A Demonstration of OMO, the Odorless Dress Shield

Dress shields are important enough to warrant careful selection. You should know as much about them as possible. It will be worth your while for you to come in and consult the expert from the factory who is demonstrating Omo shields this week.

She will explain to you the advantages of Omo, the Odorless Dress Shields, and give you new hints and ideas as to the best way to wear them.

Omo shields are made in many styles and embody new ideas in comfort and service. They contain no rubber, and are guaranteed to be moisture proof and odorless.

New Satin, Silk and Velvet Shapes Make an Interesting Display of Mid-Summer Millinery

These are the latest styles from the millinery designers of New York City. The shapes are of silk, satin and velvet, in pink, blue, rose, black and white and black, in turban, sailor and floppy brim effects. Some have soft crowns and some have under brims faced with black velvet.

Women who find their Summer hats looking much the worse for wear will welcome these new styles for Mid-Summer wear for the reasons that the hats are new, attractive and inexpensive.

Prices, 98c, $1.49, $1.69, $1.95 to $2.95.

New Velvet and Silk Trimmed Hats

Black velvet is the fashionable hat of the hour and shows the novel use of yarn stitching and crochet effects for trimmings. The shapes are saucy military effects, sailors and floppy brim styles. Some are all black and some are black and white. Unusually smart modes at $4.95 and $5.95

Worthy of interest, too, is a new line of trimmed Panama hats at $3.95 and $4.95
