Dealings Were in Relative Small Volume; B. & O. Makes Progress

By Associated Press

New York, July 23.—Further restraint was shown by the war shares at the opening of to-day's market, although overnight gains of 1 to 2 points in that group were more or less general. Dealings were in relatively small volume, however, with an absence of the extensive overturns of recent sessions. In point of fact, the movement in the railways was more interesting and significant. St. Paul declined 1½ to 78, its minimum quotation since 1898. Missouri Pacific at 2½ made a new low record and the Harrimans and Canadian Pacific continued under pressure. Baltimore and Ohio made further upward progress as a result of its very favorable June earnings. New York, July 23.-Further

Latest American Note Delivered in Berlin

Washington, July 23.—With the de-livery to-day by Ambassador Gerard to the Foreign office in Berlin of the new American note warning Germany that the loss of American lives through that the loss of American lives through further violations of the neutral rights would be regarded as "unfriendly," the United States rests its case for the present at least. The note will be given out here late to-day for publication to-morrow morning.

Officials of the Washington government turned expectantly toward Berlin for some indication from official quarters there as to the reception of the communication. Until such information is at hand the next diplomatic move of the United States will not be decided.

Waited 4 Years in Vain to Wed; Wants $3,000 Balm

Wed; Wants $5,000 balm

Way back in October, 1911, Andrea Kovachek asked pretty Ani Skojic to marry him. That-was in their native town of Hebinami, Austria. Andrea, a little later came to America and sent for his bride-to-be. The understanding then, according to Ani, was that she was to wed Andrea as soon as she reached this country. To date, however, Andrea has never kept his promise to wed her, she contends, notwithstanding the fact that she is willing and eager to marry him. So she's tired waiting now. And to-day, through her attorney, Robert Stucker, she began an action for breach of promise against Andrea. She wants $3000 heart balm.
