

WOMEN IN CHARGE OF RECRUITING CAMPAIGN

Red Cross Worker Has Persuaded Several Hundred to Enlist Likes the Work

London, July 28. — Mrs. A. E. Henley, a prominent Red Cross worker both at home and at the front since the beginning of the war, has been in charge of the woman's section of the latest recruiting campaign in London, speaking daily at from five to a dozen meetings, although she was invalided home from France only a few weeks ago. She is said to have several hundred recruits to her credit.

Castle Set on Fire by Bombardment Survival of Medieval Times

Rome, July 28. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press) — The castle of Duino, set on fire during the bombardment of Monfalcone, near Trieste, by the Italians, has survived, by a narrow survival of medieval times. Situated on a cliff rising sheer from the sea, it was constructed in the fifteenth century.

Boy Falls Into Barrel of Street Paving Tar

Sunbury, Pa., July 28. — Falling in a barrel of tar, such as is used in street paving, J. H. Delaney, 12 years old, of Sunbury, was in up to his neck when pulled out. His parents say it will take a week's work to get the sticky material off his body.

HUNGER PLEA DIDN'T GO

Waynesboro, Pa., July 28. — Because he was hungry, Frank Weston Lockport, of Cumberland, Md., didn't think he committed any crime in entering the store of Martin Bros. at Wington, near Ringsold, Md., last month, and taking a supply of good things such as bread, meat, cheese, etc.

That was the story that Lockport told to Judge Gillan in the Chambersburg court yesterday, when he pleaded guilty to the charge. There were some things about his story that did not sound right and Judge Gillan sentenced him to the penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than two years.

TWILIGHT PICNIC

Newport, Pa., July 28. — A twilight picnic was held at Bailey station last evening at which the following well-known persons from this place were in attendance: Dr. and Mrs. W. Homer Hoopes, Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Taylor, Mrs. Anson B. Wright, Mrs. Maurice Wolf, the Misses Clementine Frountman, Carrie E. Bosserman, Carrie Diven, Lena May Wright, Miss Abbie Winey, McAllisterville, and Samuel D. Myers, William R. Bosserman, Robert Diven and Ira W. Messinger.

MILLWAY CAMPMEETING OPENS

Marietta, Pa., July 28. — To-day the thirteenth annual campmeeting of the Harrisburg District of the United Evangelical Church opened at Millway and it will continue until August 5. The services will be in charge of Rev. W. F. Hill, presiding elder, assisted by scores of ministers of this denomination from all sections of the State.

NEWPORT UNION SERVICES

Newport, Pa., July 28. — Sunday evening union services held on Marshall field are becoming very popular. The Rev. Dr. Spessard, the new pastor of the Reformed Church of the Incarnation, preached last Sunday to over 700 persons who occupied the grandstand and bleachers. The music at these services are given under the direction of the Rev. William C. Ney pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

CHILD HUNG IN SWING

Pleasant Grove, July 28. — Ira Carroll, aged thirteen months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carroll, was found dead by the mother last evening, having been caught with a rope suspended from a swing. The parents were married less than two years ago and this was their only child.

MUMMA FAMILY REUNION

Marietta, July 28. — The Mumma family of this State, will meet in annual reunion at Bolling Springs Park, near Carlisle, on Wednesday, August 18, and all relatives and friends are invited to attend. The committee in charge will issue no invitations, but will arrange an elaborate program for the entertainment of the guests.

P. O. S. of A. REUNION

Waynesboro, Pa., July 28. — The executive committee of the County Association of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, at their meeting held in Chambersburg, yesterday decided to hold the annual reunion at Red Bridge park, Saturday, September 4.

Goldsmith's For Good Furniture--206 Walnut Street Goldsmith's For Good Furniture--206 Walnut Street Goldsmith's For Good Furniture--206 Walnut Street

SURPRISE SALE OF FINE FURNITURE AT LOW PRICES

TOMORROW begins the most important Sale of Furniture ever held in Harrisburg. It is a money saving affair, which should appeal to every family. You know the quality of furniture Goldsmith's has been selling for thirty years. This same furniture---No Specially Purchased lots, no factory cast-offs, no jobs, but all brand new standard makes will be sold at slashed prices. Come and see for yourself what wonderful bargains you can get.

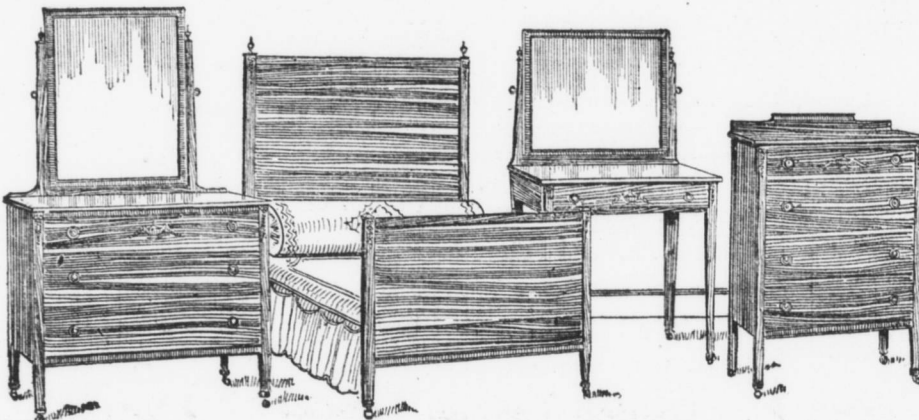

Buy furniture—the kind that will last you a lifetime, the kind that will never wear shabby, the kind that you will always be proud to own—at much less than what you have to pay for inferior furniture.

And You Don't Have to Pay Cash---Suitable Arrangement Will Be Made For a System of Dignified and Liberal Charge Accounts

Here Are a Few Samples of Our Furniture Bargains

This Elegant Mahogany Chair $19.50 REGULAR SELLING PRICE, $30.00. Made of solid mahogany with denim covering. Hand carved. The well-known "Kensington" design.

This Extra Fine Adam Bedroom Suite.. $100.00 Regular Selling Price Is $135.00. A beautiful solid mahogany suite, in antique brown finish — 4 pieces, consisting of dresser, toilet table, chiffonier, and full size bed. Dustproof construction.

This Full Size Willow Chair $2.75 REGULAR SELLING PRICE, $5.00. A fine French willow chair, especially well built. Natural finish. Cushion not included. Not more than one to a customer.

This Beautiful Library Table $22.50 Regular Selling Price, $29.00. Made of solid mahogany, 28"x45", oval top, one drawer; casters.

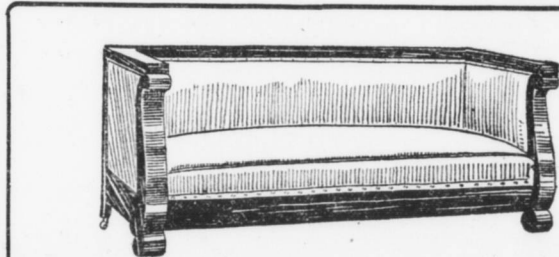

This Solid Mahogany Bureau and Chiffonier

$48.50 REGULAR SELLING PRICE, $60.00. These pieces are of simple Colonial design, in the rich dull finish. Heavy French plate mirrors. The Dresser is 40 inches wide. Choice of wood or brass knobs.

This Artistic Buffet, Solid Mahogany . . . $37.50 REGULAR SELLING PRICE, $50.00. Chippendale design. Has one large linen drawer at top, made to look like three small drawers. Lined silver compartment. 48 inches long with heavy French plate mirror. Chairs and table to match, if desired.

This Colonial Mahogany Davenport $45.00 REGULAR SELLING PRICE, $60.00. A stunning davenport of solid mahogany with denim covering. Well built, beautiful in design and finish. Limited quantity.

Money Refunded For Any Purchase Not Satisfactory

GOLDSMITH'S FOR GOOD FURNITURE Walnut to Locust above Second.

A Small Deposit Will Hold Your Purchase For Fall Delivery

LIGHTNING DESTROYS STACK

Dillsburg, Pa., July 28. — A serious fire was narrowly averted on Monday night on the farm of David Anthony, in Franklin township, tenanted by Charles Baker, when, during the electrical storm which passed over this section of the county, the lightning struck a locust tree at the side of the barnyard against which a straw stack was built several days ago and set the stack on fire, completely destroying it. The stack was but a few feet from the barn, but a wind blowing in the opposite direction and the building being damp from the rain saved the barn.

EBERLY'S MILL PICNIC Eberly's Mills, Pa., July 28. — The annual Sunday school picnic of the Eberly's Mill church will be held at Bolling Springs Park August 26. Final arrangements for the outing have been made by the committees.

SACRED CONCERT BY CHOIR Members of the choir that sang during the evangelistic services last winter in the tabernacle have been practicing under the direction of William A. Sigler and will give a sacred concert at the corner of Keller and Arch street to-morrow evening at 7:30.

There will be about three hundred voices in the chorus.

LEMOYNE MAN BUYS STORE Halifax, Pa., July 28. — Ira B. Zimmerman on Tuesday sold his grocery store in Armstrong street to A. W. Grove, of Lemoyne.