

We Are Now in Our New Building

It is with pleasure that we herewith announce the removal to our new and modern coffee roasting plant at 122 South Cameron street. We have installed all new machinery of the most approved design and consider this plant the most modern in the state, as well as having the greatest roasting capacity of any similar plant. This includes a separate and special equipment for samples of any desired blend.

To those who have made our modern plant possible by patronizing this home industry since its establishment in 1907---to them we owe a debt of gratitude and herewith extend our sincere thanks and appreciation.

ODD FELLOWS TO PICNIC AT PEN-MAR

Better Railroad Facilities This Year; Drill by Washington Rebekahs

The annual gathering of Odd Fellows and their friends, Thursday, August 5, at Pen-Mar Park promises to eclipse not only all reunions scheduled this year, but reports indicate that the number of people that will assemble on the mountain side on that day will surpass all reunions in the history of Pen-Mar. The W. M. F. Co. promises to afford better accommodations than ever before. It is making arrangements for the use of all its available rolling stock and all it can get from connecting roads for the occasion. Special attention will be given the handling of the thousands of people, so that there may be no mistakes and no accidents. The C. V. R. Co. will operate a special train with special rates from Harrisburg and intermediate points, leaving Harrisburg at 7:15 a. m. and arriving at Pen-Mar 10:15 a. m. Returning leave Pen-Mar 6:30 p. m. Rebekah Drill The exhibition drill by the Rebekahs, this year, will be given by the degree staff of Esther Rebekah lodge, No. 5, Washington, D. C. Much enthusiasm is manifested in the capital city toward the reunion this year. This is to a great extent due to the Rebekahs, who, for the first time during these six reunions, have been given the opportunity to show their magnificent floor-work. The degree work always heretofore came from Baltimore or the vicinity thereof. Esther Rebekahs, Washington, D. C., are credited with being one of the most efficient degree teams of the east. Grand Master Wm. H. Hofstetter, Jr., of the jurisdiction of Maryland, will act as the presiding officer during the exercises in the auditorium. Orator of the Day Past Grand Master Wilson K. Mohr, grand lodge, I. O. O. F., of Pennsylvania, also present grand representative to the sovereign grand lodge, will deliver the oration. Wilson K. Mohr, of Allentown, Pa., is one of the most active and highly respected members of the sovereign grand lodge, and in all probability the most prominent Odd Fellow in the State of Pennsylvania.

MISS VANDLING 84 YEARS OLD Special to The Telegraph Mechanicsburg, Pa., July 26.—Miss Elizabeth Vandling, passed her 84th birthday Saturday. How you can get rid of eczema with Resinol

Resinol Ointment, with Resinol Soap, usually stops itching instantly. It quickly and easily heals the most distressing cases of eczema, rash or other tormenting skin or scalp eruption, and clears away pimples, blackheads, redness, roughness and dandruff, even when other treatments have proven useless. Physicians have prescribed the Resinol treatment for 20 years, for most forms of skin troubles, and for sunburn, wounds, chafing, etc. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. For trial free, write to Dept. 12-S, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

BIG MEN TO SPEAK HERE IN AUGUST

Chamber of Commerce Luncheons Growing in Popularity and Importance

Beginning with the third week in August, speakers of national repute will visit Harrisburg weekly under the auspices of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce. During the first half of August Secretary E. L. McColgin will be busy lining up the speakers. "Our Need of an Adequate Navy" will be the subject of an address by Col. John Temple Graves, the noted editor and orator, at a membership luncheon of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, which will take place at 12 o'clock, Thursday, July 29, at the Harrisburg Club. The speaker at Thursday's luncheon will be one of the most brilliant orators and editors in the country. Colonel Graves is now editor in chief of the New York American; but before assuming that position was editor and proprietor of the Atlanta Georgian and a leader in Southern social, business and political affairs. John Temple Graves ranks with Henry W. Grady, another former Atlanta editor, as the most eloquent spokesman for the South. He is a grandson of the eldest brother of John C. Calhoun. The increased attendance at luncheon meetings of the Chamber since the series of addresses by men of national reputation was inaugurated, compels the officers of the Chamber to announce that only residents of Harrisburg who are members of the Chamber can be admitted to the luncheon meetings. Only members who make telephone reservations will be admitted. These restrictions are made necessary because of the size of the banquet room and the policy of the Chamber.

Will Start Work on Pitcher Tablet Soon

Special to The Telegraph Carlisle, Pa., July 26.—The Molly Pitcher Monument Commission, appointed by Governor Brumbaugh at a meeting in Carlisle, has given the contract for Pennsylvania's monument to be erected here to America's first military heroine. The sculptor selected is J. Otto Schweizer of Philadelphia. The figure of Molly Pitcher will be seven feet high and two base reliefs, one depicting the woman buried at Carlisle as nursing wounded on the battlefield at Monmouth and another in the familiar pose of serving cannon in the battle. Two bronze tablets will finish off a granite pedestal and base. The work is to be finished by June 15, 1916. The dedicatory services will be held in Carlisle on Wednesday, June 23, 1916, the anniversary of the battle of Monmouth, at which time it is likely that patriotic organizations and women's clubs from all over America will be represented.

German Press Comments on New American Note

Special to The Telegraph Berlin, July 26.—Commenting on the latest American note, Count von Reventlow, in his organ, the Tages-Zeitung, points out that the key to the note is that the United States will consider submarine attacks on merchant vessels, involving loss of American lives, as an intentionally unfriendly act. "No submarine can ascertain if Americans are aboard ships that it meets. Even if the commandant in exceptional cases were able to put this question to the steersman it would be a matter of course that every captain would declare that Americans were on board. In the whole English merchant marine there would not be one ship that would not carry at least one American citizen."

Gaby Deslys Gives Kiss to Each New Recruit

Special to The Telegraph London, July 26.—Recruiting by cavalry has almost reached fever heat. The latest exposition was at Camberwell Saturday night, when Gaby Deslys, the danseuse, distributed kisses at a Camberwell meeting to every recruit enrolled that night. The greatest excitement and enthusiasm prevailed. One of the new V. C.'s made a speech, calling on all present to join. Then the beautiful Gaby offered to present a photograph of her charming self and give a kiss to every man who enlisted on the spot. Recruits began to tumble over each other on the stage, and the lively little French sally, now looking sunny and debonair, offered her cheek to each valiant defender of his country, as he climbed up the platform.

MARKET FOR HANDKERCHIEFS

The immediate surroundings of the great pier where St. Paul landed are as filthy as any other part of Pozzuoli. Indescribable old hags leer at us from the doorways; ragged and dirty children, wholly unacquainted with the use of a pocket handkerchief, swarm around us. Several small fishing boats are drawn up on the shore, and a little church, called St. Paul's Chapel, stands immediately behind the ancient mole. The modern pier, built over the ancient mole, is a truly magnificent one of solid cut stone, which runs far out into the sweet, clean water, and by going out to the end we get beyond the reach of the importunate tourists. If one can forget the approaches to the pier, he can here enjoy the enchanting scenery of sea and shore, while his mind is stimulated by memories of the mighty past.—The Christian Herald.

WHERE TO FIND NATIONALLY ADVERTISED GOODS The World's Best Merchandise In and Near HARRISBURG, PA. Merchandise that will bear national advertising has to have exceptional merit, else the manufacturer could not afford to spend large sums of money for the advertising, and to attach his name and reputation to an article that was not extraordinarily meritorious, for it is the repeat sales that he depends on. It is therefore quite evident that when an article is nationally advertised and nationally sold, year in and year out, year after year, it is exceptionally good goods to stand the test and prove worthy of continued sales and growth. It is conceded by experts that when an article is advertised generally—nationally—it is the best possible product. The wise always, in consequence, prefer nationally known goods and ask for what they want by name. Read the magazines and keep posted on IF IT'S ON THIS PAGE IT'S WORTH WHILE
