

WORLD-WIDE SPORT NEWS---RECORD ENTRY FOR LOCAL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

LARGE ENTRY LIST IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Play Starts Tomorrow on Reservoir Park Courts--Open Matches First

Unless the weather man should seriously interfere the annual city championship tennis tournament will begin tomorrow on the Reservoir courts.

If the weather be unfavorable the start of the matches will be postponed. Plans for the opening of the tournament were completed last evening by the house committee of the Reservoir tennis club when drawings for the first rounds were made. With the exception of the ladies' doubles perhaps, the list was the largest in several years.

Charles M. Pollock in Charge

The tournament this year will be in charge of Charles M. Pollock, the courtkeeper. The use of the courts for contestants only, the arranging of matches within the time limits and registering of the players, will be arranged for between players and Mr. Pollock. In order to properly arrange the schedule and eliminate as early as possible those players who expect to default, the contestants will be required to report to-morrow between 12 o'clock noon and 6 o'clock in the evening to the courtkeeper. Western Wonder Is Fast Youngster

Here is Daniel Tripple the Indianapolis American Association pitcher for whom Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Captain T. L. Huston, new owners of the Yankees of New York, were reported to have paid $10,000. They do not themselves say they paid that sum, but they did give enough to make it very interesting for the management of the Indianapolis club.

Tripple is twenty-four years of age and six feet tall, weighing 170 pounds. He was born in Rockford, Ill. His first experience as a pitcher was with the Omaha club of the Western League. Indianapolis got him, and this year so far he has won eleven games and lost two, which is a very fine record for a young pitcher.

HERZOG SUSPENDS PITCHERS

Special to The Telegraph

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 27.—Manager Herzog, of the Reds, to-day announced that he has suspended Rube Benton and King Lear, pitchers, without pay until they can get control. The suspensions are the result of the wildness of the hurriers in the double-header at Philadelphia on Saturday. Herzog said he would work the system in every department. The suspension of Lear and Benton reduces the pitching staff to four.

ERICKSON FACTOR IN INDIANS' DEFEAT

Goodbred Has Usual Bad Inning When Rochester Takes Lead; Again in Fourth Place

Special to The Telegraph

Rochester, July 27.—Young Erickson with his speedy in and out shoots was Harrisburg's trouble yesterday. Rochester won, score 4 to 2. Only once did the Indians find Erickson for a series of hits.

With a quintet of hits, scattered through nine innings, the Indians had little chance to get men around the circuit. Goodbred was on the mound for Harrisburg. He lacked control in one inning, when Rochester took the lead. Two games will be played to-day. Yesterday's loss and Montreal's victory over Richmond put Harrisburg back in fourth place. The score:

Pat Reagan, when he was with the Brooklyn National team used to be at the bottom of the list in batting averages. In short Reagan looked like a complete flivver. So he was dropped by the Superbas and picked up by the Boston Braves. Reagan is still in the bingle basement and is making good with a vengeance.

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

Special to The Telegraph

Marietta, Pa., July 27.—Maytown with a population of about 200 inhabitants, just above here, was the scene yesterday of three accidents and Dr. G. A. Harter, the physician, was kept busy, the accidents all occurring within an hour. Miss Lizzie Hoffman fell down a flight of stairs and broke her shoulder blade on the right side, and was removed to the Lancaster hospital; Edward Mayer fell off a swing, breaking his collarbone; Mrs. Frank Albright, fell on the sidewalk and sustained a badly sprained ankle.

PHILLIES AFTER PRIESTER

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 27.—It was stated here this afternoon that Manager Moran might sign Jack Pfister, the old-time twirler, and take him along when the Phillies leave Cincinnati. He said that if he does take Pfister it will be for the purpose of coaching the young twirlers, but some of the wise ones here claim the old fellow will be allowed to take his regular place in the box if his work will warrant. Pfister has been pitching this season for the Branch Hills, a strong semiprofessional team, and his work has been remarkable in that he has pitched nineteen successive victories.

Pat Reagan's Hits Surprise to Many

Pat Reagan, when he was with the Brooklyn National team used to be at the bottom of the list in batting averages. In short Reagan looked like a complete flivver. So he was dropped by the Superbas and picked up by the Boston Braves. Reagan is still in the bingle basement and is making good with a vengeance.

NATIONAL RACE IS KEEPING FANS BUSY

Phillies Lead With Record of Straight Wins--Tail Enders Have Fighting Chance

Special to The Telegraph

New York, July 27.—Both the major league races continue to develop new points of interest but the struggle in the National League is claiming the maximum of attention on the part of baseball fans.

Seldom has the fight for the pennant been so close at this stage of the game in any organization as in the fencer circle of this year. The Boston Braves only two rounds above the bottom of the ladder, for example, are but eighty-three points behind the Philadelphians in first place.

In the intermediate positions Brooklyn, Chicago, Pittsburgh and New York are on fairly even terms.

The prospects of the Cubs seem at this juncture to be about the poorest of any of the lot mentioned, for they have been on the down grade for some time and appear unable to strike a winning gait. Six straight losses dropped them to third position.

The Phillies played their unusual steady game and maintained their advantage. The Brooklynians also gave no signs of wavering and pulled up into second place by capturing five out of seven games. The Boston record for the week--of one game lost out of six--shows that the trend with them is an upward one and that they are yet unreckoned with in the awarding of the season's honors.

Pittsburgh and New York are running neck and neck with the Pirates by no means having the poorer prospects of the two.
