To grow rapidly and develop into profitable early layers, pullets must be provided with shade during the summer months. Mature birds, moreover, will not do their best if they are exposed to the heat. In this article Mr. Boyer tells how to provide shade for poultry.

Build With Concrete—the Fireproof Way

Good concrete lasts practically forever, and grows harder and stronger with age. Concrete walls stand when others crumble before the flames. In building for permanence, consider the advantages of saving on repairs, painting and insurance by using concrete, made with

ALPHA THE GUARANTEED PORTLAND CEMENT

We recommend ALPHA in preference to ordinary Portland Cements because we know that ALPHA can always be depended upon. Our customers prefer ALPHA because they know that it leads in binding power. Every ounce is pure, live and active, thoroughly burned, finely ground and properly aged.

seen the Susquehanna raging torrent which it now is in mid-July. Usually at this time in the summer the stream is down to the lowest ebb and even canoeing is difficult in many places because of the low water while motorboating is practically impossible.

How to Avoid Failure With Poultry

The stumbling blocks to success in poultry raising will be diseased next week by Reese V. Hicks, manager of one of the largest egg farms in the world and former president of the American Poultry Association. Mr. Hicks will tell how to avoid difficulties and will analyze the reasons that have led to most of the failures with poultry. His article will be helpful to amateur and professional poultrymen alike. Look for it exclusively in the Telegraph next Saturday.

Hupmobile Co. Use Vacant Land For Playgrounds

Utilizing unimproved property for the benefit of the children in the neighborhood is the latest innovation of the Detroit automobile manufacturer. A playground for children is the new feature which has been inaugurated by the Hupp Motor Company, and it has always become so popular that it is filled every day to capacity although it was first opened only last Saturday.
