet, or liquid form.

QUESTIONS OF SEX?—Are fully and properly answered in "The People's Companion," a Medical Adviser.

All the questions of a young woman, wife or mother should have, is contained in Home Doctor Book, 1008 engravings and color plates, in cloth. By mail prepaid, $3.00. Address Dr. J. C. Rorer, Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Ridgeway, Pa., Camp Fire Girls Want to Tent on McComick's

McCormick's island as a camping place for girls is doing its share to keep Harrisburg very much on the map. Frinstance:

City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, superintendent of parks and public property, to-day got a request from the Camp Fire Girls' club of Ridgeway, Pa., asking whether or not accommodations could be provided for them at the McCormick's island camp, whether they would be permitted to take advantage of the city camping place, the charges and the time which might be allowed to occupy it. The secretary stated in her letter to Mr. Taylor that she had heard of the McCormick's island camp as an ideal spot for a girls' camp.

Commissioner Taylor said that if the girls wish to come a place will be provided for them in the picnic grove at the upper end of the island.

AMBULANCES IN HOSPITAL

Convalescent patients at the City hospitals, or sick patients who must be transported to that institution will be compelled to wait an indefinite time before they can be moved, or else ride in some other vehicle until both the old and new ambulances of the city are being repaired. Until one of the machines is in working order the automobile of E. C. Ensminger will be used by the police department as a patrol wagon.

LIT "THUNDERBOLT"—FORGOT IT

A firecracker accident occurred last evening when Clarence Pittinger, a messenger boy, lighted a firecracker of the "thunderbolt" type, held it in his hand—and then forgot about it until it exploded. A physician dressed his wounded hand.

CITY ONE OF BEST DEVELOPED IN COUNTRY, SAYS SPEAKER

"Next to Seattle, Washington, you have in Harrisburg one of the finest systems of city development I have ever seen in this country—and it is my business to see most of the things of importance in the country."

That was the keynote of the flowing words of praise that Edward F. Trefz, of Chicago, field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, sounded in his address yesterday before the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Trefz discussed Harrisburg's natural beauties awhile and urged the citizens to boost their city by talking and writing about it.
