How to Rid the Skin of Objectionable Hairs

(Aids to Beauty) A simplified method is here given for the quick removal of hairy or fuzzy growths and rarely is more than one treatment required: Mix a stiff paste with some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every hair has vanished.

will be requested to gather at the Hummelstown Park promptly at 6:45 a. m. where they will be arranged according to their ages and placed in the automobiles. The children will be under the supervision of the Hummelstown School Teachers and the Busy Bee Club. The aged persons and "shut-ins" will be conveyed to the park. The route is as follows: Assemble at the Hummelstown Park, proceed to Railroad street, to Main street, to Hershey, return via rear road to Hummelstown Square and thence to Park. AMUSEMENTS

PAXTANG PARK

The vaudeville show at Paxtang Park this week has few dull moments in it. The individual acts are funny or interesting as the case may be, while two acrobatic acts are offerings of exceptional merit. The one big hit of the park show is made by Willard and Bond, who are the cause of a great deal of laughter in their travesty, called the "Battle of Bunco Hill." The various outbursts of laughter are due principally to Mr. Willard, a clever German comedian who impersonates Philip Schlitz, a war correspondent who is drafted into the army against his will. Mr. Bond plays the part of Capt. Braylin in an artistic manner. The services of "Devilskin," a war horse, untamed, cross-eyed and spotted as a leopard was the cause of much merriment.—Adv.

"HYPOCRITES"—AT THE REGENT

"Hypocrites" playing to capacity the whole of yesterday at the Regent and will be shown the balance of the week. The first time a moving picture production has played for four days in this city. "The Hypocrites" features Courtenay Foote, as Gabriel the ascetic, Myrtle Stedman as the nun and Margaret Edwards as Truth. This production has been playing in other cities for 50 cents to $2.00. Our price ten cents. Hypocrites is an intensely dramatic story, highly artistic in its treatment, and daring in its fearlessness with which it handles its theme. To-day and to-morrow we show South American Travel Series. Don't miss them.—Adv.

Three Children Burned to Death in Big Blaze

Delavan, Wis., Aug. 5.—Three children were burned to death; eight cottages were destroyed and three dynamited to save others in a fire at Lake Delavan, a resort near here to-day. The first was brought under control in time to save a number of summer hotels. The dead are: Helen, Lucy and Mary Bryant, children of George G. Bryant, president of the Racine Rubber Company, in whose cottage the fire is believed to have started from an overheated chimney. Because of the cold weather fires have been lighted in the cottages for several nights.
