COMISKEY KICKS ON JOHNSON'S UMPIRES

Claims White Sox Lose Games Through Rank Decisions; American Leader Denies Charges

Chicago, Ill., July 22.—President Comiskey, of the Chicago American League Baseball Club, late last night filed a protest with President Johnson, of the American League, against alleged ill-treatment of his team by the umpires.

"Poor umpiring has cost my club seven or eight games this year," said Comiskey. "It looks to me as though Manager Rowland is being made a mark. Umpires have called balks on my pitchers in Detroit, but failed to do so when they made the same motions in St. Louis; they beat us out of a clean triple play when we were in Boston; last Monday, Mayer was hit by a pitched ball, but was not allowed to go to first base because the umpire said he allowed himself intentionally to be hit."

The chasing of Rowland was senseless, he went on to protest, as he had a right to do, and as he would expect him to do, he did not expect him to swear until after he had been thrown out of the game.

"I expect to protest against the suspension and try to get a square deal for my team," he said.

President Johnson, of the American League, when asked whether he had received the protest from President Comiskey, of the Chicago White Sox, in regard to the poor umpiring in the league, said he had no comment to make at this time. He said, however, that the American League umpires needed no defense, that their work this year had been entirely satisfactory.

'Rabbit' Mensor Owns Farm; Is Also Star in Left Garden

Edward F. Mensor, known by Hans Wagner and other celebrated players of the Pittsburgh Nationals as "Rabbit" Mensor, and by Harrisburg baseball fans as the sterling little left fielder of the Indians, comes from far-off Oregon.

Mensor was born at Woodville, Ore., in 1889 and now lives on his own farm at Buena Vista, about forty miles from Portland. Mensor is a very likable chap and while small in stature his batting has always been a big feature of his play on the diamond. Mensor started to play professional baseball in 1909 with the San Jose club of the California State League. In 1910 he was with the Portland club of the Pacific Coast League, and remained with Portland until July 2, 1912, when he was purchased by the Pittsburgh Nationals.

During the remainder of the 1912 season and in 1913 and 1914 Mensor played in center field for the Pirates. This season he was sent to the Columbus club of the American Association and was later traded to Newark for Pitcher Curtis, whom the Columbus management wanted very badly.

Mensor has been laboring under a severe handicap in the games he has played here, as he was injured at Providence just before the club came to this city. In sliding into a base he made a quick turn and wrenched the ligaments of his left leg and the injury has been keeping him back in his work. But Mensor has the fighting spirit that is showing in all of the Indians and no harder worker can be looked for than the little fellow proposes to be during the remainder of the season. Just let him get right and then watch that old pill fly out from his great big bat.

At the close of the season Mr. and Mrs. Mensor will hurry back to the Pacific Coast and take up the work on the handsome big farm near Portland.

Batteries for the Elks were Miller, Weber, Sourber and Gardner. Post Office, Taylor, Coover and Kurtz.

INDIANS CLEAN UP RICHMOND SERIES

Cottrell Was Wild; Zimmy's Bunch Never in Danger; Goodbred Had Everything

Frank Goodbred fell into a winning stride yesterday. He won his game for the Indians, score 3 to 0. It was the fourth straight for Harrisburg in the series with the Climbers.

The locals saved much of their energy. Providence will be here for the balance of the week for four games, starting to-day. Cottrell was wild. The Indians simply trailed along, giving Goodbred faultless backing, hitting the ball just hard enough to keep in the lead. Jack Dunn, Jr., son of the Climber's manager, got back into the game and covered right field in good form.

Fast fielding featured Harrisburg's work. Two double plays from the outfield were brilliant efforts. The Indians were never in danger.

Singles by Mensor and Mowe, Tooley's double, an error by Bates and Kraft's sacrifice, figured in Harrisburg's two runs in the first. Singles by Zimmerman, Heckinger and Mensor brought the third. The score:
