WEATHER MAN URGED TO BE GOOD FRIDAY

Big Crowd Assured at Reservoir For Electric Co. Band Concert; Many Small Picnics

If the weather man only behaves next Friday evening the chances are that a record-breaking crowd will hear the concert by the Commonwealth band which will be provided by the Harrisburg Light and Power Company. Wet or threatening weather weather most every Friday evening for the last few weeks has interfered with the attendance and just hosts of music lovers are anxiously awaiting a chance to hear a full concert. Furthermore there will be a number of family picnics at the park that day and this will also help swell the crowd.

An attractive list of selections has been prepared by Conductor W. Fred Weber and the electric light company has promised something unique in programs. Following are the members:

March, "Are You the O'Reilly"; Emmett; overture, "Morning, Noon and Night"; Suppe; intermezzo, "Eleanora"; Deppen; selection, "The Only Girl"; Herbert; waltz, "Ever or Never"; Waldteufel; medley, overture, "The Grand Slam"; Witmark; Opus 101, "Humoresque"; Dvorak; love spell, "Charme D'Amour"; Kendl; descriptive overture, "Village Life in Ye Old Time"; synopsis: Night, sunrise; astir in the village; children on way to school; the blacksmith and his hosts; the May queen; Maypole dance; the village clown; lovers' serenade; finale, March, "The Four Jacks"; Losh. "Star Spangled Banner."

MRS. MARY CONDREN 85 YEARS OLD TODAY

Envy of All Her Neighbors

Surrounded by the immediate members of her family and a few close friends, Mrs. Mary Condren celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday yesterday at the home of her son, William F. Condren, 335 Kelly street.

Mrs. Condren was born in this city in 1830 and has lived here continuously since. She is a member of Pine Street Presbyterian Church and in addition to attending at least one service on Sunday regularly attends the mothers' meetings. She has been a member of this church for thirty-five years.

In possession of all her faculties, Mrs. Condren spends hours sewing and knitting. Some of her needlecraft is the envy of her neighbors, to whom she shows it with much pride.

Mrs. Charles Shepley, 29 South Third street, has returned from an extended visit with Mrs. Charles Hyers, at Camp Wahoo, Cove.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hyers have returned to their home at 329 Chestnut street from Camp Wahoo, at the Cove.

VACATION SCHOOL AT ST. ANDREW'S

Youngsters From 4 to 10 Admitted; Miss Elizabeth L. Hilleary in Charge

Beginning next Monday, a vacation school for children from four to ten years of age will be conducted for the remainder of the month at St. Andrew's Parish House, Nineteenth and Market streets. It will be held from 9 to 11:30 each week day morning, except Saturdays.

Miss Elizabeth L. Hilleary, director of St. Andrew's Kindergarten, will manage the school, assisted by Miss Margaret Pollock, who was her kindergarten assistant in 1913-14.

"The school will be along the usual lines of vacation schools for children," said Miss Hilleary to-day. "It is not being run for profit, but because many parents have asked for it; we found it impossible to start it sooner. There will be materials to buy and other expenses, and a charge of five cents per child per day will be made; if there are three children from a family the charge will be ten cents per day for the three. We estimate that this charge will just about cover the expenses, as there will be no rent for the parish house."

Miss Hilleary added that any parents who wish to enter their girls or boys may communicate with her at Camp Hill this week, or send the children to the school next Monday morning. The lists are open to any parents, as the school will be entirely non-parochial and undenominational.
