Came to Her Rescue

From her home in Mountain Park, Oklahoma, Mrs. O. A. Strange writes to the Pinus laboratories:

"I am taking Fruitola and Traxo for gall-stones with good results. If it had not been that it came to my rescue, I would have been dead I am sure. I cannot say too much for Fruitola and Traxo."

Fruitola possesses properties that act directly upon the intestinal parts. It is a great systemic cleanser, softening the congested waste and dissolving the hardened particles that cause so much suffering, and quickly expels the accumulation to the intense relief of the patient. Traxo is a tonic alternative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to stimulate and reactivate the general circulation. It serves to build up and strengthen the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Traxo through leading druggists. In Harrisburg they can be obtained at Gorgas, the Druggist, 16 North Third street, and F. R. Station.

3 LOCAL BOYS IN BRITISH REGIMENTS

prospect that his battalion would sail soon for England.

Kline is drilling with a detachment of Scottish Highlanders at Camp Gales near Dundee, Scotland. Recently he wrote that his regiment stands next in line for active service.

Worked His Way Across

This young "Tommy Atkins" weighs less than 100 pounds. Before his departure from the city he did odd jobs, when his health permitted for the Keystone Motor Company at Eleventh and Market streets. Three months ago he worked his way to New York and got a job on a tramp British steamer carrying contraband. The vessel after a long voyage was chased from its course by German submarines and forced to put into Dundee, Scotland instead of Liverpool. There it lay for several weeks until the activities of the Germans in that vicinity ceased. Under cover of a heavy fog it slipped out of the harbor one night and Kline, who was on shore leave, was left behind. Stranded with very little money in his clothes he enlisted in the Highlanders. From the general trend of his letter, friends believe he does not regret his action and is anxiously awaiting active service.

The third Harrisburger fighting for the Crown is Archie Owen, of Paxtang, who has been given a second lieutenantcy for meritorious behavior in the recent battle against the Germans at La Rochelle, France.
