LOGAN-SCOTT BRIDAL IN CHURCH AT NOON

Attractive Young Bride Will Make Her Home in Richmond, Indiana

Miss Jane Scott, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Scott, of this city, and George Lynwood Logan, of Richmond, Ind., were quietly married at noon today in Grace Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox in the presence of the immediate families and a few personal friends.

The bride wore a traveling suit of seal brown broadcloth with fur trimmings and hat to harmonize. Her corsage bouquet was of midget roses and fern. There were no attendants.

A wedding breakfast followed the service, served at the bride's home, 1519 North Second street. The appointments were of pink and white with a table centerpiece of roses and mignonette.

Following a western wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Logan will reside at Richmond, Ind., where Mr. Logan, a graduate of the Barrington schools and the Froebel Kindergarten training school and has had a kindergarten of her own for two years. Among the prenuptial events in her honor was a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Frances Corbett last week.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS ENJOYING AN OUTING

Club of Covenant Presbyterian Church in Camp at Iroquois Along the Juniata

The Susquehanna Camp Fire, the local organization of the Camp Fire Girls of America, connected with the Covenant Presbyterian Church, is in camp at Iroquois, twenty miles above Harrisburg on the Juniata. The camp is delightfully situated at the foot of the mountains with a fine spring of running water on the grounds. Across the river the busy trains pass with their never-ceasing burden of passengers and freight, but on the north bank of the river the girls are in the heart of God's country, and as free in the enjoyment of nature as were their pioneer fathers years ago.

The camp is under the direction of the Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Klier, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Klier is assisted by Miss Blanche Paul.

The girls are divided into four committees and all of the work of the camp is done by them; the cooking by the girls under the supervision of Mrs. Edna Caffie, at 10 in the morning and at 3 in the afternoon the camp goes swimming, and every girl is expected to go into the water at least once every day. Many of them take advantage of both periods. The swimming is under the direct supervision of Mr. Klier. The time each day is fully occupied with the work of the camp, with boating and swimming, nature study, hiking and mountain climbing. At odd intervals instruction is given in rifle work. Every day closes with the camp fire, about which all the girls gather for an hour of singing, folk dancing and merriment, the evening closing with the prayer service, conducted by Mr. Klier.

Each day's "Camp Fire Giggler," a daily bulletin of camp notes, makes its appearance and much ability has been shown in its production, the cartoons of camp life being especially clever. Twice during the camp the official camp fire ceremonial meetings are held. At these times the girls will appear in the uniform, beads and honors will be awarded for attainments made and the official record of the camp events read.

To Overcome Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Wrinkles

If your skin is unduly reddened, freckled or tanned, dab a liberal amount of ordinary mercolized wax on the face and allow it to remain overnight. When you wash off the wax in the morning, fine flaky, almost invisible particles of cuticle come with it. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually, there's not the slightest hurt or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles are affected. The underlying skin which forms the new complexion is so fresh and youthful-looking, you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing known to actually discard an aged, faded, muddied or blotchy complexion. One ounce of mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store, is sufficient in most cases.

If sun and wind make you squint and frown, you're bound to cultivate wrinkles and crow's feet. To overcome these quickly, bathe the face in a solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saccolite in a half pint witch hazel.—Advertisement.
