Wife was at Church
While Jsaac Lontz and his wife were away from their home in Paxtang yesterday morning a sneak thief entered a rear window and after ransacking the house departed with $120 to his credit. Lontz was at work in Paxtang Park and his wife was at church when the robbery occurred. Lontz returned home about 10.30 and discovered the theft. Neighbors say they saw a man leaving the house, but they paid no attention to him.

The same fellow had been seen in the town for two days and Saturday night persons remember that he visited various parts of the borough. Today, however, he cannot be found.

When Lontz discovered his loss he notified Constable Ed. Martin and he in company with a number of other men scoured the town for a clue, but without avail. The State police at Penbrook were notified and they, too, are working on the case.
