

Warren F. Brandt,
Hershey, Pa.
Stenotypist
Interstate Commerce Com.
Washington, D. C.

Miss Daisie V. Kuhn,
Newport, Pa.
Stenographer
Harrisburg Feed & Grain Co.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Merle Zimmerman,
Mechanicsburg, Pa.
Bookkeeper & Stenographer
Dauphin Electrical Supply Co.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Miss Frances Sutton,
Lemoyne, Pa.
Bookkeeper
The D. Bacon Co.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Miley Sheaffer,
Dillsburg, Pa.
Bookkeeper, now Salesman
Wincoff Stove Works,
Middletown, Pa.

Chas. F. Kunkel,
New Cumberland, Pa.
Stenographer
Chief Div. of Appointments
Treasury Department
Washington, D. C.

Miss Esther M. Sadler,
Harrisburg, Pa.
Bookkeeper and Stenotypist
Fisk Rubber Co.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Raymond Zeiters,
Hummelstown, Pa.
Bookkeeper & Stenographer
Brightbill Lumber Co.,
Hummelstown, Pa.

Miss Alva J. Sherman,
Lemoyne, Pa.
Stenographer
Elliott-Fisher Typewriter Co.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Russell Stambaugh,
Mechanicsburg, Pa.
Stenotypist
Ticket Receivers' Office
Penna. R. R.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Established 1894

A Diploma From the School of Commerce Is the Medal of Efficiency

That Opens the Door of Opportunity Which Leads to the Highest and Best Paying Positions

Education is something rather intangible—you cannot compare it as you can articles of merchandise. Buying an education, therefore, is a much more difficult problem than buying merchandise. You only buy a business education once in a lifetime. The difference between the cost of good and bad instruction is small, but the difference in results is great. Good training will bring you success and happiness; poor training, failure and disappointment. How, then, is the selection of a school to be made when a business career is the ultimate object?

YOU CAN JUDGE A SCHOOL BY THE SUCCESS OF ITS GRADUATES JUST AS YOU JUDGE A MILL BY ITS PRODUCT

The young men and women whose portraits appear on this page represent hundreds of our graduates who say that the thorough training received at the School of Commerce has proved invaluable to them in the attainment of their business success. The School of Commerce considers its hundreds of graduates one of its greatest assets.

School of Commerce graduates succeed because its courses of study are thorough and complete with an efficient, experienced teacher at the head of each department. The courses of study comprise Bookkeeping, Stenotypy, Shorthand, Typewriting and Penmanship, together with the kindred subjects required to make each course complete.

CIVIL SERVICE—Our graduates always successfully pass the Civil Service examination; but in order to insure quick appointment, one should stand high on the list. To insure high grades, we have arranged a Post Graduate Course for stenographers. To master it virtually means a position with the U. S. Government, as it is unable to secure a sufficient number of efficient stenographers.

OUR EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT is known to the business men of Harrisburg and its suburban towns as a reliable source of obtaining thoroughly trained, efficient office assistants; for we will not recommend any one who has not first made thorough preparation.

DAY SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 1st NIGHT SCHOOL OPENS SEPTEMBER 6th

The school office is open from 8 A. M. to 5 P. M.: evenings by appointment. We welcome parents and prospective students to make a thorough investigation of the school, its personnel, its equipment and facilities in general. Send in your application now. Bell phone 1946-J. For catalogue or further information call at the office or address

SCHOOL OF COMMERCE D. L. M. RAKER, Principal
Central Pennsylvania's Leading Business College

Troup Building 15 South Market Square Harrisburg, Pa.

Miss Mary Bonsall,
Newport, Pa.
Stenographer
Dept. Fire Marshall
Commonwealth of Penna.
Harrisburg, Pa.

John J. Husic,
Chief Clerk
Employment Dept.
Penna. Steel Co.,
Steelton, Pa.

Michael Keane,
Harrisburg, Pa.
Stenographer, Freight Dept.
Penna. R. R.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Miss Ruth Shaffner,
Highspire, Pa.
Stenotypist
Conn. Mutual Life Ins. Co.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Charles Mitchell,
Harrisburg, Pa.
Bookkeeper
International Harvester Co.,
Davenport, Iowa.

Miss Ruth Stoner,
Highspire, Pa.
Stenographer
Dept. Labor and Industry
Commonwealth of Penna.
Harrisburg, Pa.

Gurney Kissinger,
Gratz, Pa.
Stenotypist
Harrisburg Transfer
Penna. R. R. Co.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

L. Richard Heagy,
Camp Hill, Pa.
Stenographer
Water Supply Commission,
Commonwealth of Penna.
Harrisburg, Pa.

