RUSH WORK IN THE YOSEMITE

Preparations on Big Scale For Accommodation of Many Expedition Visitors

TEMPORARY CAMP FINISHED

Opening of the Tioga Road Now Makes Accessible the Wonderful Tuolumne Canyon

Washington, D. C., July 19.—There have been lively times in the Yosemite since the snows with the making ready for the great crowds which exposition travel is expected to bring with it during July and August.

The scheme is to work up co-operative parties of greater or less size, composed for the most part of friends or acquaintances with the purpose of planning out the most delightful combination of places and securing, by concerted action, the best accommodations and lowest expenses possible.

A good many women will lead such parties this summer. It is the experience of Enos Mills, the Rocky Mountain sage and naturalist, that women make, on the whole, better mountain guides than men.

Big Emergency Camp At the same time he reported the reservations to date at the Sentinel Hotel and Camp Lost Arrow alone as 1,525 people, against a combined capacity of 750.

COMESTIBLES FOR THE JAPANESE CORONATION

Preparations for the imperial enthronement next November are in full blast all over Japan. Though called the coronation, the word is not exact, as no crown is worn by the emperor; they simply take the throne.

when fine dry weather was confidently expected. This naturally delayed the work. But visitors to the valley will reap advantages from it, nevertheless, for the waterfalls will remain at the height of their beauty later than usual.

WHO'LL GRIND DE ORG?

"The latest quandary in which we Americans find ourselves to-day," observes "Zim," the veteran cartoonist, in Cartoons Magazine, "is what will become of the banana and peanut business when our pushcart merchants respond to Italy's call, 'To the Colats?'"

THE ANTI-JAPANESE BOYCOTT

Tokio reports show no alarm over the boycott-situation, which has eased up considerably. The pro-Yuan journalists, however, whose industrious tomtom beating is responsible for the Chinese boycott movement against Japanese goods, appear to have duplicated the creation of the monster Frankenstein inasmuch as their friends are now crying out that it had better be stopped before it makes serious trouble for Yuan himself.

FUTURE OF EASTERN MONGOLIA

A writer in the Chuo Koron of Tokio has a lengthy article in a June issue on Japanese prospects in China. In Shanghai he does not think Japan can do much until the war in Europe is over, but in Eastern Mongolia there is a chance for trade and enterprise.

WAR HITS LABOR UNIONISM

This means just one thing: it means that the cause of the labor unions, once stronger in England than anywhere else in the world, has been put back a quarter of a century. And it may mean more: two years ago Lloyd-George was playing with the idea of the government ownership of many public utilities, even of the coal mines.
