SUMMER DRINKS AS CAUSE OF ARRESTS

Dairy and Food Commission Agents Turn Some Advertisements in Recent Crusade

CONSCIENCE BY PROXY

Interesting Payments Made to the State—School Payments Will Start on Monday

Thirty-five of the ninety-six arrests made by agents of the State Dairy and Food Commission during July were for the sale of summer "soft" drinks which did not conform with requirements of the law. Most of the arrests were made in Lancaster, Philadelphia, Beaver, Dauphin and York counties and the bulk of the offending "coolers" contained saccharin. Thirty-nine arrests were made for sale of foods which contained preservatives and some were based on flour unfit for use. Nine arrests were made in eastern counties for sale of milk and cream not up to requirements. Seven arrests were made for sale of rotten eggs in Philadelphia.

During July the division turned $874.05 into the State Treasury, making the revenue from January 1 over $250,000. This is the largest ever known in an similar period and is considerably more than it costs to operate the department for two years.

Meetings All Here.—The Public Service Commission plans to hold all of its August meetings in Harrisburg. The agent of Rochester, Pa., who had been thinking about some of his financial transactions, sent the fifty in a letter to the Rev. W. O. Yates, pastor of one of the Presbyterian churches of this city, with a request that he see that it reached the State. Mr. Yates presented the fifty in accordance with the request and it was sent to the conscience fund without any names being mentioned.

Battery to March.—State officials are much interested in the proposed march of Battery A from South Philadelphia to Tobyhanna to attend the artillery camp. The battery will start Friday night, taking full equipment.

Highway Commissioner R. J. Cunningham expects to cut down the cost of the automobile license tags to the State materially as the result of the new style tags on which bids were opened on Tuesday. The present tags are of "glass" enamel finish, which easily breaks, but the new style of tag is of a flexible enamel and a series of tests made by Chief Engineer W. D. Usher shows that it will stand bending and cracking.

Money for New Fund.—The State Fire Insurance Fund, which is to take the place of the State's insurance policies, was formally established to-day when $17,000 was placed in it in cash by State Treasurer Young. All other payments now going into the sinking fund will go to this fund and 20 per cent of the existing insurance policies on State property will be cancelled on December 1.

STEEL TRADE BOOMS ALONG VARIED LINES

Pig Iron Output Approaching Record; Many More Furnaces in; War Orders Help

"Pig-iron," says the Iron Age in its weekly review of the iron and steel trade to-day, "after being in a rut for months, while steel has been active at advancing prices, has started in the past week on what promises to be an important movement."

May Break Records.—"Pig-iron" output is crowding close up to high record figures, but all because of the prodigious demand for steel. In July the merchant furnaces, due to the poor working of some and the blowing out of several, made less iron than in June. Most of the furnaces now out will require higher prices to bring them into action.

The country's July pig-iron production was 2,562,420 tons or $2,691 tons a day. The steel companies are now close to their maximum pig-iron capacity. They made 62,895 tons a day in July, or 3,900 tons more than the daily average in June. In only four previous months—January, February, April and May, 1913—was the production of steel works furnaces greater than last month's.

Many More Furnaces in Blast.—Sixteen more furnaces were in blast on August 1 than on July 1—a total of 224 with a daily capacity of 86,776 tons against 218 furnaces and 86,411 tons a day. This production to-day is at the rate of 32,000,000 tons a year, against 18,000,000 tons January 1. The greatest year's total was 21,500,000 tons in 1912.

In steel products the week has been quieter. Most domestic consumers are apparently covered for several months and there is little or no prospect of buying. The action of the billet market, particularly in the East, is not viewed with equanimity. At $30 and higher in eastern Pennsylvania for rolling billets, semifinished steel is above the level of some finished products.

The bewildering feature of the Eastern billet market is the rapid advance in the past three weeks, at which some recent purchases were made by the Steel Corporation. Yet billet sellers have little steel to sell for this year, and in the Central West the shortage in open-heart steel grows more acute.

"At the same time bars for war purposes have ranged from 2.5c to 3.25c. Various new inquiries for rounds have come up, including orders for 10,000 tons of forging rounds at Cleveland."

CUNNINGHAM IS PLANNING TO SAVE

Believes That Automobile Tags Will Not Be as Expensive Under the New Styles

Highway Commissioner R. J. Cunningham expects to cut down the cost of the automobile license tags to the State materially as the result of the new style tags on which bids were opened on Tuesday.

Steps were taken to-day to pay to the townships of the State some of the State bounty money. The last Legislature appropriated $1,500,000 and half will be paid out, the warrants being sent to the Auditor General. Mr. Cunningham is sending this letter:

"In compliance with the terms of the act of Assembly approved July 22, 1913, we send you check covering your share of the portion of the deficiency appropriation of June 18, 1915, set aside for this year, being 30 per cent of the balance due your township as bonus on cash tax collected for road purposes for the years ending the first Monday in December, 1913, and the first Monday in December, 1914, respectively."

MISS MARLOWE BREAKS DOWN

Will Never Appear on Stage Again, Husband Declares

Hartford, Conn., Aug. 5.—Julia Marlowe will never act again, according to a statement made yesterday afternoon by her husband, Edward H. Sothman, at Litchfield, Conn., where they are summering.

"My wife has absolutely retired," said the actor. "Her illness has made it impossible for her to play and it will be the first time she has not been with me. I myself am beginning to feel that the strain on my vitality is more than formerly."

Asked if Miss Marlowe had given up all idea of acting again, Mr. Sothman emphasized the fact that she was completely broken down, adding: "It is impossible for her to try again. The price is too high. It isn't worth it."

Miners Make Appeal For Release of J. R. Lawler

Special to The Telegraph. Mt. Carmel, Pa., Aug. 5.—Upwards of 10,000 United Mine Workers at the suggestion of National President John P. White, who delivered an address here yesterday, unanimously adopted a resolution protesting to President Wilson against the imprisonment of John R. Lawler, a national board member who headed the striking miners in Colorado, is in jail at Trinidad, Col., charged with conspiracy in the death of Deputy John Neitout during the recent strike. He is a former Mt. Carmel man.

"TRUTH SHOULD BE CLOTHED," BRITISH STEAMSHIP SUNK

Inspired by the film "Hypocrites" now being shown at the Regent Theater and which is being condemned as likewise praised from every station of life, the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brougher, of New York City, recently enacted the role of "Gabriel" in a play, titled "Hypocrites" at the Temple Baptist Church. In criticizing the picture, he said:

"To-day, as in ages past, hypocrites are to be found in every department of life. A photoplay called 'Hypocrites' is being exhibited in our city at the present time. It contains some very strong lessons for the hypocrites of Los Angeles. If we could get all the hypocrites of our city to see the picture I am sure they would be benefited."

The movie depicts hypocrisy in politics, society, business, the home, the church, love and religion. I think that the author was mistaken, though when he thought that the 'Naked Truth' could be best presented by a beautiful young woman appearing in the nude covered with a sort of cloudy haze or mist, I believe that 'Truth' could be strongly presented by the same beautiful young woman in a form of hypocrisy. The author, no doubt aims to do good, but his real purpose is to draw a crowd and get the money. He knew that 'Truth' would never attract unless it appealed to the sensual and sensational in human nature."

SHORTER DAY FOR WORKMEN

Du Pont Powder Company Orders Reduction of Two Hours

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 5.—About 1,100 men, machinists, tinmiths and similar trades, were delighted to-day when the Du Pont Powder Company posted a notice that hereafter the men will work but eight hours a day and will receive the same pay which they now receive for ten hours. The order applies to the men working in the shops of the company in this city, and gets the money. He knew that 'Truth' would never attract unless it appealed to the sensual and sensational in human nature."

BANK WATCHMAN FOUND DEAD

Special to The Telegraph. Marietta, Pa., Aug. 5.—George Dreppard, 74 years old, for thirty-six years night watchman at the Lancaster County National Bank, was found dead last night behind the vault, after being on duty only about an hour. Death was due to a stroke. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, and one sister.

DEATH LIST MOUNTS IN STRICKEN ERIE

Relief is Offered.—Physicians from the Pennsylvania Health Department arrived here during the night and at once took up the task of safe guarding the city from pestilence. All persons known to have come in contact with the filthy flood water were ordered to appear at the office of the Erie Health Bureau this afternoon for vaccination against typhoid. It was said that all the disinfectants necessary was at hand to spread through the flood district.

Estimates of the damage continue to mount as the extent of the flood becomes apparent. Where it was believed that $3,000,000 would cover the loss, it was said today that probably $5,000,000 would be nearer the correct estimate.

$8,000 For Needy

Mayor Stern, whose appeal to the people for help yesterday met with ready response, to-day stated $8,000 was already in hand and much more was in sight. This feature of the situation has been carefully organized so that there will be no duplication of assistance and in order that the people who need help most will be given it first.

A trip through the flood region this morning showed hundreds of persons lining the banks of the now insignificant stream, while other hundreds were kept back by the National Guardsmen. The stench arising from the mass of wreckage kept other hundreds away.

Gangs of men were early put to work clearing up the stores along State street, the principal business thoroughfare where many places were flooded but the principal damage was due to the deposits of filth and slime left by the falling waters. Little if any business was done there yesterday but attempts in that direction were made to-day. The losses to ruined stocks here will be heavy.
