

FRESH SPORT NEWS---OLD RELIABLE JOE CHABEK LANDS ANOTHER VICTORY

INDIAN CHABEK IS AGAIN BIG WINNER

President John K. Tener Watches Game Between Hand Shakes; Pitchers Are Liberal

President John K. Tener of the National League stirred up baseball enthusiasm at Island Park yesterday.

The Indians won from the Hustlers, score 6 to 2. The result was telephoned to President Tener at the Harrisburg club, and he expressed much pleasure over Harrisburg's victory.

The score, needless to say, added to the joy on the part of the large crowd.

Joe Chabek, the same old Joe, was the winner. It was his fifth straight victory.

Herche started for Rochester. He went wild early in the fifth. In six, another German, took the mound.

An error by Mowse with a stolen base, and Korea's triple, brought the first run for the Hustlers.

Free trips to first base for Mensor and Tooley's single with Kraft's triple started Harrisburg with three.

Palmero was liberal with bases in the eighth. Mowse and Tooley walked. Callahan sacrificed. Kraft walked and Witter singled, scoring two runs.

Kraft scored on an error by Priest at second. The score:

HARRISBURG'S POPULAR MANAGER

Edward Desmond Zimmerman, that's a kind of high sounding name for our own Eddie Zimmerman, manager and sterling third sacker of the Harrisburg International League Baseball team, but then nothing is too good for the little hustler.

Zimmerman, whom Harrisburg claims almost as its own because he played with the Senators of the Tri-State for two years, back in 1910 and 1911, has felt merited the advancement which has made him manager of a club that is right on the heels of the major league organizations of the country.

Stromboli Wins Handicap; Narrow Escape For Jockeys

Special to The Telegraph. New York, July 15.—Stromboli's Sensational Suburban may be the title by which the spectacular race won yesterday by August Belmont's 4-year-old son of Fair Play—St. Frisella will be known in the history of the American turf.

There can be no questioning the merits of the winner or his courage in a trying test of speed between the best thoroughbreds of the East, but the strong arm work of his rider, Turner, marred what promised to be the best race of the season by eliminating several of the prominent contenders.

As a direct result of the jam on the turn, for which Turner was adjudged responsible by many of the spectators, the brilliant 3-year-old Norse King was injured so badly that he had to be shot; Tartar, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, was out badly and Top Hat, a stable companion of the winner, was hurled to the track with the injured horses.

The lives of three jockeys were imperiled, but all had remarkable escapes. All this happened in the short space of 2 minutes 52.2 seconds, which it took to run the twenty-ninth Suburban Handicap and which by courtesy of the Coney Island Jockey Club was on the program on the opening day of the Empire City Jockey Club.

NO-HIT GAME FOR FORMER MAJOR STAR

Oeschger Blanks Toronto in Game With Providence; One Man Reaches First

Special to The Telegraph. Providence, R. I., July 15.—Joe Oeschger, the former Philadelphia National League pitcher, who was obtained from Manager Moran on an optional agreement, pitched a no-hit no-run game for Providence against Toronto in the International League series yesterday.

Rain fell intermittently throughout the closing innings, making the performance all the more remarkable. Providence won by only one run and Oeschger faced that tally. Only 27 batsmen faced him, and only one man reached first, Laque, the Cuban, drawing the only pass in the ninth inning.

Laque was out on an attempted steal. Montreal trimmed Jersey City, score 2 to 1. Crutcher was hit for two hits in the first and last innings.

Buffalo won two games from Richmond, scores 5 to 4, 12 to 9. Both contests were featured by hard hitting.

The scores follow: At Jersey City: R. H. E. Montreal 10 0 0 0 0 0 1-2 8 0 Jersey City 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-1 5 1 Fullerton and Madden; Crutcher and Tressor.

A HARD PLACE FOR WOMEN

Mrs. Jean T. Zimmerman, superintendent of the Chicago Woman's Shelter, reports that during the past year she has given lodging or shelter, or both, to 22,556 homeless and destitute women and children.

The plight of the out-of-work woman in the great city—the woman without food, shelter, or friends—is the most desperate thing in the world. The fact that more than twenty thousand of them can be in this condition in a single year in one city, is enough to make any farm girl think twice before venturing to leave her sheltered home—Farm Life.

MRS. CATHERINE TAGGART

Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Taggart, aged 59, 1532 North Fourth street, were held this morning at 10 o'clock from the funeral chapel of Undertaker C. H. Mauk, Sixth and Keiker streets. Burial was made in the East Harrisburg cemetery.

JITNEY MEN WANT INFORMATION BUREAU

Members of the Jitney Club of Harrisburg at a meeting this evening will discuss the possibility of establishing a central telephone information bureau.

Ed F. Easley, president, for some time has been endeavoring to work up sentiment for an office with an attendant to answer phone calls and pass them in turn to members of the club.

Scores of Harrisburg Ball "Pool" Players Lose Good Money

Harrisburg baseball pool players are sore. The passing out of the American Pastime Review, a Wilkes-Barre "sport" sheet, yesterday has several thousand fans on edge.

This paper backed the largest baseball pool in the United States. At least $1,000 went from Harrisburg each week to the Wilkes-Barre publishers.

The pool was played by old and young. It cost twenty-five cents each week for the paper, in return information was given regarding high and low scores. Four thousand dollars was distributed each week in prizes.

When the United States Government authorities landed in Wilkes-Barre yesterday the publishers had fled, and are still in hiding.

HITS BETWEEN INNINGS

The Hustlers had a new man in their line-up, W. Zimmerman, no kin of Eddie's, came over from Brooklyn. He played left field and was idle all afternoon.

The heat affected the Rochester twirlers. They had aerial trips in interludes that put the Hustlers out of the running.

Joe Chabek crawled out of a big hole yesterday. It was in the eighth when he walked two hits. Three were on bases with one out. No runner scored. Chabek was a factor in the fielding that saved his bacon.

If Kraft keeps on stretching his bingles, that sign board will have to be moved nearer the bridge.

The sport writers over the circuit have an opinion that long hits in Harrisburg are due to a fence, and that the field is short. They will get a different idea when the teams get back home.

Tooley and Mowse were pulling off circus stunts in every inning. It is habit with them.

Harrisburg's infield works like a clock. This quartet goes after everything, and they get many chances that seem almost impossible.

Smith was the first visiting pinch hitter who was able to hit out a bingle when bases were occupied.

TRYING TO START SOMETHING

John Findlay of "The Only Girl" fame, admits that he is the latest victim of a standing joke at a well-known motor club.

"See that man in the corner?" asked his companion. "That's White, a new member. He's not very popular here."

"Why not?" Mr. Findlay is popular, so he can't understand why everybody isn't.

"Oh, he always trying to start something." "I see. Quarrelsome disposition, eh?"

"No, not at all. He owns a motorcycle."—August Young's Magazine.

DE REMAINS

"The Girl He Left Behind Him," is the heroine of an anecdote by Frances Pritchard, fair dancer in the "Passing Show of 1915."

A negro died without medical attendance, and the coroner went to investigate.

"Did Samuel Williams live here?" he asked the weeping woman who answered the door.

"Yussah," she replied between sobs. "May I see the remains?" asked the coroner.

"I is de remains," she answered proudly.—August Young's Magazine.

REAL MAJOR LEAGUE TEAM TOMORROW

Toronto Lineup Includes Stars Who Were in World's Series Last Season; Newsboys' Day

With a real Major League outfield, two members of which played with the Boston World's Champions in the series against the Athletics last Fall, the Toronto club under the leadership of Billy Clymer, will start a two-day series at Island Park to-morrow, with a double-header and another on Saturday afternoon.

The Toronto team comes to Harrisburg with what might, in any other league but the International, be called a "loaded" team. The Maple Leafs have just secured Freddy Cather and Gilbert, two outfielders from Manager Stallings of the Boston Braves and another outfielder, Pete Daly, from the New York Americans.

Real Major Leaguers. Harrisburg will have an opportunity to see a real major league club in the Toronto aggregation whose leader is determined to make a fight for the international pennant.

Maurice Rath, the former Lancaster Tri-State team and later with the Chicago Red Sox covering third base while Wares was at the international pennant, is at second base and Graham, who led the Canadian League last season is on first base.

Shortstop is covered by the veteran Neal Ball, who will be remembered for his triple play unassisted when he played with the Cleveland club several years ago. Williams and Hollander of the St. Louis Nationals were the old outfielders with the Maple Leafs. Hollander is a York boy.

Kelley is Backstop. The catching department consists of Kelley late of the Pittsburgh Nationals and Koehner, the former Detroit American catcher. Kelley is a battery mate of Marty O'Toole and was purchased by Pittsburgh for $22,500. The pitchers include, Loque, a Cuban, Corceham and McGuire, all the property of the Boston Nationals and Cook, a former New York Giant and Walter Manning the former Allentown twirler who has been doing fine work in the International League this season.

The Indians are working to crawl up on Buffalo and Providence in the hope that the five game series with Providence in three days next week will bring them in a position to take the league lead from Providence by winning a majority of the games of the home series with the Champions.

The double-headers to-morrow and Saturday will start at the usual time, 2 o'clock. To-morrow will also be newsboys' day.

DR. McALISTER TO ADDRESS CONVENTION
