MEXICO'S RULER FOR 30 YEARS IS DEAD

was weakened by a severe attack of grip last year. This illness also left the aged exile almost blind. Nevertheless, he was accustomed to walk out daily during the past spring in the Bois de Boulogne, which he loved because it resembled the Chiapultepec in Mexico City.

General Dias lived here in the greatest simplicity, occupying a modest apartment, in striking contrast to the great houses and retinue of servants maintained by some of his friends, who left Mexico with him.

No decision has yet been made concerning the final disposition of the body or the date of the funeral.

The revolution led by General Francisco I. Madero, Jr., had brought about the aged President's reported pledge early in 1911 to resign his office in a bargain for peace, but on May 24, the day on which the resignation was expected, it was not forthcoming. Riots occurred that day in Mexico City, during which many persons were killed. The National Palace was stoned by mobs shouting "Viva Madero!" and demanding to know why Diaz did not resign. The next day he read his letter of resignation to the Chamber of Deputies. A large majority voted aye; the other legislators rose and bowed their affirmation as their names were called.

Ruled for 30 Years

The Minister of Foreign Affairs,
Francisco Leon de la Barra, was immediately chosen Provisional President and Diaz, of whom for 30 years all Mexico had stood in awe, left the capital, secretly, the next day, to embark at Vera Cruz for Europe. Since then he had lived virtually an exile in Paris and other European cities, a silent observer of still more troublesome times in the land he had long ruled.

PORFIRIO DIAZ

was ill at Biarritz, France, but was reported to have recovered. He had consistently declined to comment on the passing phases of the Mexican situation.

General Diaz began to fail rapidly about three weeks ago.

None of Big Friends at Side

Two tragic circumstances marked the death of the exiled ruler. Owing to the troubled state in Mexico, it has been judged impossible to send the body home with all that ceremony which would have befitted one of the greatest figures in Mexican history, and further, Colonel Porfirio Diaz, Jahas tried in vain to inform his sisters. Senora Ignaclo de La Torre and Senora Rincon Gallardo, who are now in Mexico, of the death of their father.

Not less tragic, perhaps, is the fact that not one of those whom General Diaz raised up to be his assistants in governing Mexico and who prospered and grew rich in the shadow of his greatness, was with him when he died.

Almost Blind

The end seems to have been brought about by failure of the heart, which states for the Middle District of Pennsylvania — In Bankruptcy, No. 2910 — In the Matter of Malcolm H. Gettys, Bankrupt.

QUALITY OF MILK SOLD IN CITY TAKES BIG SLUMP AS RESULT OF HOT WEATHER

Health Officer Raunick Belie es Dairymen Fail to Properly Cool It Immediately After Milking. Bacteria and Colon Run Unusually High

A falling off in the quality of milk served in the city during June is causing the Health Department some anxiety. Bacteria and colon appeared in great numbers in a majority of the samples tested by City Bacteriologist, Dr. G. R. Moriit.

In a few instances samples tested unusually good. The slump from the high average established in May is blamed on the warmer weather. "With the arrival of warmer weather," said Dr. J. M. J. Raunick, "we warned dairymen of the importance of placing their milk in a cool place immediately after milking. A great many evidently ignored this notice and as a result the quality last month dropped below that of May. We believe the quality will reach the high water mark this month and stay there in all succeeding months as a result of the activities of the 'milk campaign party.'"

A State street dealer has been given ten days by the milk party to improve conditions at his place of business and raise the standard of his milk. If he does not conform to regulations his license will be revoked.
