

NEW BUREAU WILL OPEN OCTOBER 1
Commissioner Jackson Takes Up Employment Agency Supervision With Philadelphians

Representatives of employers, labor unions and employment bureaus gathered yesterday in Philadelphia at the request of Commissioner Jackson, of the Labor and Industry Department, and pledged their co-operation to the new Employment Bureau to be established by the State on October 1. They were asked by Commissioner Jackson for suggestions and encouraged to give their ideas on how the department could conduct and organize the new bureau, recently created by the Legislature, to make it of benefit to everyone.

Besides the Commissioner, Jacob Lightner, supervisor of the Philadelphia department office, who is organizing the bureau, and Louis B. Irwin, secretary to the Commissioner, were present. Henry Morgan came as a representative of the Metal Manufacturers' Association and placed at the disposal of the State Bureau the elaborate employment system which the association has for its members.

How the various commercial employment bureaus could co-operate with the State was the subject of remarks by Henry C. Price, read of a Philadelphia employment bureau. Representing the labor unions, John A. Phillips, secretary of the Central Union, told the Commissioner he believed that the universal sentiment among labor organizations indicated their faith in the new project. Others who attended the conference were Representative James Maurer, for State Federation of Labor; C. C. Baldi, Charles Wacker, Juvenile Protective Association; Miss Flannery, Consumers' League, and Joseph Willets, Bureau of Highways.

VEGETABLES SOLD BY FRICK EMPLOYEES WORTH $186,585

By Associated Press
Connellsville, Pa., Aug. 20.—Complete returns of the 1915 garden competition among the employees of the H. C. Frick Coke Company were made public today by the committee of judges. They reported that 6,819 heads of families employed at the company's fifty-six plants, had taken advantage of the offer to cultivate company property, raising vegetables to the value of $186,585. Only 270 of the plots available were not used, and the judges expressed the belief that some of this ground was sterile as to make its cultivation unprofitable. The company buys these vegetables at the current market price.

When this is accomplished the allies will transfer Macedonia to Bulgaria. The plan only awaits the adhesion of Italy."

KEEP AWAY THOSE GRAY HAIRS WITH SAGE TEA

With Sulphur, it Restores Natural Dark Shade. Guaranteed.

Sage Tea, combined with Sulphur, has been the favorite remedy for generations for darkening gray hair. Instead of trying to make the mixture yourself, simply get a 50c bottle of Sulpho-Sage. Druggists say it contains all the virtues of the good old-fashioned preparation plus other valuable ingredients.

No matter how long you have been gray, Sulpho-Sage will bring back the rich dark shade evenly and perfectly, leaving it glossy, lustrous and youthful looking. Entirely unlike dyes, no one will know you are using Sulpho-Sage. It removes dandruff and keeps new gray hairs from showing. Guaranteed or George A. Gorgas, who sells and recommends Sulpho-Sage in Harrisburg, Pa., will return your money. Clifton Chemical Company, Newark, N. J. Out of town orders filled by Parcel Post.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS
HORSE SHIPMENTS HEAVY THIS WEEK

One Special Train Each Day; Seashore Travel Yesterday Included Folks from the West

Horses, enroute from western points to tidewater for shipment to the allies, now travel on passenger train schedule. This week is likely to prove a record breaker for horse shipments. Each day one train load passes through Harrisburg. The trains are run as specials and include from five to seven cars. Each car contains twenty horses.

The horses are recorded as high class shipments. They are carried in Pullman horse cars, and in each city receive food and water. The trains reach Harrisburg late in the afternoon.

In addition to these extra trains, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is also having a record run of seashore excursionists. From the west yesterday there were nine special trains, each carrying from 250 to 300 passengers. They came from Pittsburgh and intermediate points. It was estimated that 2100 passengers went through Harrisburg to seashore points.

Equipment Ready For Russian Ports

Special to The Telegraph
Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 20.—A shipment consisting of steel rails and locomotives for the Russian Government, left the works of the Lackawanna Steel Company and the Baldwin Locomotive Works yesterday, for Pier 3, in Port Richmond, where the rails and locomotives will be loaded on the steamship St. Leonards, when it arrives in the port next Monday. This shipment consists of fifteen locomotives and steel rails to the amount of 3000 tons, and will be followed in rapid succession with seven other shipments. All the rails and locomotives are for Russia and will be used to complete the Trans-Siberian Railway. It is understood that the St. Leonards will steam through the Panama Canal and then to the Russian port of Vladivostok. Baldwin's and the Lackawanna Company hold all of these contracts.

The locomotives are of special type and the fifteen steel rails are part of an order for 250. The order, it is said, will be completed within the next two months. The rails are of two varieties—heavy and light. The light rails are such as those used in track yards in this country. It is expected that the heavy rails will be used for the transportation of troops and munitions in the war zone.

Engine Strikes Pilot; Hurls Him From Cab

Special to The Telegraph
Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 20.—Solomon L. Delevie, a freight engineer of the Pennsylvania Railroad whose home is in this city, was injured, probably fatally, last night when he was struck by a passing locomotive as he leaned out of his cab window.

He has a fractured skull, fractured left arm, and severe contusions of the body.

The accident occurred at Monocacy, Pa. Delevie was shifting a string of freight cars and leaned far out his cab window to get a signal from his conductor. The other engine approached from the rear and struck him such a severe blow that he was lifted clear of the window and hurled on the track between the two locomotives.

DISEASE CAUSED BY MEN'S NEGLIGENCE

Commissioner Dixon Discusses Waste of Life and Health Through Sheer Recklessness

Many of the diseases which carry men off before their time are the result of lack of care. In other words, men are killing themselves. Dr. Dixon has this to say about diseases that can be headed off:

Benjamin Franklin said, "Nine men in ten are suicides." The indifference of individuals to their continued personal welfare which inspired this remark 169 years ago applies equally today. Conditions have changed in many ways and some of them are less beneficial for the individual.

Carefully accumulated statistics show that there has in all probability been a steady increase in Bright's disease and other degenerative diseases incidental to advancing age, within the past few years. Certainly the number of deaths from this cause is sufficiently high to warrant the serious consideration of every individual advancing toward middle life. Of course, everyone nowadays is familiar with the doctrine of fresh air, exercise and simplicity of diet, etc., which make up the creed of the sanitarian.

Few are willing to go to the fancied discomfort of denying themselves the pleasures of eating, drinking or indolent ease. They are perfectly aware, to be sure, that indulgence is unwise. They have been warned by other people's experiences and not improbably have been admonished by their medical advisers as to the evil effects of certain favorite indulgences. But the fact that a single gratification of their weakness is not likely to be accompanied by any of the forecasted ill effects seems to lead the majority of people on regardless of the ultimate accounting which Nature is certain to demand. The way of least resistance seems to be the popular path.

Probably every individual will admit to himself that he is running a risk and that the ultimate outcome will probably prove serious. Nevertheless, continue he will and so there is more than a modicum of truth in what Poor Richard said.

Self-denial and temperance may seem Spartan virtues to the self-indulgent, but they are worth cultivating if one would challenge Father Time and his grim companion.
